HANNA WILL NOW CLAIM EVERYTHING.

Monster Campaign Fund to Be Poured Into the Doubtful States.

NO LONGER TALK OF APATHY.

Republican Leaders Now Plan to Spend the Money Obtained From the Trusts and New York Syndicates.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Democratic leaders in the Democratic Congressional Committee today, have received authentic information regarding the plans the Republican managers have decided upon for the disposition of their monster corruption fund.

It has been learned that the millions which Mark Hanna has raised from the trusts are to be dumped into the States of Maryland, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, with the intention of debauching enough voters therein to make certain the selection of McKinley and Roosevelt electors.

The original Republican plan was to concentrate the work with the corruption fund in a single State, believing that New York was safely Republican, and by making certain of one of the doubtful States in the Middle West, the election of McKinley would be insured. This plan was changed, it is stated, because of the alarming uncertainty with which the New York situation has come to be viewed now.

"I have positive personal knowledge that the Republican managers have practically completed their plans for debauching the election in certain States," said Secretary Kerr of the Democratic Congressional Committee to-day. "In a few days we will be in a position to expose the most gigantic plot to win an election through corruption that has ever been exploited in the history of American politics. The details will be made public in due time."

It is learned here that not all of Mark Hanna's time during the last week or two has been devoted to the strike of the coal miners. It is said that he has been calling some expert manipulators of elections in former notorious campaigns to consult with him on "how to do it" again in the States they are best acquainted with. It is said that one expert informed him that the only way to do it in Indiana is the way it was done in 1888. Reference was had to "blocks of five" system.

It is understood, however, that the general scheme finally agreed upon contemplates keeping thousands of voters away from the polls in the several States selected. There are millions and millions of dollars to be divided among five States, with the possibility of working the same game in some of the rural districts of New York State.

After collecting his money Mark Hanna is through with his wait of apathy and overconfidence, and from this out it is his policy to claim everything with the utmost extravag
