GREGOR K. MAY DEFEAT AU REVOIR; BILLY WOODWARD TO WIN FEATURE

Fourth Event at the Old Course Should Go to Former Chicago Performer, With Bennett Entry Close Up.

Six-Furlong Sprint at Union Should Result in Defeat of Mafalda, Thomasen's Horse Appearing to Be the Best.

With Au Revoir and Gregor K. tied up in the fourth event at the Fair Grounds to-day, and with the speedy Careless in the same race to set the pace, a three-cornered contest should result which ought to prove a good medium for speculation.

So far as weights are concerned, Gregor K. seems to have a trifle the best of it. A high-class horse at all times and apparently in form, to judge from his solitary local out, it appears as if his impost of 102 pounds should give but little trouble to him.

Moreover, the mile route is much to his liking, if he can get off nicely. He is generally on his bad behavior at the post, and when he started two days ago gave much trouble to Starter Dade by whirling as the gate went up, and interfering with practically every contender in the race. If he can get off nicely to-day he should be able to win.

Au Revoir will be his strongest opponent here. The Bennett horse seems to be back in trim which approaches his old-time form, and it appears as if he should close up at the finish, no matter who crosses the line in the lead. Weight will not give trouble to him, and his race in the Country Club stake last Saturday clearly indicates that he will have to be considered.

He was running a nice race, was making up ground at each stride, when he suddenly went wide on the stretch turn, despite this disadvantage, he finished with determination and was a fast-closing third at the end.

Careless may prove to be the disturbing element in this race. With a burst of early speed, which gave a lead of five lengths to him at one stage of the last mile race in which he was entered and wherein he scored, it is hard to see how the Street horse can be counted out. He should surely prove a contender at the finish.

Considering the extreme speed he showed in the Country Club stake Saturday, when he led a field of stake horses for nearly four furlongs over a track not supposed to be to his liking, it seems as if Van Ness should prove dangerous to-day. He favors softer going, it appears as if he should be able to beat those opposed to him by stealing a lead at the start. Red Leaf, who is in apparently good form just now, ought to be second, and Lady Vasht may be third.

In this same race the old gelding Approval will make another turf appearance. His showing should give an indication as to the value of harness work for a thoroughbred. Lawtor Daly, well known in local sporting circles, has been driving him to a buggy all winter and spring, and believes that he has worked him into first-class condition. The gelding will start to-day, and his showing should be of interest.

Payne ought to win the last race on the strength of his really first-class performance behind Etiles, last out. He lacked to have Etiles overtaken a short distance from home, then twice swerved under punishment, causing Jockey Sheehan to pull him out to keep him from blundering into the inner rail and the contenders immediately behind him.

Docile won handily enough, her start, and should be second here while Colonel Preston may be third.

The third event ought surely to go to High Chance, with Arabelle a close contender at the finish and Humorist acting as runner-up. Alamode may win for the Fuller stable in the second event, with Inspector Halpin second and Raviana third.

The first race may see Harry Scott win a deferred victory, while Excitement may be second and Prince of Peiss third. The last is a highly-bred youngster and will doubtless be well played to-day.

WILLIAMS' VICTORIES BRING SCANT REWARDS.

Ala Russell Claimed and Watercure Run Up $200 After Both Entries Had Won.

While the Williams and Smathers candidates won three out of the last four races at the Fair Grounds yesterday, victory proved costly for Williams, inasmuch as he lost his good filly, Ala Russell, and had to pay $205 to protect Watercure, who scored in the last event.

Although Ala Russell won in hands style, simply galloping all the way in the third event, thereby bringing first money of $300 to her owner, she was run up to $2000 and claimed at that price by H. F. Buckley. It is probable that her owner would rather have let the purse and the purchase price go and have retained the filly.

Moreover, Watercure was run up $200 over his entered price in the last race, and owner Williams had to make the customary $5 raise to retain him. Thus, Watercure's win brought but $95 out of the $300 first money to the Williams stable.

The Smathers contingent escaped the hot lumps, as their colors were represented in but one selling race, the third, where Lieber was a strong second to Ala Russell. By Ways, in the absence of Jake Sanders, who was withdrawn early in the day, could do no better than third in the handicap event, but Arthur redeemed the string by winning in hands fashion in the fifth race.

Next in order of misfortune to the Williams contingent came Jockey H. Overton, who caught a fall from a horse in the sixth race and who was set down for ten days in the first event. He created disorder at the post in the opinion of Starter Dade, and was penalized accordingly.

Mayor Johnson managed to turn a remarkable form somersault in the feature race and scored handily enough at a fair price. Footlights Favorite, ridden in apathetic style by Jockey Seder, was always held in the pose of favoritism, but did nothing at all.

