THE "Apollo Piano" is the latest and most wonderful musical invention. It is a combined piano and piano player. The automatic playing mechanism is concealed within the case of the piano, and the outfit takes up no more space nor has any different appearance than the ordinary upright piano. It can be played with a perforated paper roll or by hand as desired. Price reasonable and terms of payment easy.

"IN AFTER YEARS"

After buying a piano from us you will say: "We did not make a mistake in buying from the Beyers. We are the sellers today to more than three generations of prosperous St. Louisans who started as we do, with small purchases and limited profits. We have never deviated from the small profit basis. We aim to give a dollar's value every time. Try us; examine the largest assortment in the city and be convinced. Terms to suit all. F. Beyer & Son, Seventeenth and Locust.

ESTEY PIANOS

"EVERYBODY A WINNER"

If you take advantage of our after-holiday carnival. We have exchanged so many pianos that if you are wise you will take advantage of this rare opportunity. Just think, Steinways, Fischers, Chickerings, Decker Bros. and a lot of other well-known makes taken in trade. These are chances of a lifetime. All are renovated under Mr. F. Beyer's supervision. F. Beyer & Son, Seventeenth and Locust.

"$25, AND UP"

To $1,500 is the range in the price of our immense stock of pianos. It is no idle boast that we give you better value than the other dealers for the same money, but we can back it up with the approval of our large army of satisfied customers. Try us and you will never regret it. Beyer's, Seventeenth and Locust.

MUSICAL.

Our line of pianos embraces the old and well-known makes of pianos. Why take any chances on unknown makes when for a few dollars more you can secure a
