REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Feb. 3.—Live Poultry—There was no stock handled to-day. Two cars arrived on track, but will be carried over to next week. Demand for week was over and market closed slow, with fully 1½ cents of fowls on jobbers' hands. Dealers on the east side were unable to sell out, and outlook for next week depends entirely on volume of the receipts. Quotations unchanged. Dressed Poultry—Receipts all right. Dealers in the morning were confined to the stock arriving on the M. D. T. line. That arriving on other lines with terminals in Jersey City could not be lightered on account of the ice in the river. Demand, however, was of limited proportions, and nearly everything arriving will have to be carried over to next week. There was a fair supply of odds and ends in the stores, which worked out slowly at very irregular prices, some lots of fowls not exceeding 10c-12c, but the few fancy boxed fowls here were held up to 13½@14c. No soft-boiled roosters here, and average bed lots did not exceed 12@12½c, while some buggy lots sold lower. Turkeys sold in good shape at full prices, old toms in better demand and higher. Squabs firm when fancy; ordinary and small slow. Very little done in frozen poultry, and market firm on fancy stock of all descriptions. Dressed—Broilers, Western milk-fed, 1 lb. and under, 25@26c. Fowls, Western scalded fancy, 14c. Capons, Western small and slips, 16@17c. Other quotations unchanged.

Eggs.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Feb. 3.—Eggs—Receipts 4,459 cases. The weather was bright, with thermometer in the early morning at 20 above zero. Reports from all over the West and Southwest were of intense and record-breaking conditions, which gave a stimulating effect to the market and led to a firm holding of fresh stock. The demand for fresh stock in them was far from active. Late quotations were in line with the moderate business done, with apparently full stocks in sight, some of which were badly affected by frost and sold at irregular prices. Preservatives the demand was active at full prices, which showed an advance over our special mark Michigan dipped. Refrigerators, good to choice Western, nearby fair, summer stored 20@21c, dirties 17@18c. Other quotations unchanged.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Eggs firm; at mark, cases included 20@22c; firsts 23c; prime firsts 24c; extras 25c.

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—Eggs firm; Western fresh 23c at mark.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 3.—Eggs firm; Missouri and Kansas new No. 2, whitewood cases included, 20c; cases count 20c; cases returned 19c less.

Dry Goods.

New York, Feb. 3.—Conservatism marks all the operations of buyers in the dry goods market, and there is no change in their attitude on prices of cotton or cotton goods. It is anticipated the South continues to lead in pessimistic assertions, and as long as they believe in much lower cotton they are not likely to buy with any freedom. Jobbers are doing slightly more, but are not generally busy.

Wool.

Boston, Feb. 3.—Regarding the wool market the Boston Commercial Bulletin to-day says: The market is dull. Small lots only are selling, and not many of these. A little better movement of new Australian is reported, but sales are far behind the receipts, which continue large. Owing to the prolonged dull spell some jobbers are becoming borrowers. Weakness has developed in domestic secured and pulled wools, and the high prevailing prices of holders have to be modified. Standard grades, however, are unchanged. The Archangel auction sales were a disappointment, prices declining on cross-breds. A general advance was expected. The shipments of wool from Boston to date, as compiled from the records according to the same authority, are 21,703,[illegible] lbs., against 19,[illegible] lbs. at the same time last year. The receipts to date are 24,[illegible] lbs., against 16,[illegible] lbs. for the same period last year.

Coffee.

New York, Feb. 3.—Coffee—Spot Rio quiet. The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 5 points and ruled generally steady. World's visible supply statement, which became available during the morning, showed a small decrease as compared with last year's for the same month, but the showing had evidently been discounted by the decline of the last few days, and, with some fresh demand, attracted by the relative steadiness of spot coffee, in spite of disappointing warehouse deliveries for the month and expectations of a smaller primary movement next month, a market rallying movement set in, at a net advance of 10@15 points. Sales were reported of 16,750 bags, including March at 7.10c, April at 7.20c, May at 7.30c, June at 7.40@7.45c, July at 7.50@7.60c, Aug. at 7.70c, Sept. at 7.80@7.85c, Oct. at 8c, Nov. at 8c and Dec. at 8.10c.

Sugar.

New York, Feb. 3.—Sugar—Raw quiet; refined steady.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 3.—Sugar quiet; open kettle 20@30c; centrifugal 40@50; centrifugal white 50@[illegible]; molasses 34@[illegible]; fly [illegible]; Molasses quiet; open kettle 16@[illegible]; centrifugal 20@[illegible]; choice [illegible].

