WOMAN PANEL-WORKER WILL EXPOSE POLICE CORRUPTION TO MARONEY

Ollie Roberts, Serving Ten-Year Term in Penitentiary for Murder, Kept Account Book of Money She Paid for Protection—Her Contributions Said to Approximate $100,000 — Commissioner Will Interview Her.

OLLIE ROBERTS.

Ollie Roberts, the panel worker, who is now serving a ten-year sentence in Jefferson City for murder, stands ready to unfold to Police Commissioner Andrew C. Maroney whatever knowledge she has of police corruption.

The woman is said to have kept a "cash book" of her subscriptions for police protection, and this is said to contain the names of the various beneficiaries, with the dates and amounts given by her.

It is known that the woman was one of the boldest characters who inhabited the "tenderloin" in many years. She did not show the least concern about her liberty when placed under arrest following a robbery in her establishment, and just as often as she was arrested on a charge of larceny she was released from custody either on bond or because of the refusal of warrants against her.

Ollie Roberts was regarded as one of the handsomest women of the half-world. Her tall, stately figure was made more attractive by her costly garments, while her clear complexion, blond hair and large blue eyes ensnared many a visitor to her resort.

While Ollie was considered a liberal producer, she was at the same time cautious to make a memorandum of her protection assessments in a small memorandum-book, which, it is said, she now is ready to turn over to Police Commissioner Maroney.

Sam Lears visited the woman in the Penitentiary at Jefferson City last Saturday, and while he is said to have learned a great deal about the woman's dealings with the police, it is said that he was not told anything of which Commissioner Maroney was not to a certain extent cognizant.

Mr. Maroney probably will visit the woman in the Penitentiary to-morrow or Thursday and secure the desired documents, with whatever other information she may be ready to give concerning police corruption.

It is reported that the Roberts woman paid upward of $100,000 for protection during the five years previous to her incarceration in the Penitentiary.

CASTLE ANNOUNCES FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Man Who Overthrew Republicanism in Pennsylvania Assails Millionaires of New York in Publishing His Candidacy.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 1.—Homer L. Castle, who overturned the Pennsylvania Republican plurality of 50,000, and helped the Democrats to elect a Treasurer by 7000 plurality, to-day announced his candidacy for Governor in a statement assailing millionaires, who, he alleges, have banded together at New York to monopolize the political machinery of the nation.

Castle says he can prove what he says. He started the bank scandal in Pennsylvania, telling the story of how millionaire politicians loaned out State money in banks where they could get credit.

Castle's New Year salute threatens another upheaval in this State and others. This is the basis for his charges: Recently a dozen millionaires connected with Pittsburg, New York and Philadelphia, known to be behind the Pennsylvania Republican machine, mixed up in Pittsburg political affairs, and announced their support for A. M. Jenkinson, a millionaire toymaker and society man, for Mayor. It is the beginning of a scheme to harmonize the State and unite forces here that have been rebellious for years.

AGAINST ROOSEVELT.

Castle charges specifically that the millionaires have organized to frustrate the reform planks of President Roosevelt. He says:

"Corporations throughout the nation will be the targets of the independent vote next year. That is why millionaires are banding together. They have formed an alliance, where these men representing the corporate interests of the country, for the sole purpose of controlling political machinery in the larger and doubtful States.

"Back of the open declaration of Henry Clay Frick, that he favors the candidacy of Millionaire Jenkinson for Mayor of Pittsburg, and the announcement that Jenkinson has the backing of the Pennsylvania Railroad, of Millionaire A. W. Mellon, J. Donald Cameron, the Widener-Elkins syndicate of Philadelphia and the Philadelphia company which controls the public-service corporations of Pittsburg and the United States Steel Corporation.

"The introduction of Frick and his crowd of millionaires in Pittsburg and Pennsylvania reveals one ramification. A dozen of these ramifications exist, and men connected with the whole combination of millionaires I refer to are looking after their respective districts."

ROLLS ON GROUND TO PUT OUT FIRE

Mark Fischer, Watchman at Brick Yard, Burned by Explosion of Oil While Lighting Kiln, Dies at Hospital.

Set afire by an explosion of kerosene, Mark Fischer, 59 years old, rolled in the dust and extinguished the flames, but not until he had been horribly burned all over the body yesterday morning. He died at the City Hospital a few hours later.

