Yeoman was always the favorite, but every horse in the race had strong backing. The start was excellent, Lochinvar being the first to show in front. He was lapped off by the Veiled Lady and Yeoman.

At the half, Yeoman took command, with the Veiled Lady close up. At the turn into the stretch, Yeoman looked to be the winner, but the Veiled Lady beat him out in a drive by a small margin. Bill Curtis got third place.

Cramer's ride on the favorite was sharply criticised. In the steeplechase, Champs Elysees, the favorite, made all the running and won eased up. His fencing was perfect. Hawfinch refused the Liverpool jump the second time round and did not finish.

In the first event Monsoon, practically neglected in the betting because it was the horse's first start this year, won easily. The opening odds on the horse were as good as 30 to 1. Summary:

First race, five and one-half furlongs—Monsoon, 91 (Baird), 12 to 1, won; Ninnasquaw, 98 (Hoffman), 3 to 2, second; Gallant, 114 (Fuller), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:11 1-5. Ex to Brute, Foudness, Miss Shybok, Bellmap and Blue and Orange also ran.

Second race, half mile—Baby Willie, 104 (Hoffman), 4 to 1, won; Merry Belle, 99 (Crimmins), 7 to 10, second; Judge White, 104 (Baird), 7 to 10, third. Time, :52. Campstool and Rose Croix also ran.

Third race, mile and seventy yards—Peter Paul, 90 (Hoffman), 12 to 5, won; Toolsey Mack, 97 (Baird), 4 to 1, second; Pantoja, 104 (Crimmins), 18 to 5, third. Time, 1:50 2-5. Rocklands, McWilliams and Tol San also ran.

Fourth race, five and one-half furlongs—Julia M., 99 (Romanelli), 7 to 1, won; Little Woods, 104 (Baird), 6 to 1, second; Belanko, 106 (W. Mehrmann), 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:19 2-5. Limerick, Fra Filippo, Seventh Ward, General Steward, Carrie Jones and Pat Dunphy also ran.

Fifth race, steeplechase, about two miles—Champs Elysees, 142 (Holman), 6 to 5, won; Follow On, 132 (Henry), 4 to 1, second; Hilett, 149 (E. Kelly), 6 to 1 and out, third. Time, 4:22 4-5. Olympian also ran. Hawfinch refused the Liverpool.

Sixth race, seven furlongs—Northville, 104 (Baird), 1 to 2, won; Oleroso, 96 (J. Johnson), 16 to 5, second; Salt and Pepper, 108 (D. O'Conor), 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:31 1-5. Mamie Maren also ran.

Seventh race, handicap, one mile—The Veiled Lady, 87 (Klenck), 7 to 1, won; Yeoman, 101 (Palmer), 7 to 5, second; Bill Curtis, 108 (Shaw), 9 to 2, third. Time, 1:45. James F., Bobbie Keen and Lochinvar also ran.

WATERSIDE WON AN EASY VICTORY

With Ivan the Terrible Scratched Tichenor Colt Had Only Jack Lory to Beat, and This He Did Galloping—Councilman Also a Winner.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Memphis, Tenn., April 12—The nearest thing approaching a disqualification came in the racing to-day at Montgomery Park, when Jockey Willie Buchanan, recently reinstated and under present contract to Tichenor & Co., was called in the stand to explain why Councilman, the heavily backed odds-on favorite for the first race, should not be set back after having finished first.

The race was at five furlongs, and it brought about a meeting between five of the fastest short-distance horses at the track. Lapucelle, owned by the Kentucky breeder, J. N. Camden Jr., was the second choice. Shortly after the start, Buchanan took Councilman to the front and, as the first turn was rounded, Aubuchon, with Lapucelle, tried to get through on the rail. He was forced to go the overland routed and again, before the finish was reached, he tried to get through, but Buchanan refused permission.

Councilman proved an easy winner, with Lapucelle just as easy in second place in front of King Rose. Aubuchon's claim of foul was listened to, but bets stood as the horses finished, the judges rendering what may be considered a common-sense ruling: That the alleged foul did not affect the result of the race.

On account of his work to-day, however, and recent rough tactics, pursued by Buchanan, a ruling was made, which will prevent Buchanan from riding for other than his employer and Tichenor & Co. during the meeting. He was also fined $200.

Tichenor won two races with Councilman and Waterside. The latter was a 1-to-6 shot in the mile dash, in which his only rival, Ivan the Terrible, was withdrawn, leaving only Jack Lory to start, and the latter proved little opposition, as Waterside took an early lead and held the advantage throughout. He galloped over the mile in 1:44.

