COMPOUND OXYGEN

Drs. HARGAN & GATCHELL
OFFICE in Eagle Block, 62 Main St.
ASHEVILLE, N. C

Compound Oxygen inhaled, in connection with the Medicated Vapor, cures Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Nasal Catarrh, Sore Throat, Loss of Voice, Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, Nervous Debility, all diseases depending on impure or impoverished blood.

It cures Rheumatism when everything else fails.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., January 1888.

In justice to all similarly afflicted with ourselves as well as to Drs. Hargan & Gatchell I voluntarily make the following statement:

My wife has suffered for several years with severe lung trouble, continuing to grow worse until last November when she was unable to sit up, but a part of each day.

No appetite, night sweats, severe cough and loss of flesh. The best physicians in Rutland, Vermont, advised an immediate departure South. We reached Asheville November 17th, and commenced taking treatment of Drs. Hargan and Gatchell, inhaling Compound Oxygen and Balsam Vapor. My wife has improved rapidly from the first. Her appetite is good, sleeps well, coughs but little, rides, walks, climbs mountains, no pain anywhere, takes long walks and climbs the mountains with little fatigue and has gained 8 lbs. in weight. We consider another month's treatment will achieve a permanent cure. As for myself I am delighted to state that I improved rapidly from the first treatment and am nearly well.

I have suffered for 25 years almost boyond endurance with the worst form of piles.

I had abandoned all hope of a cure. The Drs. treatment has been gentle and almost painless still has effected a cure in me.

Yours respectfully,
A. J. SMITH.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are living in town and can verify and add to the above.

HOME TREATMENT,

We manufacture the Compound Oxygen, and ship it to any part of the country, even to the Pacific Coast. We send apparatus and chemicals for two months for $10. This is as valuable while at home as if you come to Asheville.

The wonderful curative results obtained with this treatment is astonishing even to us.

We can refer to every town in the Union, and our success in the cure of Chronic Diseases, write or call on or address for book containing testimony, etc., free.

We publish the proceedings of the Democratic county convention held for the county of Madison, at Marshall, with the remark that our friends of Madison, though in the minority, hold a stiff upper lip, and intend to make themselves felt in the coming campaign. This is the right spirit, and may impress itself on our Republican friends of Madison, who are reasonable men, and not beyond the reach of conviction. But if they are, the other side is determined to din some democratic doctrine in their laws.

The nightly meeting at the Farmers warehouse, under the charge of the Rev. T. M. Myers are still held and with increasing interest. The attendance each night shows increase, and the interest of the hearers more intense. They will be continued so long as the present feeling gives such encouragement.

To-day is National Decoration day. We do not know how many Federal dead lie buried here. There is no National cemetery here. But we hope such graves as are here will receive the mournful honors from both sides, as has come to be the generous and Christian habit. Enmities are buried in the grave. Both sides fought for what they believed to be right. They who died perished for their belief. That was honest. Let no one remember such as an enemy whether he wore the Blue or the Gray.

Decoration Day.

To-day being the National Decoration Decoration Day, and also a legal holiday, the postoffice in this city will be closed from 10 a. m., until 6. m. This ruling is by order of the postmaster-general.

George Green colored, was arraigned before Justice Malone yesterday charged with the larceny of a jar of candy, several bananas and a few peanuts from the candy store of W. C. Jones & Co., on South Main street, Sunday night. Greenlee who is engaged in the grocery business on South Main street

Mayor's Court.

There were only two cases before his Honor yesterday morning, and one of these was the alleged horse stealing case. Upon examination it was developed that the negroes, Bud Payne and Tom Ferguson, had raced the horses nearly out of breath, and had offered to sell the same to Mr. Milton Ledford and others. It was proven that both of the defendants were drunk, and Mayor Harkins fined each $12 25. The next case was an affray in which two small boys took a hand. The trouble grew out of a refusal on the part of one to "set 'em up" to a cigarette. His Honor said that he would not try a case of that kind and took the "kids" to their parents and advised the administration of a geated thrashing, which advice was heeded.

