VARICOCELE

Cured Without Surgery

(W. A. COOK, M. D.)

Whatever may be the cause of varicocele, its injurious effect is well known. It depresses the mind, weakens the body, racks the nervous system and ultimately leads to a complete loss of sexual power. If you are a victim of varicocele come to my office and let me explain to you my process of treating it. You will then not wonder why I have positively cured more than 700 cases of this dire disease during the past 12 months. Under my treatment the patient improves from the very beginning. All pain instantly ceases. Soreness and swelling quickly subside. The pools of stagnant blood are forced from the dilated veins, which rapidly assume their normal size, strength and soundness. All indications of disease and weakness vanish completely and forever, and in their stead come the pride, the power and the pleasures of perfect health and restored manhood.

I also cure to stay cured STRICTURE, CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON, NERVO-SEXUAL DEBILITY and all reflex complications and associate disorders and weaknesses of men. To these maladies alone I have earnestly devoted 25 of the best years of my life. Physicians having stubborn cases to treat are cordially invited to consult with me. I make no charge for private counsel, and give to each patient a legal contract in writing, backed by abundant capital, to hold for my promise. Is it not worth your while to investigate a cure that has made life anew to multitudes?

WEIDEMAN PROVED A FALSE ALARM.

Cahn Cast-Off, Backed for a Good Thing, Finished Third at Kinloch Park.

EINSTEIN FINISHED GAMELY.

Riley Gelding Beat Gray Forge in a Hard Drive—Annie Oldfield Galloped Over Maydine—Racing Results.

Selling platers had the card to themselves at Kinloch Park yesterday. The programme consisted of six well-filled races, but there was little quality to the class of horses that furnished the afternoon's sport.

Jockey Bassinger piloted two of the winners, his ride on Einstein in the fifth event being the cleverest piece of horsemanship of the day. Wedderstrand also rode a clever race on Annie Oldfield in the closing event of the day. The winning favorites were Poyntz and Einstein.

Weideman, who is racing in the colors of Hutchinson & Co., was backed from 5 to 2 down to 2 to 5 in the first race, but third place was the best he could do. Doralise, a 10 to 1 shot, captured the big end of the purse after an argument with Reefer, a 25 to 1 shot.

Weideman is the Kingston-Servia colt that Eugene Leigh asked $10,000 for as a 2-year-old. He can outwork any horse at the track in the morning, but never runs to his work in the afternoon. Pat Dunne had him last spring and J. C. Cahn also trained him for awhile.

Wally Fessenden, the ex-baseball umpire, backed his horse Imp. Kimmage to win the second race, but Kimmage acted badly at the post and eventually threw his rider, J. Matthews. Pirate's Daughter, at 5 to 1, won the race from Kenova and Al Lone. De Blaise, Julietta B. and Papa Henry finished among the unplaced in this race.

Prosper La Gal was expected to give Poyntz some trouble in the third event, but she failed to run her race under Jockey Frost, who had been substituted for J. Matthews, the latter being unable to ride the filly on account of his fall from Kimmage. With Prosper La Gal out of his way, Poyntz had things all his own way and was as he pleased from Scorpolette and Downhearted.

"Cap" Tilles thought Chinn and Forsythe's entry in this race was Propeller and lost a lot of money on the colt before he finally found out that the horse he was betting on was Poyntz instead of Propeller. Then he wanted to get his money off, but finally decided to let it go at that.

Captain Billy Williamson's breadwinner Tom Kingsley captured the fourth race in a driving finish from Two Annies and Jack Adie. Eugenia Wickes and Nobleman, the favorites, both finished in the rack.

Einstein, the 8 to 5 favorite, scored in the fifth, winning by a narrow margin from Grey Forge. Annie Oldfield galloped home in the sixth, with Maydine second and Percy R. third. Tilly Ann finished unplaced.

The summaries:

First race, six furlongs—Doralise, 104 (Cochran), 10 to 1, first; Reefer, 104 (Gaswinger), 25 to 1, second; Weideman, 96 (Wedderstrand), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:15. Capitola, Sylvann, Gold Band, Nobleness, Eleanor R., Bladder III, The Hand, Mountain Top and Miss Verte also ran.

PATSY FREEMAN TALKS.

