Society News in Neighboring Cities and Towns.

MATTOON, ILL.

Miss Lela Weaver of Effingham, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fry, has gone to Terre Haute for a visit with Mrs. S. A. Higgins before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Young, who were called to this city by the death of Mrs. Young's father, S. H. Strickland, have returned to their home in Springfield, O.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Orndorff have returned from Morrisonville, Ill., where they visited the Reverend R. H. Claxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith have returned to their home in Franklin, Ind., after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rush.

Mrs. Severen and little sons, Waldo and Bailey, have departed for a visit to Mrs. France Connett, in Mason County.

Miss Jessie Mansfield of Indianapolis is a guest of Miss Jessie Morris.

Miss Phoebe Reynolds is visiting relatives and friends in Indianapolis.

Mrs. A. Wolverton of Hudson, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Bogard.

Mrs. Charles Thomas, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Goodman, has departed for Colorado, where she will join her husband.

The Misses May and Gertrude Wannamaker, who have been visiting Mrs. Gus Schlicher, have returned to their home in Charleston.

Mrs. L. Leyden is visiting her son, John A. Leyden, at Chester, Ill.

Mrs. John Paten, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Paten, has returned to her home in Newman, Ill., accompanied by her mother, who will make an extended visit in that city.

Mrs. Lola L. Rickard has returned from Chicago, whither she went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Morrison, late matron of the Odd Fellows Orphans' Home at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kern and the former's daughter, Mrs. F. N. Henley, have returned from Chicago, where they visited Harry Kern.

Robert Smith, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, has returned to his studies at college at Danville, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kitchin have returned from Indianapolis, where they attended the wedding of H. E. Roberts of this city and Miss Sue Mathers of that city.

The Misses Marietta Davis and Eleanor Beardsley of Kansas City, Mo., are guests of Miss Helen Rose.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stessinger have returned from a visit to the latter's parents in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Schoonover of Webster City, Ia., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Radcliffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoote have returned from a visit to Mrs. Hoote's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hood, in Arcola.

Miss Mamie Cooper, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Wall, has returned to Decatur.

Miss Mary Smith of Paris, Ill., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. W. McCulloch.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Scott, who have been visiting Mrs. Scott's sister, Mrs. G. J. Stevens, in Rankin, Ill., have returned to their home in this city.

Mrs. Brady has returned to Effingham after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Alan Dibble.

Mr. G. M. Chiffman of Terre Haute is visiting her mother, Mrs. L. A. Shoupe.

Miss Grace Colson has returned from a visit to Miss Anna Logan in Bethany, Ill.

Mrs. Mattie Kopf of Bloomington is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. A. Shoupe.

Marshall Brewster of Montrose, Ill., is a guest of his sister, Mrs. B. K. Pathenl.

Miss Mary Smith is a guest of Miss Caroline Johnson in Bloomington.

Miss Julia Dalton has returned from an extended visit to relatives and friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. J. W. Lisellen and daughters have returned from a visit to relatives in Higginsville, Mo. After several days' visit in this city they will go to Decatur, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Charles Callahan of Indianapolis is visiting her sister, Mrs. May Swisher.

SEDALIA, MO.

Mrs. George W. Longan returned Monday from a visit to friends in Kansas City.

Miss Naomi O'Brien of St. Louis arrived Tuesday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Murphy.

Miss Susan Thompson has returned from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Chicago.

Miss Stella Hoffman departed Tuesday for a visit to friends in Kansas City.

Mrs. W. S. Shirk returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Kansas City.

The Misses Etta and Stella Hurley departed Monday for a visit with the family of Mrs. Thomas Dalton, in St. Louis.

Miss Gladis Herold of St. Louis, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Leon, departed Friday for her home.

Mrs. Henry Aleisner departed Thursday for a visit to friends in Lexington.

Mrs. A. K. Rea and daughter, Miss Lucille, of Chicago, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McDougall, departed Monday for their home.

Mr. Charles Raiffersen returned Wednesday from a visit to relatives in Arkansas.

Mrs. Robert Ralston of St. Louis, who has been the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Babcock, departed Monday for her home.

Miss Ethel Collins returned Tuesday from a visit with relatives and friends in St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Mackey departed Monday for a visit to friends in Kansas City.

Mr. J. E. Barrett and Barrett Emmert departed Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with friends at Warsaw.