Fischer was employed as a watchman at the Enterprise Brick Works at King's highway and Oak Hill avenue, and was trying to light the fires in a kiln when a can of coal oil which he carried became ignited from a torch and exploded, the burning oil being thrown all over his clothing.

In agony Fischer rolled on the ground. His screams failed to attract fellow-workmen, and when the flames were extinguished Fischer was unable to arise. He was found a few moments later by a foreman and an ambulance summoned.

A hurried drive to the City Hospital was made and everything was done to save Fischer's life, but he died a few moments before noon.

The body is held for the Coroner and will be claimed by the widow, who lives at No. 4109 Duncan avenue.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY RESULT OF HIS JEALOUS RAGE.

William Goodknight Shoots Wife Over Mother-in-Law's Shoulder and Then Kills Himself.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Lawton, Ok., Jan. 1.—In a jealous rage William Goodknight, a farmer 25 years old, shot and instantly killed his child-wife and then killed himself, near Duke, fifty-five miles west of here, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Goodknight, his wife and Mrs. Dunn, mother of Mrs. Goodknight, were sitting in the room, when suddenly Goodknight walked to a corner of the room, seized a 32-caliber target rifle, advanced to the rear of Mrs. Dunn's chair and fired over her shoulder at his wife. The ball entered her forehead and she died instantly.

Mrs. Dunn ran into the yard screaming, and Goodknight stepped into an adjoining room and shot himself in the left breast. This did not produce death and he placed the weapon at his forehead and pulled the trigger.

An inquest was held yesterday afternoon and a verdict of the jury was found in accordance with the facts related above. The funeral was held at Duke to-day.

Goodknight and his wife were married at Chickasha last spring. She was 15 years old. The cause of the deed is said to have been Goodknight's jealousy of his wife.

TWO MEN FIGHT OFF LONE HIGHWAYMAN.

Fred Bremerkamp Grapples With Footpad, While Companion Wrests Knife From Robber's Hand.

Fred Bremerkamp, 21 years old, of No. 2818 Ohio avenue, and Henry J. Siezak 23 years old, of No. 2906 California avenue, reported to the police yesterday that they were attacked by a highwayman at Lynch street and Texas avenue at 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The robber brandished a knife and demanded their money and jewelry.

The men say they refused to give the footpad anything, and he grappled with Bremerkamp. In the fight Siezak grabbed the hold-up's arm and took the knife from him. The man then escaped.

Bremerkamp and Siezak took the knife to Patrolman Whalen of the Second District and told their story of the hold-up. The police of the Second District arrested three men and locked them up on suspicion. Bremerkamp and Siezak failed to identify them and they were released.

GOES 10,000 MILES IN VAIN.

Iowa Man Unable to Find His Wife After Long Search.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 1.—After traveling 10,000 miles in search of his runaway wife, W. C. Drunkwater, a wealthy resident of Stanger, Ia., arrived in Omaha this afternoon, a few hours after the woman had fled. Drunkwater will continue the search, however.

Drunkwater says his wife eloped with an intimate friend of the family. The runaways first went to Dallas, Tex., where Drunkwater followed. They escaped, going to New York and thence to Seattle.

Drunkwater has followed them from city to city, making more than 1000 miles in the search. He has not captured them yet. He fully expected to find them in Omaha, but they had heard of his coming and escaped, he says.

TEXAS NEGRO RESISTS MOB.

Is Killed by White Men, Two of Whom Are in Jail.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 1.—Five white men last night invaded the house of Talton Parker, a negro, in Hopkins County, Texas, for the purpose of mobbing him. The negro resisted and was killed, the top of his head being shot off.

One white man was wounded. Two of the men charged with being in the mob were placed in jail, at Sulphur Springs, to-day. Search is being made for the others.

PROSPERITY IN ARGENTINA.

Immigration and Customs Receipts Show Big Increases.

SPECIAL BY CABLE.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 1.—(Copyright, 1906.)—During this there arrived in Argentina more than 157,000 immigrants, against 125,000 the previous year.

Revenues of the Buenos Ayres Custom-House were more than 104,000,000 pesos ($41,600,000), an increase of nearly 3,000,000 pesos ($1,200,000) more than in 1904.

EXPORTS OF CORN INCREASED.

