

"His life was gentle, and the elements / So mixed in him that nature might stand up / And say to all the world, 'This was a man!'"

The Critic is delivered for 35c. per month.

18TH YEAR--WHOLE NO. 5,424.

WASHINGTON, D. C., TUESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 29, 1885.

Advertise and the world is with you; / Keep quiet and you are all alone. / For there are none aware what your bargains are.

Wants of 3 lines in The Critic 3 times 25c.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

GENERAL ORDER No. 3.

(Order No. 3 is today's Republican.)

Second Day of the Grand Clearance / Sale for 5-Day "Remnant" Sale.

Sweeping reductions have been made in each and every department on all Odds, "Short Lengths," Broken Lines, Odd Lots and "Left Over" Christmas things.

That our customers are appreciating the buying of these goods at half and two-thirds value, is clearly evidenced by the crowds that visited us last Saturday and this morning, many of the lots having already been entirely disposed of.

"Remnant Day" attractions, with the earnest admonition that customers in order to secure a choice of these extraordinary bargains should call at once.

Wrap Reduction Notice.

Only 9 of the $8 Ladies' Black Newmarkets, which were reduced to $5, remain at this writing.

We add to-day 12 Brown English Boule jackets, diagonally buttoned front, short neck, very stylish, sizes 32 to 40 inclusive.

$5 never bought such a wrap before again, and probably will never again.

To-day we place on sale the following Broken Lines of Ladies' "Initial" Handkerchiefs:

Ladies' Pure Linen Cambric Colored-bordered Initial Handkerchiefs, Colored-bordered Initial Handkerchiefs, Colored-bordered Initial Handkerchiefs, Colored-bordered Initial Handkerchiefs.

3 Handkerchiefs for the price of 2. Is your "Initial" among them? If so, your chance is now.

HALF PRICE--Ladies' White Sheer Linen Handkerchiefs, with white hemstitched "Initial" in one corner. Very fine quality, and a genuine bargain.

High Tide "Remnant Sale" of Woolen Dress Fabrics.

Never before at any one time have we displayed such a large number of choice "short lengths" in Dress Goods.

The immense Christmas trade caused the accumulation of goods, and the fact that we have had no "Remnant Sale" for three weeks, hence they were piled away extensively.

"Odd Sizes" in Merino Hosiery.

"Short Lengths" in Velvets and "Skirt Lengths" in Brocade Velvets.

"Short Lengths" in Quilted Linings.

"Short Lengths" in Gloves.

"Remnant Day" attractions in each and every department.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP, Boston Dry Goods House, ONE PRICE ONLY, 921 Pa. ave. 912 D St.

GOVERNMENT GOSSIP.

The Proposed Monument to the Late Vice-President.

MR. CLEVELAND WILL ASSIST.

Disposition to Be Made of the New York Sub-Treasury.

MR. JORDAN TO TAKE CHARGE.

Only One Absentee from the Cabinet Meeting To-day.

GENERAL AND PERSONAL.

The Cabinet Meeting--All the members of the Cabinet, except Secretary Lamar, were at the Cabinet meeting to-day.

Another Bond Call--The Secretary of the Treasury will issue a bond call for $10,000,000 of three per cent, payable February 1.

Navy Register--The new Navy Register for 1886 is so well under way that the compiler, Dr. McNary of the Navy Department, is of the opinion that it will be issued by February 1, if not earlier.

The President's Callers--The President's callers to-day included General Sherman, Senators Gorman, Mitchell and Cullum, and several other distinguished gentlemen.

The Honorable Monument--The President has written a letter to Senator Voorhes, expressing his desire to contribute in any way to the project for the erection of a monument to the late Vice-President Hendricks at Indianapolis.

The New York Sub-Treasury--Treasurer Jordan returned to Washington this morning. He says he has no doubt that he will assume control of the New York Sub-Treasury temporarily and designate an assistant, if it is decided that he can legally do so.

Patents to Washingtonians--Patents as follows were issued to residents of this city: Maurice Joyce, producing printing surfaces; Sarah A. Shepherd, sewing machine treadle; Levi Stevens, furnace for boilers, and Levi Stevens, furnace for steam boilers.

Disputed Accounts Approved--The First Comptroller of the Treasury has approved the accounts of the United States Fish Commissioner for the last fiscal year, without alteration or modification.

