LIGHT SPECULATIVE TRADING CHECKS GRAIN ADVANCE.

CORN FUTURES ON THE DOWN TURN.

The Trading Sentiment Is Wildly Bearish and Outside Interest Is Small.

Grain values were on the down turn in Saturday's market. There was not a great deal of speculative trading, but few speculators cared to add to their lines over Sunday. There was little cash or export demand and weather conditions were generally favorable to the selling side. After an early break there was a rally, but this was not well maintained, and prices were on the decline at the close.

Corn eased off, in line with wheat. Receipts were in fair volume and there was little outside inquiry for the coarse grain.
