Bad Health---Foul Breath

Nine Times Out of Ten

IT'S CONSTIPATION.

If your bowels are full of stagnant corruption, how can you have health? It leads to almost every serious disease. Correct the evil before it is too late. Beware of physics.

Most suffering is due to neglected constipation, especially among women.

Can It Be Cured?

Yes, but not with physics. That strains and weakens. It's tonic-laxative you know from experience it will not cure, makes you worse.

The lower muscles which are now too weak to act must be built up and strengthened.

Feed them with Malto Grape Tonic, not a drug, but a food. It is a Grape Compound which exerts a healing and strengthening influence over the lower bowels. It restores to vigor the bowels means a return of health. Let us show you that Malto Grape Tonic can cure constipation. It is a food, not a drug. Grape Tonic is being rapidly introduced. The French Academy of Medicine lost year made some startling discoveries as to the therapeutic value of grapes. Malto Grape Tonic is truly a grape cure.

A bottle will be given free to any person sending name and druggist's name. This exceptional offer is made to prove without expense. We want to convince that what we claim is true. A dose will satisfy. Malto Grape Tonic, 50c. This offer is good for this month only.

This remarkable Grape compound is now sold in all druggists' stores. The $1.00 bottle contains more than the 50c size.

All druggists in America have Malto Grape Tonic. If your druggist does not have it, send 50c to the Malto Grape Tonic Co., St. Louis, Mo., and a bottle will be sent you.

So strong Pittsburg for Mr. Thielman Thielman turn the tables on Manager Clarke's running pirates at League Park yesterday that the visitors from other side of the most the Cardinals ever lost to spl at the home grounds were forced to hand over their money, return to St. Louis empty and surrender to the street a game they had a chance.

Only once did the visiting team of the Pirates for the day, in fact, all in the Cardinal innings, but that inning, the seventh, saw the Pittsburgers get three runs on singles, a double, three errors, a base on balls and two sacrifices. Three great hits in the eighth enabled the Cardinals to win the game, and leaving Pittsburg to quit for the third game in a row.

Early in the afternoon Commodore Cooney with his crew, and his engineer, who has been unanimously suspended by President Pulliam with Warner Walters, pending an investigation of the occurrence the day previous, transferred the Cardinal position. In the place of the pitcher, Kitson, who had lost the game the day before, was sent in to pitch against Thielman, and Kelley was put in left field. Kitson was a hard luck pitcher, and Kelley was a hard luck player, so it was fitting that they should be together. Thielman had lost his game the day before, and was pitted against Kitson.

Clarke's team was the same as that which had lost the game the day before, except that Leach was in left field instead of Beaumont, who was sent home. Beaumont had left the team without leave, and was fined $100 by President Pulliam. Leach had been with the team for a few days, but had not been in a game. Leach had been with the team last year, playing in the outfield, and was considered a good hitter. He had been playing in the Texas League this season, and was hitting the ball hard when he was sent to the Pittsburg team.

Thielman was in his best form, and the Cardinals could do little with his curves. Only in the second inning did they get a man to third base, and only in the seventh did they get more than one man to first base. Thielman's control was good, and he had the Cardinals guessing all the time. He was not hit hard, but the hits he did get were well placed, and he was given good support.

Kitson was not in his best form, and he was hit hard in the first inning, when Beaumont, Wagner and Leach got three singles, and Ritchey got a base on balls, filling the bases, with two out. Clarke then hit a single, and Kitson was hit for a double. Kitson was then taken out, and Thielman was sent in to pitch. Thielman threw out Clarke to end the inning.

Pittsburg had a chance to score in the second inning, when Leach got a single and was sent to second on Ritchey's sacrifice. Clarke then hit a single, and Leach was sent home by Wagner. Ritchey was caught at the plate by Kelley, Wagner being thrown out at third by Kelley.

Pittsburg had a chance to score in the third inning, when Leach got a single and was sent to second by Ritchey's sacrifice. Clarke then hit a single, and Leach was sent home by Wagner. Ritchey was caught at the plate by Kelley, Wagner being thrown out at third by Kelley.

Pittsburg had a chance to score in the fourth inning, when Leach got a single and was sent to second by Ritchey's sacrifice. Clarke then hit a single, and Leach was sent home by Wagner. Ritchey was caught at the plate by Kelley, Wagner being thrown out at third by Kelley.

Pittsburg had a chance to score in the fifth inning, when Leach got a single and was sent to second by Ritchey's sacrifice. Clarke then hit a single, and Leach was sent home by Wagner. Ritchey was caught at the plate by Kelley, Wagner being thrown out at third by Kelley.

Pittsburg had a chance to score in the sixth inning, when Leach got a single and was sent to second by Ritchey's sacrifice. Clarke then hit a single, and Leach was sent home by Wagner. Ritchey was caught at the plate by Kelley, Wagner being thrown out at third by Kelley.

