REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 16.—The White Sox got ample revenge to-day for their downfall of yesterday by trouncing St. Louis 12 to 2 in the final game of the series. Jones and his men rolled up nineteen clean hits for a total of twenty-two bases off McAleer's twirlers, Glade and Ables.

Jones himself led with the stick, getting two singles and a triple. Callahan got two singles and a double, but was robbed of another double by a sensational running stab by Koehler. Rohe got three singles, all clean. Callahan also stole four bases cleanly, twice purloining third base.

Angered by their awful shamming of the day before, the Sox made certain of victory by giving to Glade the worst drubbing of his life.

Thirteen men faced the unfortunate victim in the first round, eight of whom hit safely in all directions. One walked, one lived on an error and eight of them registered at the plate. Glade faded then and Ables took his place, but the Sox kept slugging and put over three more runs in the second.

The visitors opened on Owen as if they were going to win. Stone cracked out a double, Rockenfield got in the way of a curve and Frisk sacrificed. Stone scored on Wallace's out and Owens stopped that there.

Then came the deluge. Fielder Jones led off with a single to right. Isbell hit sharply to Glade, who made a wild throw to second, and both men were safe. Davis sacrificed them ahead. Callahan doubled, Donohue, Sullivan and Rohe singled, Tannehill walked. Owen, Jones and Isbell singled.

By that time eight runs were in and nobody kicked, when Jones was run out on Davis's hit to Glade and Koehler robbed Callahan of a second double in one inning by a sensational one-handed stab, retiring the side.

Ables replaced Glade in the second inning, but singles by Sullivan, Rohe and Tannehill and a three-bagger by Manager Jones counted three more runs before the visiting southpaw could check the Sox.

With a lead of ten runs Manager Jones swapped his men all around to give Tannehill the first rest he has had this year. Green went to right, Isbell to second and Rohe to third. Hart also replaced Sullivan behind the plate. A base on balls, a passed ball and a single gave St. Louis one run in the third and the score stopped there for a while.

Chicago scored one run in the eighth on singles by Hart and Rohe, and Green's double.
