Society News in Neighboring Cities and Towns.

EVANSVILLE, IND.

On Wednesday, October 25, Miss Anne Iglehart will be married at her home on South First street to John Ingle Jr., of New York City. No one will be present at the ceremony but the members of the two families.

The Fortnightly Club met Tuesday afternoon with the president, Mrs. Edward F. Sanders, at her home on Riverside avenue. It was the first meeting this fall. Mrs. Charles Hinkle read the paper of the afternoon.

In compliment to visitors in the city, Mrs. George Jarrett and Mrs. Hopkins of Mexico City, Mrs. Frederick Bogy of Erie, Pa., Mrs. Chase of Crawfordsville, Ind., and Mrs. J. N. Meyer of Chicago, Mrs. M. Hazard entertained at a 7 o'clock dinner Tuesday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Fox, on South First street. Included among the dinner guests were Mrs. William Jones and Miss Emma Jones of New Orleans, La., and Miss Emma Jones.

In honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Grosser of San Francisco, Cal., who are on their bridal tour, en route to Los Angeles, Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Grosser entertained Tuesday evening at a handsome dinner, at their home on South Second street.

Miss Ruth Burbella, the daughter of the President and Mrs. Charles Morse, enjoyed her first birthday party at the home of her parents on Lincoln avenue Tuesday afternoon. Fifteen little lady and gentlemen friends were invited. Following the game the guests were served with refreshments. Decorations in the dining room were children marched to the dining room, where they were seated around a table decorated in red and white. Refreshments were served. A number of pretty gifts were received by the honoree. Miss Eva Belle Jones and Miss Pauline Market assisted in Miss Hazel Hinkle, jun. the kindergarten teacher, in entertaining the children. Mother Goose present. Among those present were the Misses Ruth Burbella, Mary Smith, Mrs. Harry Morris, Mrs. H. F. Mesebrune and Mrs. S. B. Lewis. The youthful company included Sloane and Master Fay Fox, Hilton Butterworth, Sylvester Pierce, Frances Stallard, Irene Gilman, Dorothy Doty, Harry Pulfrey, Thomas McCormick, Charles Ball, Raymond Wrasman, Aurelia Woodward, Caroline Hinkle, Anna Meade Masters, Alice Marie Doughty, Mildred Bouse, Katherine Lewis, Elizabeth Dalton, Marion Lewis, Lucile Hinkle, Ruth Hinkle.

Mrs. R. R. Dorsheimer of Upper First street has as her guest for a few days Mrs. Dorsheimer's mother of Pittsburg, Pa., who formerly resided here when a child.

Following the wedding of Miss Louise Schroeder and Mr. Herbert Evans on Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents on Road 41 by the Reverend August Lange, nuptial mass at Sacred Heart Catholic church, after which a breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will reside here after a bridal tour to Northwest.

The Nineteen anniversary of Mrs. Henry Gallmann was pleasantly remembered by friends who surprised her in honor of the day at her home on South second street. Cards and games were amusing at the evening. Refreshments were served at the table with lovely decorations in pink and white. Those present were Mrs. Frank Market, Mrs. Fritz Jones and Miss Pauline Market, Mrs. Fritz Jones and Miss Pauline Market assisted in Miss Hazel Hinkelman