REGULATE FREIGHT CHARGES.

Bill to Charge for Short Hauls in Proportion to Long Ones.

Jefferson City, Jan. 17.—Senator Dickinson introduced a bill to regulate freight charges by railroad companies. In reducing the rates on freight in class D from 6 cents to 3 cents per 100 pounds for the first twenty-five miles, and from 4 cents to one-half of 1 cent for each additional twenty-five miles.

On class E it reduces the charges from 12 cents to 4 cents per 100 pounds on the first twenty-five miles. On class F the reduction is from 15 cents down to 4 cents on the 100 pounds for twenty-five miles.

Class H is reduced from $60 a car to $[illegible] a car, and class I from $11 to $10.

The principal object of the bill is to reduce the charges from the interior stations to St. Louis and Kansas City, to charge for short hauls in proportion to long ones.

Asks Damages for Alleged Levy.

Isaac Sevilla filed suit in the Circuit Court yesterday against Andrew Sheridan on his bond as Constable in Justice Hanley's court for $500 damages on account of an alleged wrongful levy. He states that a judgment was given in Justice Hanley's court against another party, November 23 last, and that goods belonging to the plaintiff in the Missouri exhibit at the World's Fair were levied upon.
