THEATRE—IMMENSE SUCCESS.- There was immense audiences present at the theatre Thursday night and last night to witness the performances of Mr. Church's new combination company of artists; many were turned away unable to gain admittance so packed was the theatre. Mr. Church certainly deserves much credit for his enterprise in bringing together two such excellent companies. Miss Ella La Rue took immensely in her banjo solo, singing and acting, taking the people by storm. Mr. Nestield, in his singing, created quite a furore while in the duett with Miss Kennedy—"When the Swallows"—the audience were completely carried away. Mr. W. Smith, in his eccentric dancing and other specialties, has not his equal on the Pacific slope. Messrs. Dixon and Parks were as funny as ever, keeping the people in a continual roar; while of the old favorites, Miss Agnes Kennedy, carried all before her in her character songs and rapid changes—in one case being on in a change of costume before the symphonies of her former song was over. Quick work, that.

SPECIAL DEPOSITS.—The following named parties have made special deposits, in currency, with the State Treasurer, to be paid out on warrants for lands belonging to the State: A. M. Gaylor $200 for 40 acres; F. A. A. Forster $100 for 320 acres; Samuel Rice $100 for 320 acres; H. L. Fish $200 for 318.84 acres; J. L. Hockey $50 for 320 acres; James Hayman $100 for 80 acres; Lyle Snyder $50 for 160 acres; Geo. Russel $79.72 for 238.8 acres; John R. Dall $78.27 for 40 acres; Thos. Hagar $80 for 320 acres; Jas. Montgomery $20 for 40 acres; A. H. Hawley $40.55 for 116.25 acres; Elizabeth Mott $50 for 80 acres; Wm. R. Method $10 for 40 acres.

DIED.—David E. Davis, of the firm of Davis & Maurry, died in this city on Wednesday night last, after a brief illness. The funeral took place from the Episcopal Church yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, which was largely attended. Mr. Davis was an old resident of this county, being one of the first settlers in Genoa City. He was dearly beloved by those most intimately acquainted with him. A large number of friends followed the funeral from Empire. We in common with his numerous friends, sympathize with his grief stricken family.

COAL.—The prospect for an immediate supply of coal from the Rocky Mountain Coal Company, at Evanston, on the closed the C. P. R. R. Co., is rather hopeless, as the mine is reported to be very burning. Should the fire not be extinguished shortly, I will propose a scheme under for the Pacific Pacific Railroad Company, as the company expends up the Evanston coal mine—for the supply of fuel.

THANKSGIVING DAY.—Our citizens pretty generally observed Thanksgiving Day, although many of the stores were open for a few hours morning. The usual sports, Big turkey dinners and parties made up all with whom we have conversed the past week. The bar of Hope passed off during the day and evening. No casualties to report at arrests.

WILL DUNCAN.—Mr. Lesley will be here to-day visiting to-day. He has 14 chances, which are transferable for cash at any time, so bring your money along with you. The lucky chance will change the day and evening. No chances to be sold to arrests.

WILL DUNCAN.—Mr. Lesley will be here to-day visiting to-day. He has 14 chances, which are transferable for cash at any time, so bring your money along with you. The lucky chance will change the day and evening. No chances to be sold to arrests.

DEPARTURE.—Mr. Gov. McCormick, recent Delegate to Congress from Arizona for the third term, left Virginia City. The Governor proposes to examine the mines on the Comstock Lodge before proceeding to Washington.

IN TOWN.—Neil Wartman, formerly assistant assessor of the United States Branch Mint of this city, is in town. Rumor has it that Neil is a candidate for "something" in the Senate of Nevada at its next meeting.

COMMITTED.—Joseph Oxford, sentenced to State Prison for one year, for larceny, in Lander county, was brought in on Thursday morning, and delivered over to Lieutenant Governor Denver.

POSTPONED.—The entertainment at Virginia city for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum at Carson, has been postponed until the 16th of December.

MORALITY.—The morality among the Indians, in Storey county, is said to be on the increase, four having died during last week.

ADOPTED.—We understand that the public schools have adopted the new spelling writers, which are for sale cheap at R. Fred Brooks' Postoffice Bookstore.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL—VIRGINIA CITY.

Now that the holidays are drawing near, the Sisters of St. Mary's School, Virginia city, are endeavoring to make the time pleasant for the pupils in their charge in that very excellent institution. The school will close for the year on the 20th of December, and re-open again on the 6th of January. A Christmas Tree will be in readiness for the little ones, and the people of Virginia and surrounding towns are respectfully invited to partake of the pleasures thereat. Following is a ser riate of the tableau, and names of girls participating therein, which took place on the 25th instant, under the management of Miss Emma Midgety and Louisa Cavanaugh:

1. Scene 1st—Taking the Veil—Characters; Priest, L. Louizelle; Novice, M. Honeyman; Nuns, E. Midgely, M. Noteware, J. Morgan, L. Cavanaugh, L. Booth, N. Newman.

