STOCKHOLDERS' MEETINGS.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING—Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Louisiana and Northwest Railroad Company for the election of a Board of Directors for the ensuing year, will be held on the first Monday in December, 1905, at 12 o'clock noon, in the town of Homer, Claiborne Parish, La., the domicile of the company. Notice is also given that a general meeting of stockholders of said company at the said time and place will be held; this general meeting is called for the purpose of amending Article V by striking out all of said Article V after the words "all meetings of stockholders"; to amend Article VII by changing the qualifications required for director from "ten shares" to "one share," and by changing the terms of secretary and treasurer to one year, or until their successors qualify; to do away with the office of assistant secretary and to include that the same party may be president and treasurer, or vice president and treasurer, and that Article VIII be amended by striking out of said article the requirement of publication in a newspaper at any other place except at the domicile of the company; and for the purpose of considering and voting upon a proposition to then and there take up and cancel all mortgages heretofore executed on the company's property, and for the purpose of passing resolutions authorizing the issuance of first mortgage gold bonds and the execution of a mortgage and deed of trust to secure same. Also to vote upon any other matters pertaining to the business affairs of the company which may be brought before said meeting. This general meeting is called upon the written requisition of stockholders representing more than one-third of the capital stock of the company. This October 29, 1905. By order

C. O. FERGUSON, President.
Attest: John S. Richardson, Assistant Secretary.

LEGAL NOTICES.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas, George Childress, a single man, of the City of St. Louis, Missouri, by his certain deed of trust, dated the 28th day of May, A. D., nineteen hundred and four, and duly recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of said City of St. Louis, in book 1779, page 109, did convey the property hereinafter described to the undersigned trustee, E. H. Benoist, of said City of St. Louis, and

Whereas, Said conveyance was made in trust to secure the payment of his certain negotiable promissory notes in said deed of trust described, and it is provided in said deed of trust, among other things, if said promissory notes, or either of them, or any part of either, shall be allowed to remain due and unpaid, or if default be made in the covenants of said deed of trust as to prompt payment of general and special taxes on said property, or as to keeping the improvements thereon in tenantable condition and allowing no deterioration of such improvements, then and in such case the said deed of trust shall remain in full force and the undersigned trustee may proceed to sell said property as therein authorized; and,

Whereas, certain of said notes have been allowed to become due and remain unpaid, and are now due and unpaid, together with interest thereon, and said covenants above referred to have not been fully kept and are now in default, and the legal holder of the unpaid of said notes has made demand on the undersigned trustee to execute the trust of said deed of trust upon said property, and sell said property as authorized by said deed of trust;

Now, therefore, at the request of the legal holder of said unpaid notes and in compliance of the demand of the legal holder of said deed of trust for the purpose of executing said trust and satisfying said unpaid notes, the undersigned trustee, on THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 23ST, 1905, between the hours of nine a. m. and five p. m., will proceed to sell at public vendue, to the highest bidder, at the St. Louis Real Estate Exchange, in said City of St. Louis for cash, the following described property, situated in said City of St. Louis, and conveyed by said deed of trust as aforesaid, to wit: A lot of ground in City Block sixteen hundred and forty-four (1644), beginning at a point sixty feet (60) feet on the north side of Laclede ave. by a depth on a parallel of one hundred (100) feet and six inches (6 in.), and are also the east half of lot 175 feet East of Compton avenue and nearly parallel therein, property now of Edmund J. James, A. Conlon, and East by property now or formerly of H. H. Implements known as number H. H. BENOIST, Trustee.

St. Louis Mo. October 27th, 1905.
