Bargains in Pianos.

The Great Annual Stock-Taking Sale OF THE BRADBURY PIANO CO. Begins Monday.

Piano Prices Dropped 33 1-3 to 50 Per Cent Below Regular Retail Quotations.

Orders From New York Factory to Close Out All Present Stock of Instruments to Make Room for New 1903 Models in BRADBURY and WEBSTER Pianos.

The BRADBURY New York Factory have notified their St. Louis warerooms, at 1012 Olive st., that the new 1903 models in BRADBURY and WEBSTER Upright Pianos will be ready for shipment early in February, and have ordered the local warerooms to clear out all of their present stock of pianos at 33 1-3 to 50 per cent below the regular retail prices. This means a chance for the people of St. Louis to buy the finest instruments at rock-bottom wholesale factory cost.

The BRADBURY Company have an inventory of stock January 1, and, in order to comply with the order from the factory, as much of the stock as to be closed out as possible before the new stock arrives, and if our offers aren't practically your own terms are any inducement there shouldn't be a piano left to February 1. The Holiday trade for the Bradbury was unprecedented, and the stock is very much broken—only one or two pianos of a kind are left.

These are to go at less prices paid by dealers at wholesale. Among the pianos to be closed out are four or five of the famous Bradbury upright pianos, that range in prices from $500 upward. These are marked $285, $275, $250, $225 and $185, to close, and the terms will be to suit. Some splendid used upright, Dunham and New England makes, $110, $125, $135.

Three Webster pianos go in this sale at $235, $225 and $185. One elegant upright piano at $185, and one nearly new upright at $165. In addition to these are a number of square pianos of prominent makes—Emerson, Christie, St. Louis Mfg. Co. and others at $25, $35, $50 and $75, on $1 weekly payments.

Also a few good organs taken in exchange for pianos, including Peloubet, Kimball, Shoninger and other well-known makes, at $15, $20, $25 and $30 on $1 weekly payments.

No sale ever held in St. Louis offers such genuine bargain opportunities to the piano purchaser as the annual stock-taking sale of the Bradbury Company. Don't fail to visit their warerooms, 1012 Olive st., on Monday and look over the line of pianos that are reduced to the bare cost of manufacture. F. G. Smith, mgr., 1012 Olive st.; A. E. Whitaker, mgr.
