Few Rejections of the Applications Made in Vinita.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Vinita, I. T., Oct. 5.—The United States Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes closed its books for enrolling Cherokees here this evening, after three weeks' constant work, and moved to Bartlesville, I. T. While here the commission enrolled 4,611 persons of unquestioned citizenship, placed 613 on a doubtful roll and rejected fifty-four, making a total of 5,389 persons whose claims have been passed upon. This work is being done preparatory to allotment of Indian lands.

FUNERAL OF MISS C. J. MURPHY.

Long Life Was Passed in Charitable Deeds.

The funeral of Miss Catherine J. Murphy, who died October 1, at her home in Bonhomme Township, St. Louis County, after a lingering illness, took place Thursday afternoon at the old Murphy homestead. The burial was at Fee Fee Cemetery in the county.

Miss Murphy was the oldest child of the late Major Thomas Murphy and was born at the Murphy homestead in Bonhomme Township seventy-six years ago. Her father was also born at the same place and since 1739 some of the Murphy family had lived there.

Miss Murphy passed her entire life on the farm where she was born and was known the county over for her many acts of charity. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church and in the religious field labored constantly throughout her long life. In the early forties she assisted in the organization of the Union Sabbath School at Creve Coeur and for more than fifty years continued her labors in behalf of the school. Under her careful and wise management the school grew to be the largest in the county. And in her declining years the greatest pleasure left in life for her was to visit the old school building and its surroundings.

DR. J. M. YATES MODERATOR.

Spring River Baptist Association Adjourns Its Convention.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Carthage, Mo., Oct. 5.—For three days the Spring River Baptist Association has held sessions at Carterville. To-day the convention closed. Officers were chosen as follows: Moderator, Doctor J. M. Yates of Joplin; clerk, Reverend J. W. Jent, Sarcoxie; treasurer, N. D. White, Seneca. The Reverend J. M. Yates was chosen as delegate to the general meeting to be held in Atlanta, Ga.

During the session temperance was ably discussed, and strong resolutions in behalf of this branch of work were passed. The committee named to conduct the work for the year was N. D. White, Mrs. C. G. Skillman and Mrs. A. Hughes. Carthage was chosen as the next place of meeting, in October, 1901.