A. S. Brown, the Pittsburg millionaire and member of the Board of Appeals of the American Turf Association, has been selected as the one to call the meeting for a peace conclave between representatives of the American Turf Association and the Western Jockey Club.

Captain Brown said that he would confer with T. C. McDowell at Lexington, Friday, and announce thereafter the date of the meeting. He said that he and Mayor Fleischman and T. C. McDowell had been appointed as the American Turf Association's committee to confer with Messrs. Lawrence Young, M. Nathanson and Judge Perkins, the latter three representing the Western Jockey Club. Captain Brown referred to the outlaw rule as an outrageous rule.

LUCY YOUNG IN A GALLOP.

Sprint Feature at Panama Proved a Gift to the Entry—Drexel Comes to Life.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New Orleans, La., April 12—The racing at Panama to-day was strictly of the off-day variety and not even the prospect of an interesting contest in the sprint race that served as the feature was sufficient to lift it out of the depths.

Easily the best number on the programme to-day was the five-furlong sprint, but it brought no such contest as was expected, for Lucy Young, who coupled with Astarita, was a pronounced favorite, made a runaway race of it, and won off by herself, with James V second and Astarita third.

This entry was one of the three winning favorites of the day. The players had a bad start when Bonnie Rog, played at odds-on, gave way in the stretch to Commandant. Charles T. Noland and Collector, who fought it out and finished in that order.

With Dick Brown scratched, Mint Boy was an odds-on choice in the 2-year-old race, and he won in a gallop after leading almost from the start.

Golinga was just as much the best of the very cheap lot in the third, and at favorite's price was about as far as his rider cared to let him. Sea Shark, racing for the first time in the colors of P. M. Civil, won himself out for his owner by getting first home in the nine-furlong selling affair, carded as the fourth. The best he had to beat was Lou Woods, and that he did rather cleverly.

Oro Viva, in the sixth race, was one of the best backed favorites of the day, but he had no speed in the race, and finished a bad last. The winner turned up in Corrigan's Drexel, who won in a driving finish with Charlie Dickson.

The track was heavy, but facing out rapidly and it should be good by to-morrow. Weather clear. Summaries:

First race, five and one-half furlongs—Commandant, 99 (J. Daugherty), 8 to 1, won; Charles T. Noland, 104 (Fox), 40 to 1, second; Collector, 99 (J. Gerner), 25 to 1, third. Time, 1:14 1-5. Bonnie Rog, Judge Tarsney, Red Devil, Harvest Time, St. Fort and Walter Gum also ran.

Second race, four and one-half furlongs—Mint Boy, 106 (Nicol), 1 to 2, won; Daring, 119 (Munro), 7 to 1, second; Gray Dal, 119 (Hennessy), 7 to 2, third. Time, :55 2-5. Marimbo, Carawa and Pluto also ran.

Third race, one and one-eighth mile—Golinga, 104 (Munro), 2 to 1, won; Glendon, 101 (J. Conway), 3 to 1, second; Ojibwa, 98 (W. Dalyt), 5 to 1, third. Time, 2:02 2-5. James Fitz, The Laurel, Bodul, Prince Richard and Tonicum also ran.

Fifth race, five furlongs—Lucy Young, 99 (Hennessy), 9 to 10, won; James V., 107 (Schilling), 9 to 5, second; Astarita, 106 (Sailing), 9 to 10, third. Time, 1:04 1-5. Arch Oldham, Pure Favor, Della A., Marsh Redon and Ranco also ran.

Sixth race, one mile—Drexel, 103 (T. Walker), 7 to 1, won; Charley Dickson, 99 (Hennessy), 8 to 1, second; Sharp Boy, 91 (Oregan), 9 to 1, third. Time, 1:47 2-5. The Lion, The Trifler, Midnight Minstrel and Oro Viva also ran.

PHILLIES DEFEAT ATHLETICS.

Interleague Series End With Four Games to Credit of Each Team.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 12—The Interleague series between the two Philadelphia clubs ended to-day, when the Phillies beat the Athletics by a score of 5 to 0. Each team won four games during the series.

While Coakley of the Athletics was not hit hard to-day, the Phillies' safe drives were mixed up with bases on balls and errors by Mack's men.

Corridon was very effective and not more than one hit in any one inning was made off him, while he received first-class support by his teammates, a muff of a foul fly, which did no damage, being the only misplay charged against the Phillies.

