WASHINGTON.

The Department of State has been notified that fierce fighting is in progress near Guatavita, near Bogota, and that the Government forces have twice defeated the army of General Uribe-Uribe.

The War Department denies that General Smith or General Chaffee had any orders to prosecute the war in the Philippines with the severity which has been shown to have marked the campaign. Some Senators are of the opinion that a court-martial should be ordered for General Chaffee, this being the case; others say General Smith should be summarily dealt with for cruelty to the natives.

Democratic leaders in the East are exceedingly hopeful that the party will carry the lower house of Congress at the coming elections. It is pointed out that on an antitrust, antitariff platform the Democrats will have a campaign giving every promise of success.

Bronson Howard, author of "Shenandoah," is in very poor health in France and is to be brought home.

President Roosevelt has agreed to attend the jubilee celebration of the Centennial of Presbyterian home mission effort and to speak at a mass meeting to be held in Carnegie Hall May 20.