Sir Was absolutely last at all stages after getting off nicely. Sovereign, from the Cochran stable, started out to make the pace, and might have won had he not seemed to be a trifle short. By Ways, who ran a good race, was third.

Ala Russell made a runaway race of the third event, only to be taken away from her owner by the claiming route. Jake Ward, who proved a fast thing in the betting, won the third race, being one of the well-backed choices. The books probably lost to this event, as Ward was played heavily.

Pretty Doreen, well ridden by Jockey Feicht, scored in the first event in handy enough style, beating Bess Chaney and Haughty. In the fifth event Action simply played with his field and won as he pleased. He was well ridden by Jockey Dominick, who sailed him along in front after getting him off nicely, and who won without trouble.

Watercure ran a good enough race in the last race, although Bullfinch might have given trouble to him had the latter gelding been able to keep straight in the stretch. Just as Bullfinch was coming fast he swerved for an instant under a drive and the boy had to pull him out, thereby costing at least a length to him.

Watercure won past the line first and Bullfinch was a good second, with Hubbard third.

PROTESTS FROM CAPTAINS ONLY.

National League Umpires Instructed to Enforce Rule.

New York, May 23.—President Pulliam of the National League of Baseball Clubs has sent to the umpires of the National League an order to enforce the two league rules which provide that captains only shall have the right to protest against decisions of the umpire, and that the accuracy of the umpire's judgment shall be unquestioned.

President Pulliam also warns the umpires to recognize no one as captain unless he is a player actively engaged in a game, and declares that the manager will not be allowed to question a construction of the rules unless he be also captain and playing in the game.

THREE MORE UNION TRACK RECORDS ARE BROKEN.

Weird Clips More Than Seven Seconds Off the Steeplechase Time—Alabarch and Attila Set Marks.

Three track records were shattered again at Union track yesterday afternoon. In the first event Alabarch took a fraction of a second off the one-and-three-sixteenth-mile track record. Attila clipped a bit off the one-mile-and-seventy-yard record, and Weird put an awful crimp in the two-mile steeplechase record when he took seven seconds off the time.

The steeplechase proved the feature event. All of the five starters finished. Broadway fell over the second jump, but Weinmann, who evaded a serious fall, remounted and finished. The jumpers went over the fences without any hesitation. Weird proved himself to be a jumper of ability. He was off in the lead, took the first and all the other jumps first and finished in good position ahead of his field. Doctor Clark, who acted so badly the last time he tried to hurdle, improved wonderfully and was an easy second. Buck O'Dowd showed good speed on the flat, but the best he could do was third. Doctor Clark put up a sparkling finish, and Weird just managed to nose him out.

Alabarch put up a sparkling race in the opening event, and won handily. He was off in a bad position, but managed to make up a world of ground in the stretch and came with a whirlwind of speed in the last sixteenth. Buffalo Bill just got up in time to cross the post ahead of Prince of Peiss.

Sweet Flavia showed speed and improvement in the second event. The Andrews filly, by a terrific burst of speed in the last few jumps, just nicked out Governor Davis, who was outside fast and galloping. Edna N. was an easy third.

Attila scored again in the third race. Ingoldtrift, well ridden by Redike, was second and Erie was third.

Mansard, Rosemary gelding, showed marvelous ground-covering ability in the fifth event, when he beat Mamie March. It was a hard tussle to the wire, and not until the number was hung up was it known that Mansard had defeated Mamie March. It was a neck finish in which Mansard was strongest at the end. Nellie Russell was third.

Belmont won the last race in a hose finish, just stalling operator Operator was off in a bad position, being practically last at the post. Blumenthal ran third.

MISSOURI IS TRAINING HARD.

University Track Team Hopes to Defeat Washington at Stadium.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Columbia, Mo., May 23.—The Missouri track team is training hard for the dual meet with Washington University at the Stadium next Saturday. To-day Anderson and Ackerson made 108 and 107 feet, respectively, in the discus throw, and these men, with Currie, threw the hammer around 120, Ackerson making 122 feet. Anderson put the shot over 40 feet several times, and jumped 5 feet 5 inches in the high jump.

Nancredi, who ran the mile race at Lawrence Saturday in 4 minutes and 40 seconds, was sent a fast mile, and Jackson, the two-mile man, worked out a mile also. He can go better than 10 minutes and 30 seconds. Holland, the sprinter, is sick in bed, and Washington will likely win both places in the sprints. Salisbury, the St. Louis boy, showed excellent form in the pole vault, going over the 10-foot mark several times.

The team is anything but overconfident, and a close meet is looked for.