The Navy New-Year Call on the President--The Secretary of the Navy issued the following order this morning: Officers of the Navy and Marine Corps in this city will assemble in special full-dress uniform at the office of the Secretary of the Navy, Navy Department, at 10 o'clock, a. m., Friday, January 1, 1886.

An Appointment that Created a Surprise--There was a little surprise at the Navy Department to-day, when a young John T. Martin of Kansas was appointed to a clerical position in the Department, being one of the eligibles certified to by the Civil Service Commission.

Colonel Benteen Transferred--Col. Fred W. Benteen, major Ninth Cavalry, has been transferred to his old regiment, the Seventh Cavalry, at his own request, exchanging regiments with Colonel Lewis Merrill, who is retiring in January.

Minor and Personal.

The postmaster at Las Lunas, N. M., will be removed, he having received $4,028 in excess of his salary.

The whaling bark Amethyst, to which an attempt is to be made by the Revenue cutter "Hornet" to reach, was overdue and has not been heard from.

A Pittsburg paper publishes a report that ten of Pinkerton's detectives have been ordered to realize the magnitude of such reports by noting that if Cornelius Vanderbilt had been born at the beginning of the Christian era and had saved $25,000 a year since, he would still have been poorer than he is now.

Millions of Dollars a Million.

The United Service Club.

Governor Stoneham of California has written to Secretary Sherman regarding the ports that Chinamen have been expelled from California towns and otherwise expelled.

The National Bank of Washington.

The old bank of Washington has been organized under the name of the National Bank of Washington.

A Girl Found Dead.

The dead body of a colored girl named Mary Harris was found in a yard near the market-house in Georgetown this afternoon.

Notes About Washington People and Hotel Arrivals.

PERSONAL MENTION.

ONLY A HOAX.

The Missing Haviland Body Not Found as Reported.

Sergeant Storey and Officer Field of the Second Police District, who went to Sligo, Md., this morning to investigate the finding of Haviland's body, returned to the station at 12 o'clock and stated that the body had not been found.

Another search party was organized to prosecute the search for the body of Sligo and vicinity were much surprised by a large body of reporters and others coming on to have this morning to attend the inquest to be held at Sligo's store at 10 o'clock.

The rumor as to the finding of the body originated in a report which was brought to Sligo by a man who claimed that the body had been found in a well. A party thoroughly searched the well this morning and also the neighborhood. Up to the present writing the mystery is now as dark as it ever was, with no clue at all.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

Mr. Bean said to the Critic man that the missing body is still out over the country and to-day are thoroughly examining the banks of Rock Creek.

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY.

Proceedings To-day in the Taylor Kidnapping Case.

THE FIRST WITNESS CALLED.

He Testifies to Taylor's Arrest and Departure for the South.

RULINGS OF THE COURT.

When the Criminal Court opened this morning to proceed with the trial of Wm. B. Moses, C. C. Cole and James A. McDevitt, charged with conspiracy to kidnap George Taylor and send him to New Orleans, Mr. McDevitt, who was absent yesterday, was present.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

Mr. Cole testified that he was present at the trial of Taylor, and that he saw Taylor being taken to the depot at Washington, D. C., on the morning of the 15th inst.

IS SOCIETY.

Her Appeal for Recognition in the Family of States.

Senator Harrison's Views.

He Holds that Right and Justice Demand Her Admission.

THE QUESTION IN CONGRESS.

Senator Harrison, who is chairman of the Committee on Territories, and who is championing Dakota in her efforts to gain admission to the Union of States, has been busy in his committee rooms during the holidays, and several times has been preparing his reply to Senators Vest and Butler on the proposition to inquire if the Dakota Territory is a Territory.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

HOW ABOUT DAKOTA?

Her Appeal for Recognition in the Family of States.

Senator Harrison's Views.

He Holds that Right and Justice Demand Her Admission.

THE QUESTION IN CONGRESS.

Senator Harrison, who is chairman of the Committee on Territories, and who is championing Dakota in her efforts to gain admission to the Union of States, has been busy in his committee rooms during the holidays, and several times has been preparing his reply to Senators Vest and Butler on the proposition to inquire if the Dakota Territory is a Territory.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator Harrison expressed the belief that whatever the result of this agitation might be, there would be nothing done by the citizens of Dakota that would be unlawful, and that they were not to injure their future prospects with Congress by any rash act.

Senator