2. Song (duet)—"Shamus O'Brien," B. Lewis; "Nora O'Neil," M. Lewis.

3. Night and Day—Clorinda: S. Dressendoffer.

4. Four Stages in life—Childhood: R. Fanning; Maidenhood: E. Midgley; Womanhood: M. Noteware; Old Age: L. Booth.

5. Dutchman's Complaint—Katrina Putnam.

6. Goddess of Liberty—L. Cavanaugh.

7. Spanish dance and song—M. Sperry.

8. Cinderella—M. Powers; Godmother, N. Newman.

9. Captain Jenks—J. Humphrey; Mrs. Jenks, M. Honeyman.

10. Wait for Me—R. Fanning.

11. Street Scene—Lady, E. Madgley; Beggars, E. and M. Bray.

12. When the cat's away the mice will play—Lady, E. Madgley; Maidens, J. Morgan; Lover, J. Humphrey.

13. Crossing the Ferry—M. Powers.

14. Rebecca at the Well—Rebecca, N. Newman; Arab, L. Cavanaugh.

15. Hush! they sleep—J. Wortell.

16. Innocence and Crime—Innocence, N. Humphrey; Crime, J. King.

17. Faith, Hope and Charity—Faith, E. Midgley; Hope, J. Morgan; Charity, L. Booth.

18. Statuary—L. Cavanaugh, M. Newman and M. Honeyman.

The above characters were well represented and the features very interesting. Much credit is due the Sisters, and shows untiring energy on their part. So far as our knowledge extends Protestants, as well as Catholics, who have patronized the St. Mary's School accord the highest praise to the management of that institution. The discipline is thorough and the charges are very reasonable.

DISAPPOINTED.—A certain household in this city were sadly disappointed on Thanksgiving Day, by the non appearance of a turkey on the table for dinner. One a live one had been procured for the occasion, but some how or other the feathered disciple broke it into himself the night before that he would play a game on his expected assassinators, and crept under the floor of an outhouse. He succeeded admirably, as neith owners or Indians were able to put their claws on his feathered ship. At last accounts the turkey was master of the situation. The family were deprived of a "big" dinner and the turkey still lives.

BLACKSMITHING.—E. E. Cutts is busy fitting up his old blacksmith building, on Carson street, nearly opposite A. B. Driesbach's store, preparatory to starting in full blast on 2nd day next. He is providing himself with a stock of material for carrying on the blacksmith and wagon making business in all its branches. Mr. Cutts is a thorough mechanic and by strict attention to business and being a first class mechanic and good, square dealing man he will, no doubt, receive a very liberal patronage.

THANKSGIVING BALL.—The Ball at Mooney Parker's Hall, on Thursday night last, was a grand success, in every particular. There was a goodly number in attendance, who evidently spent a pleasant time. The music was excellent, and the supper, prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Dressendorfer, of Miller's hotel was splendid good; to use the words of a number who partook thereof, "it was splendid."

RETURNED.—Chas. W. Friend and family returned home from the Bay City on Tuesday morning. They were absent about three weeks. Mrs. Friend's health was greatly improved by the trip, and Charley shows a marked improvement for the little respite from business.

ILL.—Frank Smith, formerly a citizen of Humboldt county, but for some time past a resident of Virginia city, is lying quite ill at the Ormsby House, with an attack of erysipelas. His physician has confidence in the belief, however, that there will be a change for the better to day.

NEW ENGINES.—It was thought yesterday that one or both the two new engines—"Ralston" and "Sharon"—belonging to the V. & T. R. R. Co., would be ready for use to day.

THEATRE TO NIGHT.—An entire change of programme will be presented at the theatre to-night. You will receive twice the worth of the admission fee. Go and laugh.

ON HAND.—C. A. V. Putnam, State Printer elect, is in town, making arrangements for starting in on the first of January.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

To the Hon. C. N. Harris, Judge of the Second Judicial District Court, in and for the County of Ormsby, State of Nevada:

We, the Grand Jury, empanneled at the November term, 1872, of said Court, beg leave to make the following report:

We have examined all the criminal cases brought before us, or that came to our observation, and have found three bills of indictment: One (1) for murder; one (1) for an assault with intent to commit murder; one (1) for burglary.

We selected Messrs. Theodore A. Hale and M. L. Yager as experts to examine the books and accounts of the county officers. They have performed their duties and have reported to us, which report is hereunto annexed, and is made a part of this report. We recommend that the statements and exhibits made by the experts be filed in the office of the Clerk of this Court, for future reference.

We find, upon examination, that the county jail needs repairing and recommend that such repairs as are necessary be made.

We also find that the county hospital is unfitted for the purposes designated, and that the unfortunate inmates are not treated with that care which should be bestowed upon them. We therefore recommend the Commissioners to provide for them a more comfortable place.

In our investigations we find that the property of some citizens has not been assessed in 1872, whether from design or negligence on the part of the Assessor, does not appear to us. Among them is the property of Mr. S. A. Nevers, County Commissioner. As such it does appear that both these officers have intentionally or inadvertantly failed to perform their duties.

We regret to report that we are informed by the District Attorney that there is no law on the statute books of this State to punish persons for buying and selling votes at the elections, and we do earnestly hope and trust that our next Legislature will pass stringent election laws, that in their operation will disfranchise any person who says, or furnishes money to buy votes, or who sells, or offers to sell his vote. We think it was eminently proper for the Honorable Judge of this court to so earnestly invite the attention of the Grand Jury to this important matter.

The investigation made by the experts was from the vouchers, papers and statements in possession of the county officers which we found correct.

The Public Administrator, Mr. H. H. Beatty, has, according to the records, all paid to his duties, as only one final discharge has been entered by the court, in all the cases upon which he has administered. The carelessness of this officer surely demands more prompt attention. We hope we may trust that this record will be cleared up to the credit of the present incumbent, and to the benefit of the heirs of the several estates which he controls by virtue of law.

The County Assessor, G. W. Cheelie, did not yet make a settlement for poll taxes for the year 1872 the law in his estimation being such as not requiring him to make a settlement until the first Monday in December. We recommend our legislators to so amend the law as to compel the Assessor to make weekly settlements with and payments of the county money which he holds, to the County Auditor.

Respectfully submitted.

A. B. DRIESBACH,
Foreman.

Carson City, November 27, 1872.