Pittsburg had a chance to score in the seventh inning, when Leach got a single and was sent to second by Ritchey's sacrifice. Clarke then hit a single, and Leach was sent home by Wagner. Ritchey was caught at the plate by Kelley, Wagner being thrown out at third by Kelley.

Pittsburg had a chance to score in the eighth inning, when Leach got a single and was sent to second by Ritchey's sacrifice. Clarke then hit a single, and Leach was sent home by Wagner. Ritchey was caught at the plate by Kelley, Wagner being thrown out at third by Kelley.

Pittsburg had a chance to score in the ninth inning, when Leach got a single and was sent to second by Ritchey's sacrifice. Clarke then hit a single, and Leach was sent home by Wagner. Ritchey was caught at the plate by Kelley, Wagner being thrown out at third by Kelley.

SPECIAL TO THE REPUBLISHED.

Detroit, Mich., May 2.—What appears to be the regular custom was followed today, Detroit swamping visitors with St. Louis, beating the Browns by a score of 4 to 1.

In six successive home games of the Detroit club, each evident has been a whitewash for one side or the other, Detroit breaking even with Cleveland in four of these thrilling matches last week, and holding the same record with the St. Louis team to date.

The visiting team to-day made enough hits to escape the cipher, but Kitson's work in the pitcher proved to be the best part of his pitching, since the Browns had a man at third, with none out, and Wallace first to bat, but could not score the run.

Added to this fact, many of the hits were mixed singles, Williams and Wagner between them getting at least a half dozen balls away back of the line, too deep to make a throw on, but handled so that a man could not score from second.

Morgan, who pitched for the Browns, did good enough work, but was erratic. Two of his passes were batted in, and the only error made in the Browns proved costly. Detroit followed up with two hits and the same number of runs.

St. Louis had just two good chances to score, when Kitson slipped a shoot ball into the opposing pitcher, breaking up the St. Louis campaign. Jones led off in the second with a grounder down the left side line. This called for Wallace to his safety, but Hobart surprised by waving weakly at three.

Wagner hit to Kitson and Jones was caught on the line. Hoffman's grounder was his for a hit. In the next inning Morgan hit Crosby and he got to third. Rossman hit a grounder to the pitcher, Crosby and Hoffman were forced to speed up and Hoffman was forced. A pass and a hit put two men in the middle, but Kitson got out.

Schaefer opened for Detroit with a pass and stole second while Crisler fanned. Mullin lost on infield hit, but when he tried to steal third was caught napping. Crisler fanned Morgan on infield hit, but when he tried to steal was caught napping. Schaefer to Rossman, ending the inning.

In the fifth inning the game was decided. Crisler hit to Williams, and Schaefer hit to Hoffman, who fumbled, making both men safe. Crisler hit to Wagner, and beat the play, filling the bases. Mullin hit through Morgan's hand, two runs scoring and Crisler being thrown out trying to make third.

One more run was scored in the sixth inning. Crawford walked and Schaefer hit a hard, fast ground, which Williams handled, but could not get the ball to first in time. Crawford was forced at the plate, Schaefer being safe on Williams' error. Crisler hit a double to left, however, allowing Schaefer to score.

BLACK EYES TURNED OUT.

Filly Has Had to Be Withdrawn From Racing—Weak Ankles.

Not only has Black Eyes been withdrawn from her immediate engagements at the Fair Grounds, but it is likely she will not race again this season. The O'Neill & Dunn filly has become afflicted with weak ankles, and it has been decided to leave her out and take her out.

She is a full sister to Barnakle and has caused the same trouble with her ankles, which affected the Albert colt. Black Eyes was considered one of the best 3-year-old fillies here, and gave promise of developing into a first-class racer.

Three performers yesterday, at the Fair Grounds, came home showing signs of strenuous conflict. Van Ness was running a game position at the head of the stretch when he tired and had to back up abruptly. Chiquita was badly jostled in the big field of Steamships while at the post in the first race, and this may have affected her race.

Although showing no signs of being lame when he outfought Colonel White to the wire in the feature event, Firemall pulled up with a limp in his final foot. It may be several days before he can again go to the post, but Trainer Wilkerson does not believe that the injury is severe.

Spencer A. B. Wade has been removed to the Deaconess Hospital and is said to have improved somewhat late last night. Colonel Hugh Baker, who long served as trainer, is said to be also improving in condition.

Willie Snyder is now acting in place of Mr. Wade, while John Coulter is serving as trainer. Snyder has been doing well with the charge in his work since Mr. Wade became ill.

It is said that the Chinn stable is now trying to buy Wonder, who was second in last year's American Derby. An offer has been made for the colt and it is believed that he will soon change hands.

E. F. Swathers started a candidate in local races for the first time yesterday when Alberoni, in the name of Sam Hildreth, went to the post and won.

TROTTING BOARD MAKES DECISION

Rulings Reached at Chicago Meeting of Wide Importance.

