ELASTIC MAY WIN FEATURE RACE; BEECHER SHOULD SCORE AT UNION

Big Lemp Horse Should Beat Pinkerton and Requiter in the Fourth Event of Fair Grounds Card.

Tholl Bros.' Entry May Come Home Ahead of His Field in Fourth Event at the New Race Track.

With the benefit for the horsemen who suffered by the recent stable fires as the feature of the Fair Grounds to-day, a good entry list has been received for the handicap.

In this race, a six-furlong sprint, Requiter will make his first appearance since his Pacific Coast campaign. Dividing top weight with Elastic, he is asked to shoulder 112 pounds, the same amount being assigned to the elephantine performer from the Lemp stable.

Pinkerton is well thought of by Judge Maginn, as is evidenced by the fact that 110 pounds is what the Schreiber colt is asked to carry. Oudon is the bantam weight of the party with an impost of 88 pounds.

So far as local performances are concerned, the race seems to lie between Elastic and Pinkerton. On the strength of his Coast form Requiter cannot be overlooked.

Although it seems a close fit between Elastic and Pinkerton, the edge seems to lie in favor of the Lemp horse. The weight will mean little to the ponderous Elastic, while it may trouble Pinkerton after the Schreiber colt has gone half a mile.

Moreover, the lightly-weighted Oudon, who has a high turn of speed out in front, when so minded, may distress Pinkerton here by setting too hard a gait for the heavily-burdened 3-year-old. Pinkerton likes to set the pace himself and, if he tires to the smallest degree when trying to keep ahead of any contender, it will afford an opportunity for old Elastic to come wolloping down in the final stages and to carry off first honors.

J. C. Mitam has entered The Cook here, and the filly is said to be in good shape. She may also be something of a disturbing factor when it comes to the exit gate.

The fifth race has rather a good field entered in Ethics, Rainland and Miss Betty, with Inoculate and Watercure as outsiders. Considering the good race run by Ethics last Saturday, it seems as if he had an excellent chance to score here—the more so as the track will be better fitted to his taste than the sludgy going of his last out. Rainland has not shown the form of late he displayed in two or three of his efforts in the east. Yet, she seems to have a first-class chance to win, it barely looks as if he should take first money away from Ethics.

Watercure runs nicely on a soft and sludgy track. If the footing is of that consistency, it seems likely that he will be a contender, otherwise he may be back in the rear. The lightly weighted Miss Betty should beat him for show money if the track is lumpy.

Colonel Prather, on the strength of his good race his last out, may win the closing event on the card from Bannock Belle and Dixie Lad. Bannock Belle seems to be in shape just at present while Dixie Lad appears to have shown his best form in the first ten days of the meeting. Preston should win from Bannock Belle.

The third race ought to see a hot fight between Ben Lear and Cesare. The latter has shown a trifle speed in races longer than this, but he always appeared to take a shorter journey than those over which he was sent. The five-and-one-half furlong route may help him, but, even if it does, it seems as if first money is more likely to be pulled down by Ben Lear. Byrne of Rosevien, on the strength of his last race, may be third.

Inspector Halpin should carry his rider first over the line in the second race, while Fruit and Jack Lotz may chase him home.

Rather a fair-class field of 2-year-olds to be still in the maiden ranks is entered in the first event, and Harry Scott should make a good showing.

Harry Scott is by Whatter-Lou out of Signora. Both sire and dam won many races over the old track on which their descendant is now racing. He is owned by Johnny Huffman, and has shown some good form in his local work. He may be able to win from Turn-Over. Conde should be third.

JEFFRIES FORMALLY QUITS PRIZE RING

Unbeaten Champion, Broken in Health, Declares He Is Through With Boxing and Cancels All Theatrical Engagements.

Chicago, May 14.—James J. Jeffries, the champion heavy-weight pugilist of the world, has retired. Disease accomplished what no human being was ever able to do. A combination of rheumatism and malarial fever has put the pugilist out of the fighting game for all time, according to an announcement made by Jeffries, who has canceled all his theatrical engagements and started for California tonight in an effort to regain his health.

