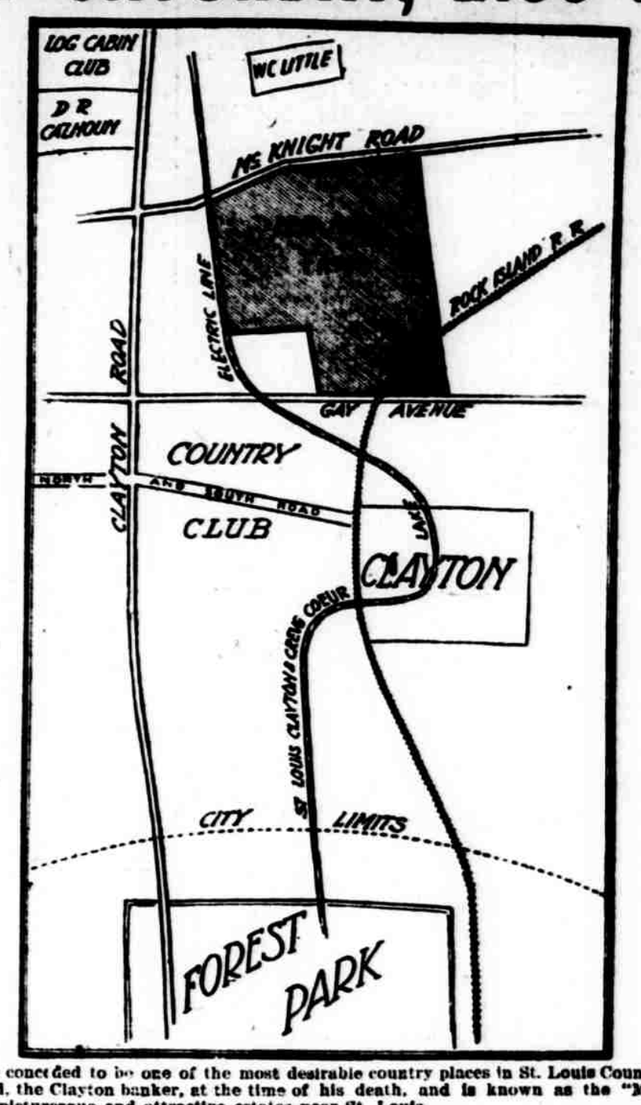
THIS BEAUTIFUL FARM AT AUCTION

ON THE GROUND

NEXT SATURDAY, 2:30 P. M.



This place is conceded to be one of the most desirable country places in St. Louis County. It was owned by E. W. Warfield, the Clayton banker, at the time of his death, and is known as the "McKnight Farm," one of the most picturesque and attractive estates near St. Louis.

The tract contains about 120 acres, and will be sold as a whole, but it contains as many as a dozen beautiful sites for country homes. The man who buys the place can take his choice of sites and sell the others to acceptable neighbors. The rapidly spreading popularity of the automobile insures a great demand for suburban places near good roads, and such land will rapidly enhance in value. There is no more desirable land in all the County. Includes woodland, pasture, gardens, orchards, meadows and tillable land. Located one-half mile west of Clayton and one-fourth mile north of the Clayton Road, on "McKnight Road"; overlooks the Country Club, Log Cabin Club and the numerous country places in the vicinity.

MUST BE SOLD IN ORDER TO CLOSE ESTATE.

A rare opportunity to secure a beautiful place at a bargain. These 120 acres are directly in the path of the great westward movement and should prove a magnificent investment. Those who have confidence in St. Louis and in the country place idea should consider this sale.

Large old-fashioned colonial house on grounds, in fair condition; also outhouses,
