The market and consumer may be now a line of goods and keep it moving to be advertise it [illegible] to the consumer, for as soon as the demand appears the retailer and the wholesaler will place his price line.

The use of the columns of The Sunday Republic Want Pages will bring a strong demand upon the retailer for your goods. This is true because The Post is read every week in the best families, by a million people. The public has learned to depend upon advertisements which appear in The Post, knowing that they are reliable. Post readers buy Tan Post—they cannot get it in any other way. They will buy your goods if you will tell the money why they should.

[illegible] to the candidate for Collector, the best office from a patronage viewpoint in the city. He has always controlled the Twenty-ninth, and has never had to fight every hard until this year. He is supported in the ward by a really organized [illegible]. All has never lost a fight in the ward party, and probably will win. It is claimed. He was a candidate at one time for Public Administrator, and is now one of the pronounced anti-Talty men.

Patrick J. Regan, member of the committee from the Twenty-third, is about the only active candidate for Register. He is the Chief Deputy Sheriff at the Four Courts and has perhaps the greatest personal following of any other member of the committee.

FIGHT IN TWENTY-FOURTH.

Fred Smith, from the Twenty-fourth, is out for Marshal. He would probably have been for Sheriff had the former become a candidate for Mayor. The fight in the Twenty-fourth, which appears every time there is a Republican primary, broke up in [illegible], and scarcely time is taken up in [illegible] differences.

George F. Kreitlemeier, from the Twenty-fifth, is also a candidate for Marshal. Part of his delegation is claimed as safe by the Talty men, and they hope to get all of it.

From the Twenty-sixth, Wilbur F. Rupert, the committeeman, is a candidate for President of the Board of Assessors. The ward club was rather enthusiastic for Talty at a meeting last week. Mr. Rupert is not out in the open for any particular candidate.

The City Central Committee is represented in the list of candidates for the House of Delegates by Charles H. Witthoff in the Second and Henry L. Wecke in the Seventeenth.

[illegible] of the committee who are [illegible] Nicholas A. Schaaf of the Third, who is an appointee of Sheriff Carlisle, and on duty in Judge Wilmes's court, and who is a cousin of Talty; William J. Hodde of the Eighteenth, a Deputy Sheriff, Senator Kinney Kershaw of the Eighteenth, the Collector of the Twentieth, a Deputy Sheriff and Talty partisan; George Gerhardt of the Twenty-first, chief clerk in the Coroner's office and secretary of the City Central Committee and lined up with the Talty forces.

TALTY MEN WAITING.

A cursory view of the foregoing list of committeemen and office-holders, who are expected to parade the wards at the coming convention, demonstrates the almost hopeless task of injecting anything resembling harmony into its deliberations of results. It must also be said that the contention that of the committeemen [illegible] who just appear to be the most [illegible] enough to have a [illegible] from the wards for one of the important offices and expects to lend him [illegible] and any sort of combination.

Talty men are playing a waiting game and sitting quiet. Upon several of the delegations where the committeemen are the active supporters of Talty, it appears that a part or all of the delegation will vote for Talty regardless of the position of the committee. This class of delegates and the leaders in the Talty movement are counting only on the nomination of their candidate and after that [illegible] they say that they will be [illegible] to number of two of the ticket.