Mrs. Julius Rautenstrauch departed Monday for a visit to relatives at Ithaca, N. Y.

Mrs. E. S. Pace returned Monday from a visit to friends and relatives at St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Mary Glass departed Monday for a visit to relatives in Kansas City.

Mrs. Henry Laughlemer returned Tuesday from a visit to friends in St. Joseph.

Miss Tooghe Hostetler returned Monday from a visit to friends at Holden and Warrensburg.

Miss Daisy Craighead of Fort Scott, Kan., arrived Friday for a visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. Anna Harris and Mrs. Marshall Rust of Pittsburg, who have been the guests of friends here, departed Monday for a visit in Kansas City and Excelsior Springs.

Miss Bessie Hall returned Tuesday from a visit to friends in Warrensburg.

Mrs. Mel Hoenigitz departed Friday for a visit to relatives in Warrensburg.

Miss Hattie Adams departed Monday to spend Thanksgiving with friends in Kansas City.

Mrs. Frank Campbell of Warrensburg arrived Wednesday to be the guest of Miss Sallie Hostetler.

Miss Celia Kellar of Centralia, Ill., is the guest of Miss Helen Norton.

Mrs. Mary Salman departed Monday for Salina, Kan., to be the guest of Miss Ethel Oyer.

Mrs. M. Rowland and daughters, the Misses Gertrude and Freda, departed Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. Frank Reed, of Alton, Ill.

Mrs. J. W. Gordon, of Kansas City, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Spencer, departed Monday for her home.

Mrs. Kate Aplee Waddell and Miss Virginia Dunham departed Friday for a visit to relatives in Fort Scott, Kan.

Miss Ada Stanley departed Monday for a visit to friends at Council Grove, Kan.

Miss Georgia Lederer, who is attending the State University at Columbia, is here to spend Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Harry Lederer of St. Louis, who has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Laughlemer, departed Thursday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Crouch returned Wednesday from a visit to friends in Kansas City.

Miss Maude Jones, who is a student at Christian College, Columbia, arrived Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Mr. W. H. Allen of Pleasant Hill, who has been the guest of Mrs. H. W. Bernard, departed Monday for his home.

Miss Rosa Harvey of Dublin, Ohio, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. D. Logan, returned Sunday for her home.

Miss Ethel Hudson of Lexington, Mo., is the guest of Miss Florence Shultz.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gresham departed Thursday for a visit to relatives and friends in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wise of Los Angeles, Cal., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gordon.

Miss Hattie Hanson of Hopkins, who has been the guest of Miss Florence Shultz, departed Wednesday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lyman of Kansas City were guests of Attorney General H. S. Hadley and family Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers of Las Vegas, N. M., arrived last week to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lewis.

Miss Mary Knaup, assisted by her sisters, the Misses Emma and Frieda, entertained relatives and friends at the latter's home, Mrs. Louis Bruns of Battle Walk, in a "kaffee" Friday afternoon.

Doctor Charles W. Taylor of this city was quietly married in Miss Emma Garver of Pullman, Wash., Thursday. The wedding was a surprise to their friends in this city.

Lieutenant and Mrs. W. W. Chastain entertained at a formal dinner Thursday evening in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, who were married in Chicago Tuesday. The guests being Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burkhardt. The rooms were arranged and the decorations were carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Green entertained Tuesday evening at dinner in honor of being their twenty-second wedding anniversary. They were assisted by their daughters, two school girls, the Misses Mary and Helen. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burkhardt, the Misses Cecile and Nora Green, Messrs. W. D. Johnson and Nora. To celebrate menu was served.

The largest function of the week was the tea given by Mrs. G. G. Burkhardt at her home Thursday afternoon. One hundred and fifty guests were invited to see Mrs. Burkhardt's sisters, of California, and Miss Nan Summers, sister of the hostess. Mrs. Burkhardt wore a great corsage bouquet of Killarney pink and white roses. Her sisters, Mrs. Fulkerson and Mrs. Summers, wore a gray crepe de Chine, trimmed in sequins and velvet. Miss Summers was in a fairy green of lavender silk crepe, elaborately trimmed in chiffon, lace and sequins, and white and the dining room was green and white and the dining room was green and white, with the gifts shaded in red in honoring the sisters. Mrs. Burkhardt also extended the courtesy to the ladies of the Wednesday afternoon whist party, besides herself, Mrs. Fulkerson and Miss Summers, Mrs. Jasper Chadwick, of St. Louis, Mrs. Charles Burkhardt of California, Mrs. Williamson, of Plattsburg, Mrs. Lutes, Mrs. Ed Burkhardt, Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Green. Mrs. Lutes, Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Green, Mrs. Fulkerson and Mrs. Chadwick served coffee in the dining room, assisted by the Misses Alma Gass, Lila Beich and Jessie Cook. Ladies without hats were Misses H. B. Church Jr., F. E. Gerrecke, J. L. Tyler, H. A. Gass, J. R. Gantt, L. S. Parker, G. A. Fisher, S. H. McHenry and William Woodrum.