American Jockey Expects to Make His Mark on the French Turf.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

Paris, Oct. 5.—(Copyright, 1900, by the New York Herald Company.)—"Why have I crossed the Atlantic? Why, simply because I cannot get enough riding at home."

This was the reply made by "Patsy" Freeman to me at Chantilly yesterday morning as we were chatting beneath the trees in the pretty garden of the Hotel du Grande Conde.

"I've only been here three weeks," continued the American jockey, "but what I have seen of French racing has impressed me greatly. Like 'Cash' Sloan, with whom I am living, I think that as far as the general arrangements are concerned everything is better this side of the Atlantic. Here all races are run on turf courses. There is no dirt or sand on the tracks as in America, where as a result only heavyweight jockeys are in request.

"What is the consequence? As soon as a jockey in the United States begins to age and in the natural course of things gets a little weight on, and just when he has gathered enough experience to make him a good judge of pace and a good rider, he suddenly finds himself shelved. Shall I give you an example?

"Lester Reiff is now at the top of the list in England. Had he stayed in America he would not have had more than a dozen rides in the season. You must remember that the English and the French handicapping system give all jockeys a chance on this side of the ocean. Should the top weight be scratched the weights are raised. On the other side they remain as on the day of publication, and so it happens that even middle-weight jockeys are often without ride for all we are worth the other boys will have to sit up.

"By the by," said Freeman, as I rose to say good-by, "all the jockeys in England and France say that we have luck, are put on the best 'cattle' and that our style of riding forward has nothing in it. Now that you are going back to Paris, just ask Sloan and he will tell you why we can get a horse home when others cannot. One great thing is that when we start we go from the flag to the post. Should the horse be beaten it means that he hadn't an ounce left in him. As I said before, we have come here to make the reputation, and we mean to do our level best."

DANNY MAHER WON BIG STAKES.

Rode the Winner in Imperial Produce Race for 3,000 Sovereigns.

London, Oct. 5.—At the Kempton Park autumn meeting to-day the Imperial Produce Stakes of 3,000 sovereigns, for the produce of mares covered in 1897, to run out 3 years, six furlongs, was won by H. Chaplin's bay filly by Galtee More, ridden by Danny Maher. Second place was captured by Mr. Theobald's brown colt Velodrevski. Lester Reiff had the mount. Santa Linda came in third. Nine horses ran.

The Middlesex selling plate, one mile and a half, was won by Pallanet, guided by J. H. Martin. Mergante ran second, with Rigby up; and Yussen, with Ted Sloan in the saddle, was third.

The Half-Moon selling, Nursery Handicap, five furlongs, was won by Bredacott, ridden by Maher.

The Richmond Plate (handicap) of 1,000 sovereigns, six furlongs, was won by J. A. Drake's bay colt, Sir Hercules, on which Lester Reiff had the mount.

HENRY ON FOUR WINNERS.

California Jockey Carried Off Riding Honors at Morris Park.

New York, Oct. 5.—Henry's riding was the feature of the racing at Morris Park to-day. Out of five mounts he won four, and finished third once, a record to be proud of. His first mount was on Glenellie in the Bonnibert Handicap, and after a rough journey he had to be content with third place. This race was the feature of the day. Musketeer and Carnelian made the running for five furlongs, when there was a general closing, and O'Connor, bringing Doctor Barlow up with a rush, won cleverly by a length from Telamon, the favorite, who was a neck before Glenellie.

Then Henry took the next four races in succession. He made all the running, and won an easy victory with Himtine in the Fort Schuyler selling race; he brought Talouse home in front in the fourth race, three lengths before the Golden Prince; Lord Pepper and Ginki, who were head-is apart, behind him; he managed to graduate Radford in the fifth, but had to call forth his best skill to beat Support, a neck, and then he wound up the day's racing by an easy victory on Intrusive, who romped home four lengths before the favorite, Faconius, in the Grand Stand Handicap. The Friday hurdle race opened to-day's sport. Mazo, the favorite, won cleverly by a length from Long Island. Favorites for the second day in succession won half the card. TO TACKLE CHICAGO'S POLO TEAM.

Country Club's Organization Departs, Confident of Winning Trophies.

The Country Club polo team departed from St. Louis last night for Chicago, where it will play three match games with the Chicago polo team for two trophies, the games will be contested on the polo field at Riverside Club, on the shores of Lake Michigan, which is about thirty miles out of Chicago, and presented the Interstate golf links.