Chicago, May 2.—The Board of Appeals of the American Trotting Association met here Sunday and disposed of fifty cases submitted for decision. The most important rulings of the board were of long standing, and affect persons and horses in all parts of the Middle West.

S. S. Riddle, of Lenox, Ia., was expelled from the association for entry and racing of the bay gelding Fred Wilson, alias Willie Jim, in the year 1904.

The name of the horse Lady Dare, Chas. Ford Miles, owned by H. H. Simon and John Hinchman, of Fond du Lac, was declared an alias, and the owners will be required to pay association entrance and nominating fees late for Fond.

Lady Dare, alias M. Smith, Yorg, Nick, and Jack Jackson, Indianapolis, were declared and the performances expunged, and Jackson, J. D. Goodhart, Washington, Ind., the registered owner, was suspended.

If a crack Interstate Circuit was stopped until the great Terre Haute race, but was quickly freed and allowed to race on the Indianapolis track. The crack Lady Dare is a double to fifty, however, following closely in the same.

MISSING PLAYERS STILL HOLD OFF

Cardinals Depart for Eastern Trip To Night With Same Line-Up—Heidrick, Shay and Arndt, Reported Signed, Not Here.

When the Cardinals depart tonight on their first long Eastern trip to be absent until June 7, when they open here with the Phillies, the indications point to the same make-up of the team as it plays today.

So far from signing a contract with the team and being on his way to join the Cardinals is Benny Shay, the much-wanted shortstop of last year's team, that a telegram received by The Republic last night from Stockton, Cal., where Benny is playing ball, contains the additional information that the little infielder is still on the coast and has not signed with the Robbins to date. The message follows:

Stockton, Cal., May 2. Sporting Editor Republic: Have not seen or talked with Shay. Will let you know if I do. [illegible]

While Arndt missing and Farrell on the bench, the Cardinals should be fairly intact until Robbins is able to make a deal with some infielder. It is understood that the wires have been humming for three days in the hope of landing Shocker Schlei. Not a deal has yet been consummated.

It is probable that the Cardinals' big staff of pitchers, McFarland, Taylor, Nichols, Newman, Kaap and Kellum, will be taken along and Stack and Zwerlein will be the lay-backs until Jack Warner has been restored to good standing after his fight with Cooney Teasdale.

Tomorrow is an open date with the Cardinals.

The Browns arrive home Friday with the Tigers as their opponents. The team of Armour's team was so rapid in the fall, and McAleer's men should have no difficulty in taking a majority of the games from Detroit.

Manager McAleer has responded handsomely to the long-drawn-out Lambert Heidrick. The Brooklyn star center fielder of last season, who promised to return this season, but who seemed to have changed his mind up to date. Report has it that Heidrick has joined an outlaw team in Harrisburg, Pa., of which Bill Hamilton is manager.

Manager McAleer said: "The Herald last night that he knew nothing of Heidrick jumping to Harrisburg. He also stated that his weight was in a good shape, and that Kid Gleason, the leader of defending champions, would not. Nick Carter or utility from the Browns could be well provided with holders.

The race in the American League is very close, the far and away to be any leaders. Although the Browns are lifted along toward first position, the difference is not and has for an small that it is impossible to tell the Indians, Sox and McAleer's team decidedly in the running.

To see Hans Wagner make an error and strike out on two successive days is something not allotted to thousands of other stars. Hans, self-acknowledged Honus archrival, Larry, should feel.

There are few players in the League who can return a ball twice and get out to the pitcher from Shortstop, especially. He's only of Honus Hans's stature, but was the sensation on the occasion at Louisville.

Pulley Jones is a hard-working bench of a veteran mixed with the good form and high pitching staff. Jones, Jones, the special man, stay at the top of the group. Hans who is it will be difficult to consider him.

If anyone has any doubts about Hank Ayres being in charge of the St. Louis-Pittsburg games, a visit to the park will soon convince him that Hank is the boss. Hank is a good cop, a referee, manager, and a clear cut, high authority, and the players admit that Hank is "It."

Critics who see nothing to it but getting the Mississippi Bottom Blank rather, if the Pirates keep on their present mad clerk, may be in the above and notice, and but another string of disappointments will prevent the Pirates from being considered for the pay.

GIDFIELD ARRIVES TO-MORROW.

Automobilist Will Tryout on Delmar Course With His big Machine.

Barney Oldfield, with his racing automobile car, will leave Springfield, Ill., tonight for St. Louis, and will be prepared to meet Earl Kiser and A. C. Webb in the three-cornered automobile match on the Delmar track Sunday afternoon.

Oldfield's car is reported as being in good condition. In the afternoon Barney will try out the machine on the course. He will also work Friday and Saturday.

A message was received from Earl Kiser last night asking that he be notified of the exact hour for the tryout. The request was granted.

Kiser will leave Cleveland tonight with his Buffer II, and will be ready to work out at Delmar on Friday, as will Webb with his 60-horse power "Blue Streak."