Mrs. Louie Bruns of Seattle, Wash., who has been spending the last three months with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Hess, departed yesterday for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Towsley Malcolmson, of St. Louis, are to visit the latter's aunt, Mrs. T. G. Toewes. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolmson were married last week and are on their bridal trip.

Miss Dorris Riser of Columbia is visiting her friends in this city.

Doctor and Mrs. W. A. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Weatherby spent Thanksgiving in St. Louis.

Congressman D. W. Shackelford departed Friday for Washington City, his family having preceded him by several weeks.

Mrs. S. R. Cook, assisted by Miss Jessie Cook, entertained several tables of duplicate whist and one table of chuck Friday from 3 to 6. Chrysanthemum flowers were presented to Miss Lily Freeman of St. Louis and Agnes the Cook of this city. The guests included: Misses Chappell, T. L. Price, John Gentecke, C. F. Hough, S. F. Winston, W. M. Robinson, J. M. Cutter, Blanche, L. S. Parker, Michael, Frances, Colt, Gantt, J. T. Clark, Gass, S. S. H. McHenry, Stephens, Hawkins, Crafton and Miss Robinson.

Mrs. Charles Tweedie entertained members of the Friday Euchre last week at her home on East High street. Mrs. Joseph Forth won the club prize.

The Misses Marshall entertained members of the Galaxy last week. Six-hand euchre was played.

Miss Fannie Gleim returned Wednesday evening from Olean to spend the remainder of the week. Her sister, Bertie, who has been visiting her, accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Banks depart next week for Florida to spend the winter.

Mrs. W. H. Lust departed last week for Sullivan to visit Mrs. J. H. Snelder.

Mrs. W. D. Vandiver of Cape Girardeau returned home last week.

Miss Emma Swift entertained a few friends at her suburban home at Swift Ridge last week in honor of her sister, Mrs. John Ferguson, of St. Louis.

Mrs. H. B. Church, Sr., was hostess at a small "kaffee" given last week in honor of Mrs. Louis Bruno of Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. W. S. Pope and son-in-law, Mr. H. B. Church Jr., departed the last week for New Orleans to visit Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Cockrell.

Mrs. N. T. Gentry departed last week for Marshall for a day or two, then goes to Kansas City for Thanksgiving and a few days' visit with relatives.

Mrs. Max Schmidt of Boonville arrived last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gnelich.

Miss Ticey Collins departed the last week for a few days' visit with relatives in St. Louis.

Mrs. Caroline Wolfstein departed Tuesday for Cincinnati, O., to spend several weeks with her son, Doctor David Wolfstein, who has been very ill, and his family.

The Misses McKenzie entertained a few friends at euchre Thursday evening at their home on East High street. There were four tables. The games were most interesting, and at their conclusion delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Cook entertained three tables of whist last Saturday evening at their hospitable home on Washington street, it being the seventeenth anniversary of their wedding. An elegant chafing-dish supper was served, covers being laid for twelve. Chrysanthemums decorated the table.

A very enjoyable dance was given by the society people of the capital at the Madison Dancing Hall Friday evening. About thirty-five couples attended. Music was furnished by the Williams orchestra. Among those of the guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Michael, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Willis, Professor and Mrs. Tankersley, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burkhardt, Doctor and Mrs. McAllister, Judge and Mrs. J. H. Gantt, Judge and Mrs. W. M. Robinson, Mrs. A. C. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Price, the Misses Gass, Crafton, Robinson, Cook, Messrs. Winston, McVoy, Miller, Fisher and a number of others.

The Misses Minnie Crafton and Alma Gass, who have been visiting friends in St. Louis, returned home Friday.

