AMERICANS SOLD OFF IN LONDON MARKET.

HEAVY REALIZING WAS THE CAUSE.

Firmer Tendency in Paris Exchange—Berlin Lower—New York Trading Enormous.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Nov. 9.—The London market was strong as regards mining shares on the crushing defeat of General De Wet and the capture of all his artillery, but American stocks sold off on realizing. The general market was steady, and consols closed practically unchanged. There was a firmer tendency in Paris exchange, but Berlin demand was lower. No changes were recorded in discount rates. There was no foreign news otherwise of importance, beyond the contradiction of the rumored Russian annexation in China. Foreign bourses were fairly firm.

In the local market the volume of trading was enormous, and at 1 o'clock, with 1,115,000 shares, held the record. It was evidently a case where the public buying had far exceeded the anticipations of the professional element, and had apparently taken the market away from it. There was nothing else to do for the traders, but to go with the stream, and cover their shorts as best they could. Buying of industrial preferred stocks was a striking feature, and gave a very solid basis to the revival of public confidence. All the traction and franchise corporations advanced rapidly, and it looks as if the result of the election would mean the abrogation of, at least, modification of the obnoxious Ford franchise tax law.

The advance in the price of pig iron must necessarily help the Steel stocks considerably. London was again a very large seller, but even 60,000 or 70,000 shares from that source did not affect the general strength of the railroad list. In a market generally moved by such considerations, individual causes had little to do with the advance. For the moment the public confidence in assured prosperity is absolute. After some reaction on heavy realizing the market started up again, and the close was strong, with most of the advances on the day well maintained. Vanderbilt interests were reported to have accumulated largely in the hard coal stocks. Sentiment was, without exception, bullish, and the only talk the other way was dictated by the hope of a reaction upon which to accumulate stocks. Sugar was very strong, and there seemed to be quite a large short interest in it.

The bank statement to-morrow should be a fairly good one, although with so large an increase in speculation, anything but a considerable increase in loans is not expected. In any case, with public sentiment as it is, whatever the figures are, they are unlikely to affect trading. Mr. Gates denies the report of a fight between Steel and Wire and the Illinois Steel Company. People's Gas has recovered part of its dividend and the general impression is that the agitation against the company, started for election purposes, will be abandoned.

Prices opened weak on the Bourse to-day, owing to advices from Tien-Tsin, regarding Russia's annexation of land there. Later, however, there was a good recovery on the belief that the report has been overestimated. The market closed unsteady on rumors of unsatisfactory tenders at a sale of manufactured iron in Rhineland and Westphalia.

LOCAL STOCKS AND BONDS.

Market Not So Excited, but Prices Held Strong and Sales Fair.

The session of the Stock Exchange was not so wildly excited, nor were dealings so heavy, as on yesterday and the day before. Nevertheless, the feeling was bullish, prices strong and in some cases higher, and trading very fair during the morning. Tractions, as usual, had the call, but bank and trust stocks were a good second, though not so heavily traded in. Other securities met with a very good demand, and when sold were generally found to have brought top prices.

The market for United Railways preferred attracted more attention than either the 4s or the Pacifics. The demand was quite brisk and to some extent urgent, and as there were a number of selling orders sales amounting to 275 shares were made, 100 at $65.50 and 175 at $65.25. Prices held up well to the close, which was at $65 bid and $65.50 asked.

There were no sales made in Transit or common, but the market was strong, with bids ranging from $25.25 to $25.50 and no offers to sell. There were in demand and firm at 244.25, with $84.50 asked, but there were no sales until just as the session was breaking up, when one bond brought $84.50.

Bank stocks were in demand and notably strong, but, owing to a scarcity of selling orders there were no sales to amount to anything. National Bank of Commerce was not so much in evidence this morning, but was quoted at 502 bid and none offered.

The only trade made in bank stocks this morning was in Continental National, 25 shares selling at $155, or one point higher than yesterday's best bid, and closing with $174.50 bid and $176 asked. Merchants'-Laclede was 1½ points higher at $155 bid and $160 asked. Third National bid $170.50, with no sellers.

Trust stocks were again in demand and showed a stronger front than on yesterday. Mississippi Valley sold and held up strongly, and the 25 shares that sold brought 2 points advance, $291.50. St. Louis was better at $227 bid; Mercantile salable at $234, with $235 asked, and Lincoln was bid $141.

THE LOCAL MONEY MARKET.

Business Active—Demand for Money Active and Rates Well Sustained.

St. Louis, Friday, Nov. 9, 1900.

There was nothing that was actually new to note in connection with the local money market to-day. Business in all departments of banking and at all the leading banks and trust companies was generally reported active and on a fairly large scale. There was an improved inquiry for money and the loan counters at the various banks were well patronized by nearly all classes of borrowers. Money was in large supply and borrowers were in most cases readily accommodated, especially those with satisfactory collateral. There was no change in rates of interest, which were quoted steady at 5 to 7 per cent in the extreme for call and time loans. Routine business at all the banks was of an active and liberal character, particularly checking and depositing, which were heavy.

The local bank clearings were again fairly large at $5,867,050, the balances amounting to $443,781.

New York Market Gossip.

The following synopsis of the gossip in regard to the leading features of the New York market was received by D. R. Francis, Bro. & Co.:

New York, Nov. 9.—The heavy selling of stocks by London continued to-day on fully as large a scale as yesterday, the sales being roughly estimated at fully 75,000 shares. As the sales on Wednesday were greatly underestimated, the total selling for London of the week will be larger than had previously been calculated. Arbitrage houses themselves place the sales for the three days since election at over 300,000 shares.

Traders were sellers of stocks at the opening, believing that the heavy London selling would swamp the market, and they caused some jolting, but the stocks sold were quickly absorbed and continued buying for sharp advances, and especially in Industrials. Brokers in the active dividend payers said that fully half the stocks bought since the beginning of the week has been for institutions, and that these stocks had been taken out of the street. This would have an important effect on the bank statement to-morrow.

The heaviest buying in Union Pacific was by Wasserman Bros., who took about 7,500 shares before noon. There was heavy buying of all the other Pacific stocks, both by banking and speculative interests.

Some large loans of time money were made at 4 per cent yesterday, the total being estimated at about $7,000,000. The rate for all periods, with all kinds of collateral, was 4 per cent, and on 3 per cent industrials and 6 per cent railroads loans were made at 4½ per cent.

Dividend prospects in the steel stocks have assumed a prominent place. It has been thought for some time that the dividends on American Steel and Wire will at least be cut in half if any dividends are declared next January. Colorado Fuel directors are expected to place the company on a dividend-paying basis so
