AMERICAN ENERGY IN MEXICO.

Activity in Extending Banking Facilities Attracting Notice.

Mexico, City, March 9.—American activity in extending banking facilities here attracts notice. The new State Bank of Chihuahua, a remote member of the federation on the Guatamalan border, has been opened for business with $500,000 capital.

The new Bank of Orizaba, with a paid-up capital of $150,000, is also a new American institution, the stock being held here in this city. Orizaba is now an important industrial center, and has hitherto lacked banking accommodations. There is talk of establishing an American bank in the famous mining city of Pachuca.

FINAL PLANS FOR ST. PATRICK PARADE

Grand Marshal Father Tracy Assigns Various Parishes to Divisions.

REVIEW BY CITY OFFICERS.

Mayor Wells and Governor Dockery Invited to Attend—Start From Twelfth and Olive Streets.

The Irish Catholic Parade Union met at No. 2919 Washington avenue last night and made final arrangements for the St. Patrick's parade next Sunday. Nearly all the parishes taking part were represented, and the Reverend Father John A. Tracy, grand marshal of the parade, gave his final instructions. It is hoped that the parade this year will be the largest in the history of the organization, and that fully 20,000 persons will be in line.

Invitations to review the parade from the Lindell Hotel have been extended to Mayor Wells and Governor Dockery, but no replies have been received. The members of the City Council and the House of Delegates will be present.

Father Tracy, grand marshal, and Daniel J. Corcoran, assistant grand marshal, have issued a circular, giving the position of every division in the parade. There will be twenty-seven divisions. Slight changes were made in their order last night. The East St. Louis and Alton delegations will march together, and St. Mark's will follow.

The parade will start from Twelfth and Olive streets at 2 o'clock sharp. Three signals will be given by way of explosive bombs. The first at 1:50 p. m., the second at 1:55 p. m. and the last at 2 p. m.

A platoon of police will send off and will be followed by the grand marshal, aids and escort. Then comes the assistant grand marshal and his aids and escort, officers of the Catholic Parade Union, Daughters of Erin, municipal officers and the regular divisions of the parade.

There will be at least four floats in the parade. Good Counsel Parish will have one, St. Teresa's two and St. Leo's one. The exact nature of these floats is not known, and it is expected that they will prove a pleasant surprise. It is thought that nearly all the parishes next year will be represented by floats.

The members of the Green Hat Brigade, the uniformed organization belonging to the Irish Catholic Parade Union, will hold a conspicuous place in the parade. They will assemble at No. 3700 Spring avenue and march to the meeting place.

Father Tracy stated last night that no advertising schemes or private or public enterprises would be permitted in the parade.

Members of St. Rose's Parish who will take part in the St. Patrick's Day parade are drilling every day. Every one who parades will wear a shamrock and an American beauty rose, with streamers of red, white and blue ribbon.

BANQUET PLANS COMPLETED.

Knights of St. Patrick Have Prepared Programme.

At a meeting of the Knights of St. Patrick, at the Southern Hotel Saturday night, arrangements for the thirty-sixth annual banquet of the society, to be given on the evening of March 17 at the Southern Hotel, were completed.

The speakers, with the toasts assigned them, are as follows: George J. Tansey, "Address of Welcome"; the Reverend Father Francis C. Doyle of Audubon, Ala., "The Day We Celebrate"; William Marion Reedy, "The President of the United States"; Martin H. Glynn of Albany, N. Y., "Greater Ireland"; Major James A. Reed of Kansas City, "The State of Missouri."

It was decided to invite to the banquet the Reverend Father John A. Tracy, grand marshal of St. Patrick's Day Parade, and decorate him with the cross of the order. M. Duffond of Paris, France, the celebrated artist who painted the picture representing the Irish patriots of '98 for the French Salon, was elected an honorary member of the order, and a cross will be sent him.

MRS. HETTY GREEN MAY CHANGE RESIDENCES.