New Orleans Figures Show December Gain of 2,091,426 Bushels.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New Orleans, Jan. 1.—The official record of grain exports for December, 1905, made up to-day, shows there were 2,091,426 bushels more of corn exported last December than during December of 1904.

Says Negroes Robbed Him.

Peter Schlefinger, a visitor in the city, reported to the police yesterday that he had been robbed of $12 in a house at No. 1021 Clark avenue. He declared that Alice Butler, a negress, stole the money. The Butler woman was arrested and identified by Schlefinger. She is in the holdover, pending an investigation. The police are looking for two other negroes who were in the house at the time Schlefinger was robbed.

MAY SOLVE MYSTERY OF IDAHO MURDER

Officers Arrest Man Who It Is Thought Can Give Information Concerning Death of a Former Idaho Governor.

Coldwell, Idaho, Jan. 1.—The officers believe they have one of the men responsible for the assassination of former Governor Steunenberg. He is one of those who have been under suspicion.

This man registered at the Saratoga Hotel three weeks ago as M. J. Hoglan, giving Denver as his address. A year ago he stopped at the Pacific Hotel, registering as Thomas Hoglan. A search of his room at the Saratoga resulted in the discovery of an old overcoat and some other rough clothes, also some fish lines similar to the pieces found at the scene of the explosion, supposed to be part of the string with which the trigger of the infernal machine was pulled.

Further, in his grip was a lot of white powder, believed to be a high explosive. There was also something that looked like brown wrapping paper, but it would not burn. The contents of the grip are in the hands of a chemist.

It is stated that Angus Sutherland, former Sheriff of Shoshone County, who is on the ground, has recognized this man as one who was in the famous bull pen after the riots in Idaho in 1899. This story has not yet been confirmed.

The officers determined to take Hoglan to Boise this evening, as the jail here is a very poor affair, and afford no opportunity to keep suspects apart.

After a conference, however, it was determined to keep him here, since it was feared his removal would be construed as evidence of fear of mob violence.

The funeral of Governor Steunenberg will take place to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, the services being conducted by the Reverend W. J. Boone, president of the College of Idaho, a Presbyterian school. W. E. Borah will deliver an address on the occasion.

LITTLE GIRL BADLY BURNED

Gertrude Grimes, 8 Years Old, Was Playing With Christmas Candles When Her Clothes Caught Fire.

Her dress ignited from candles which had decorated a Christmas tree, Gertrude Grimes, 8 years old, ran screaming from the basement of No. 1206 South Sixth street yesterday afternoon. Her burning clothes were torn from her seared flesh by men attracted by the terrified cries.

The little girl, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grimes, residing on the second floor of No. 1206 South Sixth street, was playing with two children of the neighborhood, Rody and Katie Lloyd. They were decorating make-believe Christmas trees with candles, which had been taken from the real article in the Grimes home.

The happy chatter of the children was interrupted by a startled scream from the Grimes child as her skirt caught fire after contact with one of the candles, and the three children rushed from the basement screaming.

Jack Lloyd and another neighbor, Watson, responded and grasped the suffering child as she emerged from the basement door into the yard. Although the flames from the child's clothing enveloped her form, the men tore the fabric from her body and extinguished the fire.

Doctor E. H. Lehmann of No. 1208 South Broadway, was called and pronounced the girl's burns to be serious. He stated that she had probably inhaled the flames.

EMPEROR SENDS GOLD MEDAL TO LOCAL SINGING SOCIETY.

Golden Jubilee of Rheinischer Frohsinn Celebrated—Congressman Bartholdt Speaks.

The golden jubilee of the Rheinischer Frohsinn, a German singing society, was celebrated at Concordia Turner Hall, at Thirteenth and Arsenal streets, last night. A gold medal, sent by Emperor William of Germany, was presented to the society by the German Consul, Herr F. von Reder.

In the address of the German Consul, the congratulations of the Emperor were extended for the excellence of the organization and for their love for the mother country.

There were many other testimonials sent from the various national singing societies and from the Liederkranz Club of St. Louis.

During the evening Congressman Bartholdt delivered an address, in which he commended the Germans of St. Louis for their substantial citizenship and loyalty to pure politics.

BRADLEY NOT IN RACE FOR CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.

