MANY VISIT FAIR DESPITE THE FOG

Six Hundred Paid Admissions Recorded—Holiday Observed by Officials and Employes.

Despite fog, mist, drizzle and the fact that it was a holiday a comparatively large number of persons visited the World's Fair grounds yesterday. Although the number of free admissions was smaller than ordinarily, because work was practically suspended, it was estimated that there were about 600 paid admissions.

Most of the admissions were during the early part of the afternoon and those who came did not stay long. The visitors walked along the Pike and the silent avenues of the main picture with the spiritless and solemn manner of persons viewing the "remains."

All of the offices in the Administration building were closed, although in the morning some of the officials were at their desks for a few hours. The offices of the Division of Exhibits also were closed and the day generally was observed as a holiday, the only offices open all day being those of the General Service and the Bureau of Expedition.

Even in these only a small percentage of the full force of clerks was on duty and none of the employes of the Customs Department worked. The shipment of exhibits was practically at a standstill for the day.

WILL PRESS THE WAR AGAINST THE PULAJANES.

Governor Wright Cables That He Is Sending Extra Troops to Crush the Rebellion.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Washington, Dec. 26.—General Henry T. Allen, Chief of the Philippine Constabulary, will press the war against the hostile Pulajanes in Samar, where American officers and men were recently killed as the result of a savage outbreak.

Governor Wright of the Philippines has sent this cable to Secretary Taft concerning the conditions previously reported upon by Major General Corbin, commanding the army in the Philippines:

"In reference to your telegram of 21st inst., I regret to say that General Corbin's report of attack on and loss of detachment of scouts at Oras and Dolores is correct. Pulajanes have of late left west and north sides of Samar and become active on east coast, which is practically without harbor and very difficult of access during prevalence of existing monsoons.

"Orders were given some time since to strengthen all detachments on the east coast, but, unfortunately, this was delayed by wreck and loss of coast-guard boats to carry a hundred or more of the constabulary. The men were saved, but the delay in sending another coast-guard boat to the rescue resulted in leaving the small detachment at Oras and Dolores isolated, and the consequent loss.

"All east-coast stations have been heavily re-enforced and we are still sending men in by my directions. General Allen, Chief of Constabulary, left here (Manila) two weeks since to take personal charge of affairs in Samar. I am still further re-enforcing him with constabulary and am consulting with General Corbin, who, if necessary, will aid us with troops."

MRS. AUGUSTA STINDE WILL BE BURIED TO-DAY.

Widow of Prominent Grocer Succumbs to Heart Disease Christmas Day.

The funeral of Mrs. Augusta Stinde, who died suddenly at her home, No. 4659 Page boulevard, Christmas day, will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home. Burial will be in Bellefontaine Cemetery.

Mrs. Stinde's death was caused by heart failure. She suffered an attack early in the day, but revived. At 3:30 in the afternoon she was stricken a second time and died in a few minutes.

She had been a resident of St. Louis for fifty years. She was born in Germany in 1834. When only a young girl she met Conrade R. Stinde, a prominent grocer of St. Louis, who was making a tour of Germany.

The couple were married and came to St. Louis to live. Mr. Stinde, who was well known in St. Louis business circles, died eleven years ago.

Mrs. Stinde is survived by four daughters and two sons. They are: The Misses Clara, Mary, Helen Stinde and Mrs. Louise Martyn of Chicago, and George C. and Richard Stinde of St. Louis.

BOGUS GAS INSPECTOR.

Old Game Is Successfully Worked by Young Man.

Complaints are again being made to the police that the bogus gas inspector is once more at his old game, and numerous larcenies have been reported.

Just now the "inspector" is a gentlemanly sort of fellow, well dressed and is confining his operations to the more fashionable West End district. His representations give him an entree into the homes of the wealthy, and, taking advantage thereof, he has taken many valuable articles.

Jewelry, clothing and in many cases money have been found missing after a visit by the "inspector." The present "inspector" who is successfully working an old practice is described as about 22 years old, 5 feet 8 inches in height, weighing 150 pounds and smooth-shaven.

ECONOMISTS ARE TO SPEAK.

More Than 400 Leaders to Have Discussions at Chicago.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—The finances of the country, the tariff and the "open shop" will be discussed by the great educators of the United States at the annual meeting of the American Historical Association and the American Economic Association, which will be in session at the University of Chicago during the remainder of the week.

At least 400 of the leading historians and economists of the country will attend the convention, according to Charles R. Crane, chairman of the Committee on General Arrangements. The first formal session will be held Wednesday morning, when President Harper, of the University of Chicago, will welcome the visitors, and President Goodnow will deliver his inaugural address.

Among the prominent educators who will deliver addresses are:

Professor Frank W. Taussig of Harvard, who will discuss "Free Trade"; Professor A. P. Andrews of Harvard, who will speak on "Finances"; Professor Edward A. Ross of the University of Nebraska and Thomas I. Kidd, general secretary of the Amalgamated Woodworkers, who will discuss "The Open Shop."

CAPITAL IS $2,000,000.

Louisville Distillers Incorporate to Buy Trust Property.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 26.—Word was received here to-day to the effect that the Buchanan-Anderson-Nelson Company, with a capitalization of $2,000,000, was incorporated Saturday at Albany, N. Y.

George C. Buchanan of this city is one of the three directors of record. Mr. Buchanan declines to discuss the new enterprise.

According to report, the four distilleries of the Anderson-Nelson plant on Bear Grass Creek in this city will be acquired from the trust.

Mr. Buchanan was at one time the principal owner of these properties, but they passed from his hands in 188.