Jeffries is going to Los Angeles, where he intends building a home. In the future it is his intention to devote his time to several valuable mining claims he and one of his brothers possess in Arizona.

Before leaving for the Pacific Coast tonight Jeffries said:

"Thank God, I am through with boxing. I have suffered more pain during the last few days than in all my fights put together. Understand, I am not physically down and out, simply full of malaria and rheumatism, ailments that are foreign to a man of my strength and physique, but I have decided to retire from the prize ring.

"I have two reasons for taking this course. My present physical condition is one, and the other is because there seems to be no one in sight to meet me capable of giving the public a run for its money."

Billy Delaney, Jeffries's manager, and who practically brought Jim Corbett to the front, will retire from the pugilistic field along with the champion.

AMATEUR ATHLETES TRAIN FOR TOURNEY

Contests Will Be Held This Week Under Direction of Western A. A. Association.

"Brooklyn" Tommy Sullivan, who is handling the Missouri Athletic Club boxers for the Western A. A. U. championships, to be held in the local gymnasium next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, reports that his men are in good shape and he expects them to make a good showing against the outsiders.

Missouri has a star in three classes, Joe Lydon in the 135-pound division and Oliver Kirk in the 115 and 125 pound classes.

Kirk has stated his intention of making the lesser weight for the championships as he believes he will again be able to win both classes as he did in the Olympic boxing championships last summer.

However, many believe that he is taking a great chance in losing this weight. He has grown since last summer and some state that he will have difficulty in making the necessary 115, although he seldom weighs more than 118 when fighting in the 125-pound class.

Kirk has displayed that he is clearly the best 115 and 125 pounder in the city and will undoubtedly be able to retain his title.

Lydon has beaten all the 135 pounders. Pierce, the new boxer at the club, who has been going on at 145 pounds in the recent club tournaments, may make 135 pounds and be pitted against the Irishman. This should make a splendid match in case the heavier man makes the notch.

An effort is being made to induce Williams Grupe, who won the B. M. C. 135-pound class recently, to enter the tournament. He has not been in training lately, but should be an able opponent for Lydon in this division.

Kansas City probably will send a team of boxers here, while many unattached men have expressed their intention of entering.

JOE MACIAS'S DEATH RECALLED LOCAL BOUTS.

Handled Kid Broad and Carter in Their Fights Here—Sam Berger Now a Club Manager.

With the death of Joe Macias in Philadelphia late Saturday night, pugilism lost a well-known managerial figure who had handled some of the best men in the East, during the Horton law days, and who thrice brought men to fight in the local ring.

On Kid Broad's two battles with Abe Attell here, Macias was behind the Cleveland man, and when Kid Carter was beaten by Philadelphia Jack O'Brien in this city, Macias handled Carter.

Although all three appearances here resulted in defeats for Macias, the battles put up by Broad were among the best ever witnessed locally. He made a first-class showing against Attell and might have improved his performance had he been sent in to rush with both hands, as did Benny Yanger when he fought the shifty Abe.

Macias died of Bright's disease, after a short illness. He had been afflicted with the ailment for several weeks, but the trouble was supposed to be trifling. The end came suddenly and unexpectedly.

In the days of the old Horton law in New York, Macias brought Kid Broad to the front when the Cleveland boy was struggling for recognition. Broad had been having great difficulty in getting on matches with men of high-class, but Macias succeeded in matching him before the Lennox Athletic Club, then conducted by Tom O'Rourke.

After winning from several good men of his class Broad managed to get on a match with Terry McGovern, then in his zenith, this fight being held at Tattersalls, in Chicago. Broad was defeated, but it was after a gruelling battle, which McGovern said was one of the hardest through which he had ever passed.

Sam Berger, who fought in the Olympic games here last summer, and who was formerly amateur heavyweight champion, has joined partnership with Jimmie Britt and the two have decided to open a club known as the Western Athletic Club. In this institution the return match between Britt and Battling Nelson is scheduled to be fought.