Warden and Mrs. Matt W. Hall enjoyed an end-of-the-week visit from their sons, Messrs. John and Woods Hall, who are attending colleges, the former at the University, the other at Marshall.

The Knights of Columbus gave a supper and dance at St. Peter's Hall Thanksgiving evening, which was largely attended.

Professor and Mrs. Tankersley and children departed Wednesday for Washington, Mo., to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Tankersley's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Wagner will depart this week for Poplar Bluff.

Miss Anna Heilberger departed Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents in Boonville.

Miss Jean McDaniel of Kansas City arrived Wednesday to spend a few days with her sister, Miss Emma McDaniels.

EVANSVILLE, IND.

To meet Miss Isabelle Ingle of San Diego, Cal., and Miss Frances Ingle of Oakland City, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Reuben P. Hughes entertained at cards Wednesday evening at their home on Riverside avenue. About thirty guests were present.

The New Century Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Storms on South First street. Mrs. Stimson read a paper on Scottish lake scenes. Doctor Stimson gave a sketch of Stirling and its environments, with a personal reminiscence of a recent visit in Scotland. Following the programme was the social hour, with refreshments. Mrs. Hunter Hiatt of Washington, Ind., was one of the out-of-town guests.

The Misses Bessie and Bertie Barrows of South Governor street entertained the teachers and officers of the Sunday school of the Cumberland Presbyterian Sunday school at their home on Governor street Monday afternoon.

In honor of Miss Irene Duncan, whose marriage to Mr. Vaughn Fitzsimmons took place Thanksgiving Day, the Misses Stage and Effie Reese gave a handkerchief shower Monday evening, at their home on South Third street, entertaining eighteen of the girl friends of the bride-elect. The Misses Reese were assisted by their mother, Mrs. J. P. Pillmer.

Miss Bessie Hodson entertained Thursday evening in honor of Miss Duncan, the guests being Miss Elma Weaver, Miss Grace Emery, Miss Addie Wheeler, Miss Helen Posey and Miss Ethel Whitney.

The O. G. Club was entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. Edward Braune. The evening was spent in games and music and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ed Weaver was surprised by a few friends Monday evening at her home on Washington avenue in honor of her birthday anniversary. Seven-hand euchre was played, after which refreshments were served.

A surprise party was given last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Hooker in Howell, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Edna Hooker. The guests were the Misses Velma and Virgie Burkhardt, Mamie and Mary Wilde, Ara Hooker, Ethel Hooker and Inez Kiesling, Vivian Pyle, Edna and Irene Hooker, Carrie Korressel, Mr. and Mrs. George Korressel, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hinkel and Messrs. Harry Dale, Eddie Buester, Boyd Wallace, Hodge Tucker, William Sax and Frank Hooker.

Miss Helen Boettinger has gone to Henderson, Ky., to spend a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bedford departed for Long Beach, Cal., Friday, to spend the winter with their son, Mr. Robert Bedford. Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mrs. Carl L. Hilker came here from St. Louis to join the party.

Miss Grace Fields of Alton, Ill., is here as the guest of Miss Lenna Johnson on Chestnut street.

Miss Cecil Schaefer of Tell City, Ind., is the guest of friends here.

Mrs. Arthur Cox of Indianapolis came here to spend Thanksgiving with her mother.

Miss Hazel Lee of Nashville, Tenn., is here as the guest of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Sydney Clayton of St. Louis is here as the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Edward O. Hopkins departed last week for Peoria, Ill., where she will spend a few weeks with friends.

Miss Katherine Carrigan of Owensboro, Ky., came this week to spend a few days as the guest of Miss Irene Duncan.

Mrs. Sarah Alexander has gone to Fort Worth, Tex., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Fred Miller.

Mrs. F. Williams has returned to her home at Decatur, Ill., after a short visit to Mrs. O. Alyea.

Mrs. Calvin Thomas and children of Louisville, Ky., came this week to spend a few days with Doctor and Mrs. G. W. Downs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Steele have returned to Princeton, Ind., after a visit to friends in Evansville.

Mrs. D. Moreland is the guest of her father, John Hart, this week, having arrived from Indianapolis Monday.

Mrs. Arthur Harrison and Miss Bessie Gilmour of Calhoun, Ky., were here last week as the guests of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen of Shawneetown, Ill., are here this week as the guests of Mrs. Edwin B. Gibbons.