Tax Rate Is Low at Cohasset and It Is Reported She Will Move There.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Boston, Mass., March 9.—Hetty Green, the richest woman in America, is about to become a resident of Cohasset. That she made application to one of the richest and largest estate owners in the town, offering him the trusteeship of something over $5,000,000 worth of personal property, is announced. It is also rumored that she has under consideration the purchase of the large Thompson estate in North Cohasset, as a summer residence.

Cohasset is a banner town as regards a low tax rate, $8.90 per thousand being the average for the last seven years. This rate of taxation has attracted the attention of the ever watchful mind of Mrs. Green, who is always on the alert to catch a bargain, whether it be in the matter of taxes or any other business proposition. Then, too, as a personal friend of Miss Vining she was induced to consider the advisability of considering the town for permanent residence or a location where she could, if she chose, have a pleasant summer home in close proximity to her friend, and at the same time obtain a very low rate of taxation for a large block of her personal property.

A transfer of $5,000,000, as is reported, would mean to the town of Cohasset an increased income of $50,000 per year, or a still further decrease in the tax rate.

Miss Vining and Mrs. Green, together with her attorneys, were in close consultation Thursday and Friday at the Parker House, Boston, and it is said that plans for her citizenship in Cohasset and the transfer of a large portion of her personal property to a board of Trustees were under consideration.

IN THE CITY.

SHOT IN THE ABDOMEN—Andrew Kleiman of No. 2106 North Broadway was shot in the abdomen last night in a quarrel, which occurred in a saloon at Broadway and North Market street. A slight wound was inflicted. Barney Grounds of No. 812 Warren street was arrested, charged with the shooting.

DOCTOR BURNHAM ON "THE SCATTERED DISCIPLES."

Declares "God Has Exceptional Men in All Ages of His Church."

The Reverend Doctor M. Burnham, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational Church, preached yesterday morning on the text, Acts vii, 1: "They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles." The doctor said, in part:

"First, God has exceptional men in all ages of his church, in all places of the Christian state, with exceptional duties, responsibilities, dangers and successes. They must stand as pillars to uphold the thousand interests no one else can uphold and to serve as no one else can serve.

"This was true of the church of the olden dispensation—men like Abraham, Moses, Isaiah, Elijah, Samuel, Daniel and many others, who stood as the peaks of the Rockies looking down upon surrounding plains. They were men of God; they were exalted men of God.

"So it is true in the church of the new dispensation—all of the apostles were exceptional men—Peter, John, James and subsequently Paul, born into the apostolate out of due time—all these were exceptional men among the apostles.

"The same is true of the church of later date, in its Latin and Greek Fathers, in its Jerome, its Ambrose, its Augustine and Hilary, in its Bernard of Clairvaux, in its Bernard of Cluny, in its Luther and its Knox, its Calvin, its Beza and a thousand others. It has had its exceptional men and names standing linked together in the history of the church itself, in the history of its doctrines, in the history of its identification with great state movements.

"The same is true of both church and state in all these modern ages. What magnificent names has England blended in church and state in her statesmen like Cromwell, in her preachers like John Howe, the Wesleys, her Whitfields, her Robinsons, in her scholars, in her teachers, in her men who mold history—exceptional men for exceptional places.

"The same thing is true of our own American history—America's Bradford, her Carver, her John Cotton, her Jonathan Edwards, and her men of later date. I do not mean to reason whether or not eventful days make eventful men, or eventful men make eventful days—both in God's Providence and in the on-going of history are blended in names like Washington, about whom not only the sentiment of the great American people clusters more and more as the years go by, but the conscious affection of a nation with whose destiny he had to do—the admiration and the loyalty of the nation with which he has become in all the years that have intervened between him and his sepulchre as an integral part of American history. The same thing is true of the great kind-hearted, broad-minded, honest Abraham Lincoln. Whatever else he did he put his hand on the heart of the people and holds it there with constantly greater and greater power—though dead he yet speaketh in every American home, in every American institution, in our houses of Congress, in the voices of the past and of the future—identified by his manhood, his Christian manhood, identified by his loyalty to truth, identified by all the power of his personality, his word and his work, with the history of our native land and the growth of freedom and honor and position in and for the great American nation.