St. Louis will be represented by J. C. Drew, playing No. 1; Carey Jones, No. 2; Sam Davis, No. 3, and Lloyd Jones, No. 4. The probable lineup of the Chicago team will be F. Mackey, No. 1; W. Kellogg, No. 2; S. Barberich, No. 3, and W. Parmelee, No. 4. The handicaps of both teams will be practically the same, that of St. Louis being ten goals, and eight goals respectively.

The ponies owned by the St. Louis team were shipped to Chicago in a special car on Wednesday, and are already in the Onwentsia Club stables. The home club has been quietly preparing for the match, and, when the intention of splitting the Chicago team was made in Chicago two years ago, Harry Walker, one of the crack players, has been unavailably detained in St. Louis. Jerome Frew, who is filling his position, is considered one of the promising polo players of the West.

The games will be pulled off, one to-day and the other on Monday and Tuesday of next week. On the week following the Chicago team will come to St. Louis for the games, to be played on the Country Club field. The last match game between the two teams was played in Chicago two years ago, on which occasion the St. Louis team captured all the laurels.

STEVE FRANAGAN MAY DIE.

Fell Unconscious in the Ring in Bout With Devine.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—At the Industrial Athletic Club to-night Steve Franagan of Philadelphia, featherweight champion of America, fell unconscious in the ring and had round of a recent with Blondie Devine, a local boxer, and is a sick man to-night lies in a critical condition in a hospital.

Franagan's manager, Bob Delaney, and Jimmie Devine, and the managers of both fighters, were placed under arrest pending an examination of Franagan's condition. Franagan is the champion featherweight of America, and is a native of Ireland. He has been a college man and has numbered for it. He used to meet of the best boxers in the country, however, thinking that he was worn out, set up a clever, hard-hitting Devine and seconds jumped into the ring when Devine was standing over the unknown boxer, with a look of astonishment on his face.

Franagan was carried to his corner and all efforts to revive him failed, and he was taken to a hospital near by, where the physicians expected some to die in his condition.

At the hospital the physicians found a hemorrhage of the brain. The doctors could not say whether this was due to a blow or from other causes.

Some months ago, when Franagan was knocked out by Danny Dougherty, ten hours elapsed before the physicians succeeded in bringing him to. The opinion is expressed that Franagan may have been seized to-night with an attack of vertigo.

Lynch, Chambers and the referee, but up to a late hour had not been placed under arrest.

The other bouts were permitted to go on, with Crowhurst as the referee. They were of no special interest, with the exception of the final one, in which Tim Callahan had all the better of Harry Burk.

VARDON WINS THE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

Jersey Marvel Defeats His Great Rival by Two Strokes in Seventy-Two Holes.

SIMPSON WELL UP IN LIST.

St. Louis Golfer Finishes Twelfth in a Field of 65 of the Best Professionals in the World at Wheaton, Ill.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 5.—Before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a golf championship in America, Harry Vardon, former champion of Great Britain, won the U. S. G. A. open championship from Great Britain's premier player, J. H. Taylor, by the narrow margin of two strokes on the Chicago golf links at Wheaton this afternoon. Two hundred, three and forty-five Americans and Scotch, Irish, English and American players, for the title of champion of the United States. With them, although not so close up as we might have seen, was the holder of the cup, Willie Smith. That either Vardon or Taylor would be the winner was the opinion of all but a golfer, was as a foregone conclusion, but the championship resolved itself into a contest between Vardon and Taylor. Vardon started out in a very strong manner, and was in the lead all the way, with the exception of one stroke, which Taylor succeeded in making on the 8th and 9th holes. Vardon, however, regained the lost stroke on the 13th and 14th holes, and was never thereafter in danger of being overtaken. Vardon finished his round with his best round, concluded with the worst and totaled the eighty. Taylor was four strokes to the good side of Vardon at noon, with three contests to be played, and contented with a round of 77 in the morning, Taylor, by a great effort, made his round in 76 and 80 to Vardon's 77 and 79, showed the closeness of Taylor's game. It was not until the last hole had been played by Vardon and he putted carefully on the 18th hole, given that one stroke, it would result that the second place, the silver medal, was of the tourney.
