"$100—CHICKERING—$100."

This is a square grand piano at this price, but a beautiful one, and one must bear in mind that these instruments cost new about $900. We have also a fine square at $60. Very easy terms on these pianos.
F. BEYER & SON, Seventeenth and Locust.

"SQUARE PIANOS."

We have an unusual number of these, all the way from $25 to $100; classes according to the condition of them; very liberal terms on these, with the privilege to exchange at any time within two years at what you paid for them; thus giving you the use of a piano two years for nothing.
F. BEYER & SON, Seventeenth and Locust.

$135.00—$145.00—$165.00.

Three returned rentals, in elegant condition; all fancy cases, and they are really the best bargains we ever had; no trouble to show them.
