MEDICAL.

ECZEMA!

For the benefit of suffering humanity, I deem it only my duty to give this unsolicited testimony in favor of Swift's Specific. My wife has been afflicted with Eczema from infancy. We tried every known remedy, but to no avail. She was also afflicted with a periodical nervous headache, sometimes followed by an intermittent fever, so that her life became a burden to her. Finally I determined to try Swift's Specific. She commenced seven weeks ago. After taking the first large bottle the disease seemed to increase; the burning, itching and inflammation became unbearable. She, however, persevered in the use of the medicine. After taking the second bottle the inflammation began to subside. After the third bottle the inflammation disappeared, and the sore spots dried up and turned white and scaly, and finally she brushed them off in an impalpable white powder resembling pure salt. She is now taking the sixth bottle; every appearance of the disease is gone, and her flesh is soft and white as a child's. Her head aches have disappeared and she enjoys the only good health she has known in 40 years. No wonder she deems every bottle of S. S. S. is worth a thousand times its weight in gold.

Any further information concerning her case will be cheerfully given by herself at her residence, 135 Mullett street, or by me.

An Old Officer Fined.

David M. Felt, who was a member of the police force for nineteen years up to a few days ago, was brought before Judge Snell this morning on a charge of using rude and insulting remarks to persons in their hearing. Sergeant Boyle was the complainant, and stated that Mr. Felt came to the station last night and said that if he made certain statements in regard to reporting him (Felt) for neglect of duty he was a liar. He then put the defendant under arrest. An appeal was made in behalf of the accused, and Judge Snell said he knew Mr. Felt as a good officer ever since he has been on the bench, and he would dismiss the case if it were not for the consequences. He would regretfully impose the fine of $5.

The Clerks' Concert.

THE Clerks' Mutual Benefit Association gave a concert at German Hall last night. The programme included solos, recitations and addresses.

The attendance was very large, and the entertainment was of the most enjoyable nature, the different numbers being very creditably rendered, and comprised some of the best local talent. The opening address was delivered by F. E. Woodward, president of the association, who briefly outlined the good work done, and spoke of the encouraging prospects. Messrs. George Buckingham and William Devereaux sang the duet "See the Pale Moon." A recitation by Miss Bessie Driver was much enjoyed, and was followed by a baritone solo by Edward Barber. Mr. F. E. Woodward then read an original poem on the "C. M. B. & P. A." which was most enthusiastically received. It was succeeded by a tenor solo by George Buckingham, a recitation, "Wayne and Stony Point," by Edward Barber; a baritone solo by William Devereaux entitled "Watching," and a song, "I'll Be True to Thee," by Miss Bessie Driver, who though but fourteen years of age has a voice of great power.

The association think of repeating the entertainment on a larger scale some time in November.

The Greatest Canal in the World.

It is the Alimentary Canal. It goes straight from your mouth to your stomach. Every morsel of food you eat goes through it. It is intimately connected with your digestive apparatus, with your comfort, and with your ability to get along in the world. But if the machinery to which it leads gets out of order, look out for worry and misery. Keep the canal and the whole system in prime order by using Brown's Iron Bitters, the world's great iron tonic. Mr. D. E. Taft, Vail, Iowa, says, "I used Brown's Iron Bitters for my dyspepsia; and found it excellent and satisfactory."