Although the boxing game in San Francisco is idle in a very sanky condition and there is an element of uncertainty to every bout until the men enter the ring, the new organization is said to be "in right" with the political powers now in control, and the date of the battle has been pitched for August, the exact day to be decided upon later.

Britt and Nelson fought a hard battle last December, Britt receiving the verdict on points. It was a hurricane match throughout and friends of Nelson have always objected to the decision on the ground that prejudice in favor of the "native son" caused Britt to receive the award.

Billy Roach, who handled Tim Callahan here when Tim went down to defeat before Austin Rice, was referee on that occasion. Harry Sharpe, now working at the Fair Grounds in a book, and formerly the best-known referee of boxing in this city, officiated at the preliminaries. Sharpe declared that, in his opinion, the fight was very close, but that if a verdict had to be handed down Britt should have received it, as he did.

Sharpe stated, however, that the margin of advantage was slight—so slight that any extra edge on the part of one man or the other would have turned the tide in his favor in the last round.

On this account it can be seen that the coming go should prove interesting to all concerned.

With the last bow of James J. Jeffries to the audience which watched him perform in a Chicago theater last Saturday evening, the big champion bade adieu to the ring and to the stage and announces that he will now enter business and will no compete for prize-ring honors hereafter.

Admitting that his rheumatic affliction, recently developed, was troubling him greatly, Jeff is said to have taken off his gloves with a sigh of relief at the idea that his connection with the game was over. He stated, however, in a closing speech that he had been misunderstood somewhat when his remarks had been interpreted as meaning that he would turn over the heavy-weight title to Fitzsimmons on his own authority.

He intended to say, he remarked, that Fitzsimmons was the next best man in the ring and was entitled to be called the champion at present. No trophy of the heavy-weight championship is in existence now and so there is no outward and visible sign of the title, which can be handed over to another man.

Jeffries left Chicago yesterday morning for California. He will first go to San Francisco, will then visit Los Angeles, where he intends to build a home, and will then take up the mining business. He owns several valuable mines in Arizona.

Abe Attell's fight with Harry Forbes in Detroit last Wednesday does not seem to have aroused any great enthusiasm there. Reports that the spectators hooted the work of the men at some stages recalls the fact that the pair put up a very unsatisfactory exhibition here. Attell seems to have dropped back somewhat from the promising place he occupied in the ring a couple of years ago.

At that, his work in Detroit may have been caused by a desire to keep away from Forbes. Harry has evidently been anxious to work his way back up the ladder in the prize ring and his punch is still too formidable to be trifled with. Attell's refusal to go in and mix things may have been caused by a wholesome dread of this wallop of Harry's.

SEARS HIGH MAN; DRYDEN IS SICK

Central District Sergeant Now Leads in Final Match for the Police Championship.

Sergeant Sidney Sears was high man on the police range yesterday, in the second day of the final shoot for the Commissioners' medal, scoring a total of eighty points. Special Officer Dryden of the Ninth District, who led in the shoot of Saturday, was sick and could not attend.

Policeman Longworth of the Central District was a good second, with a total of seventy-five, and Sergeant Anton was third with a mark of forty-seven.

Announcement was made yesterday that Chief Kiely and the members of the Board of Police Commissioners will attend the final shoot to-day, all the members of the board being interested in the work. The contest will assume definite shape about 11 o'clock, and it is at that hour that the Chief and board members will be on hand.

Dryden's illness came in the nature of a disappointment, as he had led the squad by a good margin on the first round and had scored four points of advantage over Sears. The score made by Sears yesterday was better than that scored by Dryden on Saturday.

Totals yesterday were:

Sergeant Sears	50	Sergeant Lenan	38
Longworth	51	Price	34
Sergeant Anton	47	Conner	37

MANY ROYAL YOUNGSTERS AT BELMONT'S NURSERY STUD

Full Sister and a Half Brother to Beldame, a Half Sister to Toscan and Other Aristocratic Youngsters, More Than Thirty in Number, Are Running About the Famous Breeding Farm—Johnson Refuses $2,800 for Vi O—Intense Is Being Pointed for the Kentucky and Latonia Oaks.

