River and Business.

The gauge at the Harbor Office yesterday at 6 a. m. registered 19.1 feet, the same as the stage of the day before. The water here is now on a standstill, but will register only a slight rise to-day and for the next several days. There is very little surplus water in the Upper Mississippi just now.

Business on the Levee yesterday was heavy throughout the day. All arriving steamers deposited large manifests, and several of them brought the largest trips of the season. The Bald Eagle was compelled to make a short run up the river, after it unloaded its cargo, and get the large sum of about it was crowded to leave at near way landings on its way down.

River Rialto Brevities.

—The India Givens brought in its banner trip of the season yesterday when it arrived from Hamburg. Her manifest consisted of more than seven weeks of wheat, the head of which, it is said, carry fish and miscellaneous freight. The boat left thousands of sacks of wheat lying on the banks owing to its inability to take on additional freight. The Givens got away on the return trip at 4 p. m. yesterday.

—Fishing on the Illinois River at this time is said to be better than for years. A large party of sportsmen engaged passage on the Bald Eagle