Courtney and Isolin, the Phillies' new infielders, and Murphy of the Athletics again distinguished themselves by handling many hard fielding chances.

Both teams will rest up to-morrow in preparation for the opening of the championship season on Friday. Attendance, 1,975, or 34,945 for the eight games of the series. The score:

Phillies	1 0 0 2 1 1 0 0 x	5	1
Athletics	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0	1

Batteries—For Phillies, Corridon and Abbott; for Athletics, Coakley and Noonan. Umpires—Connolly and Bauswine.

ILLINI BADLY BEATEN.

Selver for Minneapolis Pitches Great Ball—Score Is 10 to 0.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Urbana, Ill., April 12—Only twenty-nine Illini faced Selver to-day, and the Minneapolis team won, 10 to 0, Huff's men being unable to bat against Selver's great pitching. They showed a reversal of form all around.

Bushnell and Pond were pounded terrifically, and the collegians made costly errors of hand and judgment. The series with the professionals is now a tie, with two more games to play. Score:

Minneapolis	1 0 1 1 0 0 4 0 2	11	1
Illinois	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0	7

Selver and Reading; Bushnell, Pond and Sheets and Cunning.

LOCAL BALL FANS WANT SPRING GAMES

Ridicule the Idea That Outside Clubs Will Try to Prevent Future Contests Between St. Louis Teams.

Local baseball men are much wrought up over the rumor that the American and National League will attempt to do away with future spring series games in this city.

Neither the American nor National League headquarters have been notified officially that such an attempt will be made, but if it does it is probable that the local clubs will not obey the mandate.

M. S. Robison, secretary and treasurer of the Cardinals, ridicules the idea. He points to the fact that St. Louis fans demand the series, and that the demands of the baseball public should be obeyed.

Eighty-five thousand persons paid their way in to see the spring series games this year. They wanted to get an idea of the relative strength of the local clubs and at the same time see the men in action.

John T. Brush and others may be against the movement. They can only seek their own interests. Baseball as a sport never appealed to Brush and his companions. Commercial interests are what Brush and his companions seek.

As a sport, the Robinsons and Robert Lee Hedges worship baseball. They want to win. They have conflicting clubs and conflicting dates. The spring series settles the sentiment locally for the American or National League. Still the local owners are willing to fight for the interest of the sport. The local fans want the spring series.

Politics in baseball looks like a dead issue. The fans want to see the players, and the local club owners are satisfied to show them.

Hedges and the Messrs. Robison are partisans. Neither can see the fine points in the opposing league. Still, they are satisfied to risk a season's popularity in the spring series, and neither can see where the magnates of their league have a license to "butt in" and run their business at a period when the Brush-Hart-Johnson-Comiskey-Somers interests are not at stake.

The cry has gone forth that the antecedent hurts the local interest in the regular opening. The only time in the history of the game locally when the fans turned out to see an opening, en masse, was when the Robisons transferred their interests from Cleveland to St. Louis. Then about 8,000 fans watched the opening game. The fans to the number 16,000 watched the first game between the Cardinals and Browns. Twenty-five thousand witnessed the first Sunday game, and an equal number turned out to see the second Sunday game.

The local clubs go south yearly for practice, and when they return they have a balance of $2,000 on the wrong side of the ledger. They have a chance to square themselves during the spring series, and they will not allow the rival clubs in their respective leagues to dictate the policy of a spring series to them.

Baseball is popular in St. Louis in the spring. The fans yearn for the game. They want to see the players in action, and the one and only series that has a chance to win their sympathy is the spring series between the local clubs. Both the local managements declare that they will not brook outside interference in their private affairs and declare that they will play the spring games in the future regardless of rebukes from outside sources.

Captain Dick Padden will lead the Browns this season, The Republic, last January, announced that Padden would be captain of the Browns. Who else could hold the position? No one on the Browns. Wallace never was captain in fact. He was nominal head of the Browns for a while. Dick Padden has been the field leader of the Browns ever since the Browns were a club in the American League, and will continue to be captain as long as he is with the club.

It would be just as up-to-date to say that McAleer is manager of the Browns as to say that Padden is captain. The pair work in parallels.

McGovern's Brain Disordered.

Hot Springs, Ark., April 12—It is believed that Terry McGovern is suffering from a serious brain disorder. He is being taken to New York to be placed under the care of a specialist. His nervousness bordering on prostration cost him and he is a very sick man.