GENERAL GOSSIP OF THE KENTUCKY THOROUGHBREDS.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Lexington, Ky., May 14.—There is a marvelous lot of royally bred foals at the Nursery Stud of A. Belmont this year. In number they reach over thirty, and are about equally divided in sex. Imp. Bella Donna has a filly by Octagon at her side, in color a chestnut, like Beldame, her full sister, and the great old mare has been bred back to Octagon this year. Donna Mia, Mizzen's dam, is one of the noted mares on the place that was barren this year, but Gallant's dam, Souveraine, has a beautiful chestnut filly by Hastings by her side.

Manager Kane thinks the imp. St. Blaise colt, out of Souriante, by imp. Rayon d'Or, is the pick of the sucklings by the old Derby winner, now at the Nursery Stud. He is colored the reverse of his sire, being a bay, but Kane says he is the best St. Blaise suckling he has seen since Potomac was the same age.

Toscana, the dam of Toscan, has a chestnut filly, by Octagon and the royal bred mare imp. Lucy Cross, by St. Simon, dam Verdigris, by Springfield, has a bay colt by Beldame's sire.

A fine St. Blaise filly is the youngster out of Fixaig, by imp. Rayon d'Or. She is a daughter of the famous Feu Follet, and has such distinguished characteristics as to warrant the belief that she will develop into another La Tosca.

About sixty mares owned at the Nursery Stud have been mated to the home horses this year. Twenty-five mares each were bred to Octagon and Hastings and half a dozen apiece were mated to Don De Oro and imp. St. Blaise. Henry of Navarre, Margrave and Imp. Singleton were left to do public service this season and none of the mares at the Nursery Stud were bred to them.

Mr. Belmont also sent no mares to outside horses this season. St. Blaise, for a horse 25 years old, is remarkably well preserved and Manager Kane expects him to be a useful stallion for several years to come.

Johnson & Co., the owners of the crack 2-year-old filly Vi O., winner of her last two starts here during the recent meeting, have declined an offer of $3,800 for the daughter of Onondaga and refused to consider anything less than $5,000 for her. It is reported that Captain S. S. Brown is after the good filly, he having sold her as a yearling for the small sum of $750. Brown's trainer, R. Tucker, when asked as to the rumor denied that the Pittsburg turfman was in the market for Vi O.

Captain J. R. Clay reports the following returns from the band of brood mares at the Iroquois Stud this season:

Mon Droit, dam of Major Daingerfield, and Jennie McCabe, has a chestnut colt by Hindspring, and has been bred to imp. Sceptiant.

Lady Cassatt, by The Bard, has a bay colt by Jack Point, and has been bred to imp. Ben Strome.

Mary Zena, by Parandole, has a brown filly by imp. Lisnak, and has been bred to imp. Ingoldsby.

May Droit, by Magnetizer, has a chestnut colt by Don De Oro, and will be bred to imp. Dieudonne.

Kate Riggs, sister to Huntress, has a chestnut colt by imp. Scintillant, and will be bred to imp. Cone Coon.

Passion Flower, by Bramble, slipped her foal this year to imp. Ben Strome, and has been bred to imp. Scintillant. Bettie Prather, dam of Fondling, was barren this year to Ethelbert. Eloise P., by Spendthrift, to imp. Lisnak. War Mantle, Lady Schorr's dam, to Don De Oro. This season the latter mare was bred back to Don De Oro. War Mantle was bred to imp. Singleton. Eloise P. was sent back to imp. Lisnak, and Bettie Prather was again bred to Ethelbert.

Intense, C. M. Moore's good 3-year-old filly, by imp. Ingolesby, dam Sankara, which won the Louisville Nursery Stakes last year, is being prepared by Trainer T. W. Moore especially for her engagements in the Kentucky and Latonia Oaks. Intense has been taking her work all spring with the good 4-year-old filly White Plume, who gave Glen Echo such a battle royal in the Distillers' Handicap, forcing the son of Longstreet to run a mile on a track by no means fast in 1:40⅖. On her work with White Plume Intense's owner believes she has a good chance in the filly classics noted above.