St. Francois County Legislator Urged to Seek Re-election to the State Senate.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Flat River, Mo., Jan. 1.—State Senator John L. Bradley, of this city, whose name has been prominently mentioned as a possible candidate for the Democratic Congressional nomination in the Thirteenth District, to-day announced he will not seek the nomination.

Mr. Bradley's friends are urging him to again become a candidate for the State Senate from this district. Mr. Bradley's strength with the voters of the district has been greatly increased because of the numerous measures which he introduced and had enacted in the interest of the laboring element, which casts a large vote in this section of the State.

Mr. Bradley's announcement that he will not be a candidate for Congress leaves the field in St. Francois County to former Senator M. E. Smith of Farmington, who two years ago was the opponent of former Congressman Edward Robb of Perryville in the primaries.

GORED BEFORE THOUSANDS.

Matador Badly Wounded by Bull at El Paso.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Galveston, Tex., Jan. 1.—News was received here to-day that before an audience of 2000 cheering Americans in a bull-fighting arena at El Paso, Francisco Palomar, "Carlo Chico," a renowned matador, while performing exceptionally daring feats, was yesterday afternoon caught by a wild bull and terribly gored, his life to-day being despaired of.

Palomar, who was the captain of the troupe, was succeeded by Alonzo Paquirre, himself just out of the hospital after bloody wounds received two months ago, and the bloody fight was continued amid the encouragement of the applauding and cheering Americans.

Hassendeubel Post Entertains.

The annual vaudeville entertainment and hop for the members of Hassendeubel Post, No. 11, G. A. R., was held at the South St. Louis Turner Hall at Tenth and Carroll streets last night. Among the visitors were Henry Farenhack, commander of the Department of Missouri; Mayo's Ringe, of St. Charles, and Assistant General Thomas Rodgers of the Department of Missouri. The evening's entertainment consisted of an elaborate programme made up of short sketches in monologue, comedy, impersonations and a selection from the "Prince of Pilsen."

Albert Farnum Is Dead.

Chicago, Jan. 1.—Albert H. Farnam, a well-known member of the Chicago Board of Trade, died here to-day of pneumonia. For the past six years Mr. Farnum had been connected with the firm of Fartlett, Frazer and Carrington.

C. G. Guthrie May Recover.

Salisbury, N. C., Jan. 1.—C. G. Guthrie, chairman of the Republic Iron and Steel Company, who was operated on here Saturday night for appendicitis, and whose condition Sunday was critical, is resting comfortably, and his physicians hold out encouragement for his ultimate recovery.

NO CHANGE IN PASTORATE OF HOLY TRINITY CHURCH.

The Reverend Theophile Pudlowski Still Officiates Both at St. Casimir's and Park Avenue Edifice.

Made impatient by the divided duties of their pastor, now pastor at the same time of another church, the congregation of the Sacred Catholic Church of the Holy Trinity, Cavelli street and Park avenue, met at the church yesterday afternoon and appointed a committee to wait on the Archbishop relative to the matter.

The pastor, the Reverend Theophile Pudlowski, was recently appointed by Archbishop Glennon pastor of St. Casimir's Polish Church, Eighth and Mullanphy streets, to take the place of the former pastor, who disappeared about a month ago. At the same time, by the Archbishop's direction, Father Pudlowski retained charge of the Holy Trinity church, although making his headquarters at St. Casimir's.

The arrangement was not at all to the liking of the Holy Trinity congregation, with whom their pastor is very popular, and the dissatisfaction culminated at the meeting of the Parochial Society yesterday afternoon, at which Father Pudlowski was present.

Although the occasion of the meeting was the annual election of officers of the society, the matter of Father Pudlowski's double pastorate came up, and he was asked how long he would continue to divide his duties between two parishes. Father Pudlowski answered that the matter was entirely in the hands of the Archbishop, and advised them to wait upon him for information.

A committee was appointed at the meeting and later called upon the Archbishop at his residence. The Archbishop told the parishioners he did not know how long it would be necessary to keep Father Pudlowski in charge of the two parishes, nor could he tell what his future assignment would be.

He assured them that he had at heart the best interests of their parish and would conserve them to the best of his ability if they would be content to have confidence in him. The committee departed seemingly satisfied with the Archbishop's assurance.

Charged With Raising Money Orders.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

St. Joseph, Mo., Jan. 1.—Postal authorities in St. Joseph are looking for a man who gave the name of John M. Wilson and cashed two money orders at a local department store, each of which had been raised from $5 to $90.