Mrs. Wood Poser and Mrs. Webb David departed last week for a trip through the Southwest.

Mrs. R. Wise has gone to Memphis, Tenn., to spend the winter.

CHILLICOTHE, MO.

Miss Rose Robinson spent Thanksgiving with Kansas City relatives.

Miss Martha Lovett of Shelbina visited Miss Ruth Dawson last week.

Miss Lila Kirby was the guest of Brookfield friends Thanksgiving.

Miss Anna Dawson Wells departed last week for a visit to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of Chula will depart the last of next week to spend the winter in Chicago, attending music.

Mrs. Louis Gerrecke is entertaining her parents, Doctor and Mrs. Hunterman, of California.

Miss Mae Wright, who is the guest of an uncle in the postoffice department, of the Culture club Wednesday afternoon.

A Thanksgiving ball was given by the local lodge of Eagles at Fraternal Hall Thursday evening.

A large opera of "Pinafore" is being rehearsed by local talent for a charity benefit.

A social euchre will be given at the home of Mrs. H. Maupin Friday afternoon.

A large reception was given Saturday evening at High School Hall in honor of the visiting football team from Gallatin. The affair was followed by a banquet.

Mrs. Harry Hart of Davenport has returned home after a visit with Mrs. C. J. Thurmond.

Miss Mae Gore is the guest of Miss Marie Kelly of Kansas City.

Miss Doris Gleason of Kansas City spent Thanksgiving with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. C. J. Knapp entertained Grace Guild Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pease departed Wednesday to visit her parents, the Reverend and Mrs. Cobb, of Kansas City.

Mrs. R. Hicks visited her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Henderson, in Kansas City Thanksgiving.

Miss Nellie Hoon entertained her musical club Friday evening.

Mrs. Nellie Hook leaves next week for an extended visit to her parents at Galena, Kan.

Miss Ada Gilmore of Kansas City arrived Wednesday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gilmore.

Mrs. Grace Alexander and daughter, Miss Agnes, of Chula, returned home Tuesday after several days' visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Atwell of Lancaster, Mo., arrived Thanksgiving on an extended visit to Mr. and Mrs. John Atwell.

Miss Willie Hunter of Carrollton is visiting Miss Ruth Hunter.

Mrs. Addie Atwell left Thursday night for Brookfield to visit Miss Cody.

Mrs. F. B. Fish of St. Joseph is visiting Mrs. F. Hamilton.

Miss Earl Whitcraft of Spokane, Wash., will arrive next week to visit Mrs. C. R. Molintoff.

Miss Ring Brandenburger returned Wednesday from Carrollton, to spend Thanksgiving at home.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

Members of the Amateur Musical Club were entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Francis Ide. The program was in charge of Mrs. Ide and Mrs. George E. Keys, and was participated in by the following performers: Mrs. Keys, Miss Elizabeth Lincoln, Mrs. Ide, Mrs. Maude Thayer, Mrs. Charles Peterson and Miss Ridgely Hudson. The next meeting will take place in two weeks, at the home of Mrs. Harry Willett.

A meeting of the Via Christi Study Class took place Monday afternoon at the Lincoln Library. The subject of the afternoon was "Outline of French History from the Death of Francis I to 1610." The discussions were as follows: "Henry of Navarre," Mrs. W. W. Smith; "The League of Augsburg," Mrs. Anna Clark; "Edict of Nantes," Mrs. Marvin B. Taylor; Miss Helen Cundall outlined the history of the period under consideration.

Sixteen young persons enjoyed a dinner and dancing party at the clubhouse of the Springfield Golf Club Monday evening, the entertainment being given in honor of Miss Eleanor Brooks of Springfield, Mo., who is the guest of Miss Ada Klaholt. A five-course dinner was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Mrs. M. A. Jones was hostess to the members of the Nemo Embroidery Club Monday afternoon, at her home. Fancy work occupied the attention of the club members. Mrs. J. D. Hayworth will entertain the organization at its next meeting.

The Standard Bearers of the First M. E. Church met Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Elberta Smith. A social hour followed the business session.

A party of friends was entertained at dinner at the St. Nicholas Hotel by Mrs. John McCreery, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

"Indian Tribes of Illinois" was the subject of the meeting of the educational department of the Springfield Woman's Club that took place Tuesday afternoon in the assembly-room of the Lincoln Library.

