REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 4.—One more day has passed with a gain for the Athletics over Chicago in the American League pennant race. The home team won the third straight game from St. Louis by 4 to 1, while the Chicagoans had to extend themselves to defeat Washington in ten innings by 4 to 3.

The Athletics wound up their championship season at Columbia Park and were given a rousing send-off by their supporters. By to-day's results the Chicagos now have an even smaller chance to beat off the home team. The scenes of battle will shift to morrow. Mack's team will go to Washington, where it is scheduled to wind up its championship season with five games. The Chicagoans left Washington to-night for St. Louis, where they are due to play five games, concluding next Sunday. The White Sox will leave on the train to-morrow afternoon, while the Athletics will be playing two games at Washington. Umpire O'Loughlin left this city to-night for St. Louis. The score:

CARDINALS PLAY AT GRANITE CITY.

Local Club Will Oppose Wagners With Breitenstein to Pitch.

Alex Breitenstein, the only famous St. Louis pitcher, came out the statement that he will "pitch" his former team against the Wagners at Granite City this afternoon.

Breitenstein will mind for the Wagners, who have strung from a successful season with Jacksonville, Ill., believes Roderick Lean "has a lot on" the title of Robinson. The Wagners, second in the Trolley League race, will be reinforced by two new men, one a crack first baseman of that league, and Arthur Bailey, the former Kansas City and Cincinnati Nationals, who recently left the Boston team. Bailey will play third, anyway will catch.

The Cardinals will have their regular lineup.

LIGHTSOME FOOLS LEXINGTON TALENT

Rose [illegible] Wins Two-Year-Old Division of Kentucky Futurity in Fast Time—Transylvania Is To-Day.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 4.—Lightsome, a rank outsider, furnished the surprise in the feature event of the second day of the trotting meeting here by winning the 2-year-old division of the rich Kentucky Futurity in almost record time.

El Custer, the hot favorite, selling in the overnight pools for $100 against $25 for the field, finished outside the money. Lightsome was driven by his owner, K. Dodge, of Lexington, who put her home under the wire first in straight heats.

The 2:08 trot this afternoon broke the world's record for the fastest four-heat trotting race. Mc'Ov, driver of Lybbie in the second event, was suspended for one year for nulling.

The classic Transylvania, the most coveted of all trotting events, will be run to-morrow. Dan Patch will also go against the world's record. Summaries.

ARKANSAS AT GRUELING WORK.

Team Being Whipped Into Shape for Kansas Game Saturday—Schedule Is Stiff.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Fayetteville, Ark., Oct. 4.—With only three days intervening before the game with Kansas University, the varsity team is being rapidly whipped into shape and promises to give the Jayhawkers a hard contest.

Coach Brown is putting the team through rapid system of training, and with him in daily practice on the field is instructing the signal men in the points of the game by daily talks in the gymnasium after the work is over.

Arkansas prospects are much brighter than they were the first of the season. The schedule is the hardest one the cardinals have ever tackled.

Wood, the fast end, and Stancey, the guard, with a weight of 225 pounds, are the chief additions to the team. The schedule includes games with five Missouri teams. It is as follows:

Kansas University at Fayetteville, October 7; Drury College of Springfield, Mo., at Fayetteville, October 14; Washburn College of Kansas at Topeka, October 21; M. S. U. at Columbia, October 27; Texas University at Fayetteville, October 31; Kentucky University at Fayetteville, November 11; M. S. M. at Rolla, Mo., November 18; Washington University at St. Louis, October 21; Kansas City Medics at Fayetteville, Thanksgiving Day.

A LIVELY MOMENT IN THE WASHINGTON-WESTMINSTER GAME.

Washington has just made a gain of three yards. The player at the left is Grayson. Heimbeucher, Moore and Schaumberg are standing. The player with his back turned is Jameson. Lehmann and McWilliams to the right.
