LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE OF PLEDGEE'S SALE OF COLLATERAL.

Whereas, on the 20th day of June, 1904, the Mound City Produce Company executed its certain promissory note, whereby it promised, sixty days after date, to pay to the order of Jefferson Bank, Nine Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($950.00) for value received, at Jefferson Bank, with interest from maturity at eight per cent per annum; and,

Whereas, to secure the payment of said note, said Mound City Produce Company pledged to and with the payee of said note, a warehouse receipt, No. 1262, issued by the St. Louis Refrigerating and Cold-Storage Company, calling for seventy-one (71) barrels of dressed poultry, said therein to be turkeys and purporting to weigh 13,704 pounds; and,

Whereas, twenty-four (24) barrels of the poultry described in said warehouse receipt have been delivered by said warehouse company to the Mound City Produce Company, leaving forty-seven (47) barrels still on hand and purporting to weigh 9,038 pounds, and now represented by said warehouse receipt; and,

Whereas, by the contract of pledge attached to said note and signed by the maker thereof, it is provided that upon the nonpayment of said note at maturity the holder thereof is invested with full authority to sell or convey the said collateral or any part thereof, at public or private sale, with or without notice or demand of any sort, at such place and on such terms as the holder may deem best, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the payment of said note, together with all protests, damages, interest, costs and charges due upon the note or incurred by reason of its nonpayment when due, or in the execution of said power; and,

Whereas, only Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) has been paid on said note, and the balance of said note now remains due and unpaid;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power aforesaid and by virtue of authority as pledgee of said above-described property, the undersigned will, on Friday, the 9th day of September, 1904, at the hour of twelve o'clock noon, of said day, or as soon thereafter as the undersigned can be heard, at the east front door of the Courthouse in the city of St. Louis, Missouri, sell the above-described property at public vendue, to the highest bidder, for cash, for the purpose of paying said note, interest and costs.