A feature of the afternoon was a map displayed by Mrs. E. Hunge, chairman of the department, showing the physical features of Illinois as it was supposed to exist prior to the time of its occupancy by the Indians.

Mrs. James W. Patton told "The Story of Starved Rock, Near Ottawa," and Miss Smiley recited "The Story of the Chain of Rocks, near Alton." A number of pleasant Indian legends were related by Mrs. L. M. Castle.

Members of the Daisy Club were guests of Miss Bertha Pfasch. The evening was spent in the enjoyment of games and music. The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Miss Annie Burns.

A bazaar took place Tuesday afternoon and evening at the Lake clubhouse, under the auspices and for the benefit of the Kings Daughters' Corporation of the city. Several clubs were represented. The affair was a financial success.

Galatia Star Court, No. 27, Tribe of Ben-Hur, gave a card party and dance Tuesday evening in the Odd Fellows building. After the card games dancing was indulged in. Prizes in the games were awarded to the following: Ladies first, Miss Lottie Stallard; second, Mrs. Mary Grenet; third, Miss Anna Beecher. Gentlemen's first, F. E. Wiley; second, J. D. Sullivan; third, M. S. Smith.

Twilight Club members were guests of Mrs. John Heard Tuesday afternoon. Six-hand euchre was indulged in and prizes were awarded to Mrs. William Busing, Mrs. Oscar Becker and Mrs. L. M. Dixon. The next meeting, in two weeks, will be held with Mrs. John George.

Miss Helen M. Rourke entertained the members of the Bachelor Girls' Club at her home. The evening was spent in the enjoyment of card games. The successful contestants were Miss Helen M. Rourke and Miss Kate Ryan. The next meeting of the club will take place at the home of Miss Anna Marlen.

A meeting of the Euchre Club took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Garland. Prizes for successful play were awarded to Mrs. Thomas Hughes, Mrs. H. P. Isaacs and Mrs. Garland. Mrs. Carl Jones will be hostess at the next meeting of the club.

The Tuesday Embroidery Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. J. Willen. The guests spent the hours at fancy work. Mrs. Trotter will be hostess at the next meeting.

Members of the Five Hundred Club were guests of Mrs. Charles Mueller Tuesday afternoon. Six-handed euchre was played, and prizes were awarded Miss Irene Kennedy, Mrs. George Fixmer and Mrs. George Mesch Jr. The club will meet again in two weeks with Miss Minnie Resch.

Ben-Ami Club members gathered Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oliver Atmore for the fortnightly session of the club. The prize winners were Mrs. William O. Coleman, Mrs. Oliver Atmore and Miss Hannah Broderick. Miss Willie Anderson will entertain the organization on December 19.

Mrs. Bertha Smith was hostess to the members of the O. M. Embroidery Club Tuesday afternoon. Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Cora Painter and Miss Elizabeth Mester.

The Joliet Embroidery Club members met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Ellen Bowers. The afternoon was spent at needlework.

The wedding of Miss Mary Priest Currier to Oliver William Hatcher was solemnized at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Central Baptist Church in the presence of a large and fashionable assemblage. The Reverend Euclid B. Rogers, pastor of the church, officiated. In order of procession were John H. Lanpher Jr., J. Dunn Heinle, John P. Latham and Harry Paddock, the bridesmaids, the Misses Helen Matheny, Bessie Wilson, Ruth Converse and Lillian Phillips; the maid of honor, Miss Georgia Latham, and the bride. R. Albert Guest played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the party approached the altar, where the groom was attended by his best man, T. C. Smith. A reception at the home of the bride's mother followed the ceremony. At midnight the bride and groom left for the East on an extended wedding tour. They will be "at home" the second and third Thursdays in January.

William Vande of Chicago Heights and Miss Louise Berdikoski of Springfield were united in marriage Tuesday morning at the Sacred Heart Catholic church, the Reverend Patrick Krekenberg officiating. Attending the couple were Louis Vande of Kankakee, brother of the groom, and Miss Emily Scholtz of Bloomington. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's uncle, Conrad Sauer. The couple will reside in Chicago.

The first dance of the season of the Springfield Assembly took place Wednesday evening in the Leland Hotel. The attendance was large. In addition to the dancing programme, cards were included in

An oyster supper was given Wednesday evening in the Ridgely reading-room by the ladies of the Ridgely Woman's club.

Mrs. F. E. Gerrecke entertained the Blind Club members Wednesday evening at her home.