The noted 4-year-old filly Silk Maid, by imp. Esher, dam Kate Pellatier, by imp. Rapture, owned by R. K. Lewis & Co., who broke down in her preparation for the Distillers' Handicap a few weeks ago and was retired from the turf, has been bred to imp. Pirate of Penzance, her first season in the stud. Silk Maid is a half sister to Ivan the Terrible, and as that good colt is by imp. Pirate of Penzance, Silk Maid's foal from this union will be closely related to W. W. Darden & Co.'s crack.

The 2-year-old colt Debar, by Algol, dam Sister, by King Alfonso, sold for $8,000 by Martin Doyle, the Bourbon County breeder, it turns out, was purchased jointly by Thornton Moore of this city and W. T. Woodward Jr. The latter will train the colt. Woodward at one time had a good winning stable with Old Center and What Next, winning many races. Debar's earlier engagements consist of the Bashford Manor and Nursery stakes at Louisville and the Harfold and Cincinnati Trophy stakes at Latonia.

The 2-year-old bay colt, Masquerader, by Ornament, dam Louise, by imp. Rotherill, owned by Scheffel & May, was shipped East this week to join his stable at the Gravesend track. Masquerader was a little off when his stable went East from Memphis, and he was shipped to this city to round to. He is now once more in good condition, and is expected to figure prominently in some of his many engagements East. He is an own brother to that consistent performer, Sheriff Bell.

DR. DUFF'S SCIENTIFIC, CERTAIN AND COMPLETE CURE FOR MEN

Weak, Nervous, Restless at night and Weak, Aching Back, Diseased Kidneys, Inflamed Prostate, Despondent, Lack of Energy, Ambition and Strength, Poor Memory, Hollow Eyed, Face Pimples and Dark Circles under eyes.

Bashful, Melancholic, Youthful Abuse and Folly, Weak, Troubles, Varicocele, Day Drains, Night Emissions, Premature Discharge, Lost Manhood, Excessive Sexual Practice and Drinking, Loss of Semen in Urine, Exposure, Overwork and Worry, Producing Brain Fag.

An endless number of men have one or more of the above symptoms and drag from day to day in despair of a prosperous, happy future; and well they may, for if neglected their health is sure to be wrecked by a complete loss of physical, mental and sexual power.

CHAS. A. DUFF, M. D., Pelvic Specialist.

My method completely and permanently restores manhood after "cure-all" remedies and "quick-cure" specialists fail to even benefit.

My scientific, systematic course of treatment for weak, nervous, broken-down youths and men, who have, through folly, dissipation and excesses, unfitted themselves for work and the enjoyment of life, is a system that has been tested many times over and proven entirely satisfactory in every case. It is totally different from the many sickening pills and tablets and the stimulating, stomach-ruining drugs given by would-be specialists. My specific treatment for all the symptoms indicating Failing Manhood is harmless, though so effective as to remove them immediately. It is constitutional; therefore, by purifying and enriching the blood, strengthening the nervous system, nourishing the tissues, the patient becomes strong and healthy, with all signs of the trouble forever gone. This treatment is to the human system what the sap is to the tree—it buds energy, ambition and confidence, that leaf into a prime, healthy, manly feeling of new life.

CURE OR NO CHARGE—My patients receive an instrument of writing insuring them of every dollar paid for service refunded in case of failure to completely cure in a specified length of time, so that the disease will never return, and render entire satisfaction, and my well-known financial standing is sufficient evidence to anyone that I am entirely responsible for any guarantee that is not fulfilled.

Consultation Free, Confidential and Invited, both at office and by correspondence. Terms are always made to suit the convenience of anyone applying for treatment, and very reasonable charges. Do not treat elsewhere until you have investigated my methods and terms. Office hours during week, 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.; Sundays, 9 to 1.