Flaxseed Quotations.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 3.—Flaxseed was quiet and unchanged. No. 1 northwest, $1.[illegible]; No. 1 Minneapolis, $1.16 nominal; May $1.20 sellers. Receipts 3 cars here, 14 cars at Minneapolis and 6 cars at Duluth.

Turpentine and Rosin.

Savannah, Ga., Feb. 3.—Turpentine dull, 51c. Rosin firm; A, B, C, D $4.[illegible]; E $4.[illegible]; F $4.[illegible]; G $4.[illegible]; H $4.15; I $4.[illegible]; K $4.65; M $4.90; N $4.75; W. G. $5; W. W. $5.15.

Butter and Cheese.

New York, Feb. 3.—Butter strong; street price, extra creamery 30@31c; official prices, creamery, common to extra, 24@31c; do. held, common to extra, 24@31c; renovated, common to extra, 17@26c. Western factory, common to extra, 17@22c. Cheese unchanged.

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—Butter firm; extra Western creamery 31c. Cheese steady, 12½c.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Butter firm; creameries 26@31c; dairies 18@26c. Cheese, 11@12c.

Petroleum.

Oil City, Pa., Feb. 3.—Credit balances $1.39; certificates, no bid; shipments 86,422; average 78,000; runs 76,732; shipments, Lima, 62,773; average 60,806; runs 58,[illegible].

PRICE OF JULY WHEAT IS FORCED ABOVE THE DOLLAR MARK AT CHICAGO

Oats Fall Back Into the Old Rut, and Provisions Are Neglected.

Trading in Corn Unusually Quiet, and Prices Change Little.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—July wheat was the bright particular object toward which the speculative eye of the grain trade was turned to-day. It sold above the dollar mark, recovering from a slight dip early in the session. The rise had its inception in speculative conditions rather than news concerning the crop that could be construed into any good reason for the advance.

A general fall of snow was reported all through the Southwest and many parts of the Ohio Valley were visited with the result that the apprehension caused by unfavorable reports of the day before was somewhat modified was shown by the easiness which marked the early July trading. This feeling, however, quickly gave way to buying by a lead house, supposed to be acting for the Armour interest. The pit theory was that Armour, who is short the May way, was buying the July, which it is believed by many is slated to occupy a better relative position than it does now, because the conditions which go to govern the status of May trading will probably be operative in July, which, in spite of its being a so-called new crop rarely sees much new grain.

There has been a tendency to sell the July delivery short for some time, and for this reason, it is pointed out, there is greater likelihood of general trade, which is seeking to avoid the congested condition of the May, profiting by an advance.

May wheat opened firm to a shade higher than the close yesterday, but quickly changed its position to one of corresponding easiness. There was scattered buying by commission houses at the outset, followed by rather free offerings by Wallenline, of the Armour Grain Company, who seemingly expressed a desire to sell more wheat than really he cared to dispose of. Local traders were influenced by his attitude and likewise sold the May.

The reported decision of Attorney General Moody, permitting a drawback of duty on Canadian wheat, mixed with the domestic product when made into flour for export, had little or no influence with the trade. The effect of the decision as conservatively set forth by one well-posted grain man will be first to help the country in a commercial way by making it possible for millers to hold some of their export trade in flour, and, secondly, to permit an accumulation of high wheat at Minneapolis and Duluth, which will tend to keep the speculative trade in better balance.

CORN RATHER DULL.

The corn market was wholly wanting in features of speculative interest. Business for the morning made a small showing in the aggregate and was transacted within ⅛c range. May selling at 44⅜c and 44⅝c. Selling against country offerings was confined to one or two of the leading houses. Western shippers, it is said, are holding off until the chaotic situation in freight rates, due to the fight between the Gulf lines and the roads which favor this market, resolves itself into some permanent status of things, or at least until some of the cuts recently announced become effective.

OATS BACK IN OLD RUT.

Oats settled down to the old routine today and acted wholly in sympathy with other grains. There was selling by cash houses and some of the local bears. Later there was a reaction to the close of the day before in sympathy with wheat.

PROVISIONS NEGLECTED.

Provisions were neglected. There was little done outside of a commission-house trade, sufficient only to establish quotations. Opening prices were easier on the est