The Independent Euchre Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Martha Fortune.

Mrs. Frank Duncan was hostess to the members of the Wednesday Afternoon Embroidery Club at this week's meeting.

Members of the Hamilton Whist Club were guests of Mrs. W. F. Workmann Wednesday evening.

Mrs. William Gaptill entertained the members of the Just Enough Wednesday afternoon.

North End Euchre Club members were guests of Mrs. Fred Wiesiles at the meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Fraternity euchre formed the diversion at the meeting of the La Odorie Charity Card Club, held Wednesday afternoon with Miss Ethel Bahr.

A holiday bazaar and entertainment, arranged by the Ladies' Aid Society and given Wednesday afternoon, netted the society a handsome sum of money which will be devoted to additions to the school library.

The Elite Club met in the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Oscar Porter. Friday's club meetings were as follows: Ideal Euchre Club, with Miss Christine Hahn; dancing party given by the Pi Iota Gamma Club; Kensington Embroidery Club, with Mrs. J. O. Holland; the Wednesday Afternoon Sewing Club at the home of Mrs. J. A. Simpson; the Literary Researchers, at the home of Mrs. William Eade; the Colonial Card Club with Mrs. J. R. Diehl; the Oneida Card Club at the home of Mrs. Robert Peck.

A meeting of the musical section of the Woman's Club was held Saturday afternoon.

COLUMBIA, MO.

On Friday night a military reception and ball was given in Academic Hall of the University. About two hundred cadets and their lady friends were present. The evening was spent in games and dancing. Music was furnished by the Cadet Band. The second and third floors were used for dancing. The hall was brilliantly decorated with bunting, flags and stacks of arms of several designs. A temporary shooting gallery was arranged in the hall, for the ladies. Miss Fern Haynes was the prize for successfully hitting the target. All the cadets wore full uniform, the officers wearing side arms. In the receiving line were Professor and Mrs. Defoe Capen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dresser and Mr. Spaulding and Professor Green.

Large numbers attended the play, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," at Stephens College Friday night.

Miss Laura Mathews is visiting Mrs. S. H. Hurst in Springfield, Mo.

S. S. Sieger of New York addressed the academy students Thursday morning.

Mrs. William Hirth is visiting relatives and friends in Clay county, Kan.

J. H. Gray gave a dramatic recital in Wednesday night in the Stephens College auditorium.

Doctor Hammond Weeks spends a few days this week in Springfield, Ill.

Dean Elwood delivered a lecture on "Poetry and Prose" in the University Chapel in the Auditorium last Sunday afternoon.

The property owners on Walnut street have petitioned the city council to pave that street with vitrified brick.

Professor Lee, president of the Rolla school, spent a few days in this city last week.

Mrs. William Thomas of Jefferson, Mo., has returned to her home after a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. H. Hayes of the university.

Mrs. W. H. Hasler made a short visit to friends in Kentucky the week.

Doctor Hackney officiated at the wedding of Miss Lucile Hackney and Mr. Hutchings, which took place on Tuesday. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend C. M. Bishop, D. D., pastor of the Methodist church.

W. E. Moore, city editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, was here on a visit to his parents this week.

The young people of the town held a sunrise prayer meeting Thanksgiving morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox and Mr. Wright attended the Kansas City Thanksgiving game last week.

Mr. H. W. Hudson and Miss Alice Dozier were married on Wednesday morning, the Reverend N. R. Green performing the ceremony.

A great many students and citizens went to Kansas City to witness the football game on Thursday.

Mr. Ernest Mitchell, editor of the Daily Tribune, died Wednesday night, after a lingering illness.

MOBERLY.

W. C. Vandiver, Mrs. Vandiver and two sons arrived from Berkeley, Mo., Wednesday and will spend several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Vandiver.

Doctor C. C. Hemming of Glasgow was the guest of the Reverend S. E. Henry on Tuesday.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors held a delightful meeting at their hall Tuesday evening. The occasion was the anniversary of the auxiliary's organization. A large number was present and spent a pleasant evening.

Doctor I. F. Harlan and family spent Thanksgiving at Ethel, Mo.

A. J. Adams of Bonnsboro is visiting Mrs. Sarah Arnett.

Miss Christine Lewis returned home Tuesday, after a pleasant visit with friends in Lexington, Mo.