Two other orders of like amount are in circulation, but have not been located yet. Wilson came here from Lincoln, Neb., where the orders were issued, and is believed to have left the city soon after cashing them.

Many excellent positions are advertised in The Republic's Want pages every day.

NATIONAL QUARANTINE BILL.

Williams to Introduce Measure When Congress Reassembles.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Jan. 1.—Colonel N. F. Thompson, editor of the Tradesman, is in receipt of a letter from John Sharp Williams, minority leader in Congress, in which he says that immediately upon the reassembling of Congress this week he will call the Southern representatives and senators together for the purpose of agreeing on a bill providing Federal regulation of quarantine matters in the South, to be at once pressed for passage, and which will conform to the resolutions adopted by the Chattanooga Quarantine Conference.

Mr. Williams was chairman of the Quarantine Committee at that conference, and it is through his efforts that a unanimous report was obtained from the committee and when passed the conference with but one dissenting vote, that being by Senator Mallory of Florida.

It is believed that Senator Mallory will not object to the bill when it comes before the Senate, while all Northern Representatives and Senators are willing to pass any bill regulating quarantine that the Southern members will agree upon.

AGED WOMEN IN TRAGEDY.

One 75 Years Old Shoots Sister and Then Kills Herself.

Erie, Pa., Jan. 1.—A murder and suicide that probably took place late Saturday night at a lonely farmhouse near East Springfield, fifteen miles west of here, was reported to the county officials to-day.

After an investigation County Detective Frank Watson believes that Elizabeth Magrewill, aged 75, shot and killed her sister Deborah, a couple of years younger than herself, and turned the gun upon herself, blowing out her brains.

The impoverished condition of the women, and their old age is believed to have mentally unbalanced Elizabeth.

MOTHER SEES CHILD BURNED.

Clothes Entangled in Barbed Wire Prevent Rescue.

Meridian, Miss., Jan. 1.—With her clothing entangled in a barbed-wire fence and unable to go to the rescue, Mrs. Will O'Neill of Enterprise this morning saw her little daughter burn to death.

The child's clothing caught from a bonfire and the mother, in her frantic haste to render assistance, became entangled in the wire and the little girl was fatally burned before the mother got her clothing loose.

JAMES J. CORBETT ACTS IN BERNARD SHAW PLAY.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 1.—George Bernard Shaw's comedy, "Cashel Byron's Profession," was given its first presentation on any stage at the Hyperion Theater this afternoon.

Miss Margaret Wycherly, who played the title role of Lydia Carew, was supported by a strong company, and considerable incidental interest was attached to the appearance of James J. Corbett in the part of Cashel Byron, the gentleman pugilist.

At the evening performance, which was a formal one, the matinee being practically a rehearsal, the audience enthusiastically received this latest of Mr. Shaw's comedies to be translated on the stage.

HIGGINS CANDIDATE TO FIGHT FOR OPEN BALLOT.

Merritt Supporters in New York Assembly Bring Forth New Scheme to Defeat Choice of the Administration.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 1.—The test of strength in the caucus of Republican Assemblymen to-morrow night probably will be taken, not directly in a vote upon the candidates for the nomination for Speaker of the Assembly, but upon the question whether the vote on the speakership nomination shall be a secret vote.

The utmost resources of both sides in the contest are now concentrated upon that single point. Its importance is evident by the fact that the pledges hitherto obtained from the individual members of the new Assembly have had reference only to the support of this candidate or that. The issue of a secret ballot for Speaker sprang into existence late this afternoon, and visibly disturbed all the comparative certainties which had been supposed to exist.

Leaders of the movement for the nomination of James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Livingston, who was selected by Governor Higgins, admit that if they cannot prevent a secret ballot they cannot secure Mr. Wadsworth's nomination by the caucus.

On the other hand, adherents of Edward A. Merritt, Jr., of St. Lawrence, changed their previous tactics of claiming that they could defeat Wadsworth, even if they could not elect Merritt, and began to assert that they were certain of votes enough to secure a secret ballot.

At 8 o'clock to-night the best-informed observers on both sides agreed that in an open ballot or roll call of Republican Assemblymen in the existing condition of affairs, Mr. Wadsworth would be elected. Both sides agreed also that upon a secret ballot the result would be very different.