The Misses Mamie and Carrie Surber departed Tuesday for a visit of several days with Kansas City friends.

Professor Sue departed for Shelbina Wednesday to visit his parents and spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Mrs. Isenhower entertained a pleasant party of ladies at dinner Wednesday at her country home near this city. An elegant dinner was greatly enjoyed by her guests, who returned home about 5 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith of Kirksville spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wright, the Smith's parents.

Miss Hazel Lindsay of Clark is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Lindsay, and will remain several days.

Messrs. Irwin Ingram and Given Victor, who are attending the State University, are at home to spend a brief vacation.

Miss Josephine Shirley is the guest of friends in Burgess.

Mrs. Emma Jeffries left for Kansas City Wednesday, where she will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Hill, their son, Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. W. McCabe departed Wednesday morning for St. Louis, where they will join a weeks' party for a three weeks' trip through Old Mexico. They will stop at all the cities of importance while en route to the City of Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cushwa are visiting in Kansas City.

Miss Lola Roak of New Franklin is the guest of Miss Minnie Cunningham.

The Misses Clara Warner and Margaret Pilcher are visiting in Kansas City.

Miss Josephine Eddings, who has been attending Central College at Lexington, Mo., spent Thanksgiving holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Eddings.

P. K. Wise is having a pleasant visit with Fayette friends.

Miss Bertrand Ferris of Columbia is enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Ferris.

Mrs. Lewis Hall, who was called to the bedside of her father, T. Walden, departed for her home in Oklahoma Thursday.

Doctor W. P. Sparrow and wife are visiting relatives in Decatur, Ill.

Mrs. C. A. Cunningham of Ohio is the guest of S. A. Briggs and family.

R. W. Stokes and wife are guests of St. Louis friends and will spend the week in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Moffatt entertained a party of friends at dinner on Thursday.

J. A. Richey and wife are visiting Mrs. J. J. Robinson, of Kansas City.

Miss Alice Graves is spending a few days with friends in Fayette.

Mrs. Belle Hunter and Miss Mayme Bassett have returned from a sojourn of several weeks in Los Angeles.

Miss Hattie Haworth and Mrs. Lulu Mudd are spending several days with Kansas City friends.

One of the most delightful social events of the season was a reception tendered the Shakespeare Club, Drexis, and Thursday Club by Mrs. H. P. Jennings, at her handsome home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Jennings was assisted by her daughters.

BROOKFIELD, MO.

A dinner was given at the Elliott Hotel last Wednesday night in honor of W. W. Lowell. Mr. Lowell, who for the last seven years has been master mechanic for the Burlington Railroad in this city, has been promoted to master mechanic at St. Joseph, Mo. Covers were laid for sixty. Mr. Lowell received a handsome ivory, gold-mounted watch charm, emblematic of the Order of Elks. After the dinner Mr. Lowell responded to by F. H. Ustick, superintendent of the Brookfield division of the Burlington, effecting as toastmaster.

The long-talked-of and eagerly looked-for-event-to a-great extent, the opening of Brookfield's handsome new $40,000 theater, the De Graw, took place Friday night. The audience, numbering more than 1,000, was the most fashionable ever assembled in this city. Doctor De Graw, who died early in the Nineteenth year, the wealthiest man in the city, built the new theater as a work of memorial.

Miss Letta Hartman came from St. Louis, where she is attending school, to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

R. N. De Graw came home from Arkansas this week to visit home folk and attend the opening of the new theater.

Doctor Catherine Stanley and Mrs. Horace Stanley spent Thanksgiving with the former's parents at Laclede.

Miss Ethel Tuggle of Chicago is the guest of Miss Edna Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Noll of Duluth and Doctor and Mrs. Jesse Gardner of Wymore, Neb., spent Thanksgiving with the parents of Doctor Gardner and Mrs. Noll.

Mrs. T. A. Todd arrived Thursday from Oklahoma City to visit Brookfield relatives.

Miss Mildred Miller of Sumner was a guest of Doctor Miller and Mrs. T. P. Owen last Friday, coming to the opening of the new theater.

P. P. Kimber was at St. Joseph last Wednesday.

George W. Bailey has returned from a trip to Texas.

Miss Alice Bottomly visited Miss Ora Wilson at Kansas City last week, and witnessed the Missouri-Kansas football game.

Miss Beth Allen returned to Delaware, Ks., Saturday.

A. L. Pratt