The Magistrates of Buncombe County

Meet on Monday next, the first Monday in the month, for the transaction of important county business the chief of which is. First, the election of five county commissioners; Second, the election of a county superintendent of public instruction; and, Third, the levying of taxes.

In addition, there will be the usual incidental business connected with the affairs of the county.

There are at present fifty-three acting magistrates in the county, appointed among thirteen townships. There are some vacancies to be filled, and there is one new township to be provided for.

The following is the number in each township viz: Asheville township, 6; Avery's Creek, 3; Lower Hominy, 4; Upper Hominy, 4; Leicester, 5, Sandy Mush, 4; Fairview, 3; Swannanoa, 4; Reams Creek, 5; Flat Creek, 4; Ivy, 4; Black Mountain, 5; Limestone, 3.

The New York Star says: Pennsylvania, Illinois, Mississippi and Texas promed a quartet to of States which on Wednesday spoke for Cleveland and tariff reform. Texas and Pennsylvania would naturally have been selected as States in which the protected interests would raise objections to some points of the Democratic policy. But no where have the resolutions of approbaion of Cleveland's policy been more explicit and hearty. Never was such unanimity seen in a great party as now prevailes for the renomination of the President and the perfected execution of the policy he enforces through the agency of another presidential term. Four years was not long enough to undo the mischief of a quarter of a century of Republican domination. Within eight years the task will be so perfectly accomplished that nothing will be lacking in the realization of its benefits to the people.

It has rained hard since four o'clock Saturday afternoon without stopping, and the country is flooded; farmers all along White and Lone Tree rivers have had to abandon their houses, a number of which have been washed away. The White has risen 16 feet in forty minutes, the water coming down almost in a solid wall.

CAUGHT IN SPARTANBURG.

Austin Alexander Brought Back this Morning.

Several days ago Ellen Dean, a colored woman, living on Mr. Alonzo Rankin's place, in this city, discovered that she had been robbed of nearly $300. Suspicion was at once fastened upon one Austin Alexander, also colored, as the perpetrator of the crime. A thorough search of the city by the police, to whom the matter had been reported, failed to disclose Alexander's whereabouts, and telegrams containing description, charge, and instructions to hold if caught, were sent to neighboring towns in South Carolina Georgia, Tennessee and North Carolina. Nothing was heard from these telegrams until Monday night, when a telegram was received by Officer Smith, of this city, from the Chief of Police of Spartanburg, S. C., stating that he had Alexander in custody, and wanted to know what to do with him. Officer Smith wired back to hold him until his arrival. Officer Smith left last night for Spartanburg, and will bring Alexander back to this city on the 7 o'clock train this morning, when he will have a hearing before Justice C. W. Malone.

STATE NEWS.

The Goldsboro Argus says: We learn that at their recent meeting in Greensboro that excellent organization, the I. O. O. F., determined upon the establishment of an Orphanage in this State, and to this end a committee was appointed to take the matter into consideration with full powers to act.

The Murphey Bulletin says: That Cherokee is the most productive county in the State, the following will substantiate: Mrs. Sanford Ledford, who lives in the lower end of the county, has given birth to four boys within the past twelve months. We can but echo the remark we once heard a Georgian use after traveling over these United States, viz: "Great guns, what a country!"

A Chapel Hill letter says: A memorial services was held at the Methodist Church last Sunday night in honor of the late Dr. N. H. D. Wilson. The speakers were Rev. R. C. Beaman, Dr. A. W. Mangum, Dr. K. P. Battle, Dr. C. F. Deems, of New York city. During the course of his talk Dr Deems made some remarks about the study of State biography and the honor due the memory of our dead great men.

The Concord Times says: Concord has never improved more during any other two years of its history than it has in the past two. Besides numerous elegant brick stores and private dwellings, we have had a factory built, with a capital stock of $75,000, a bank with a capital of $50,000, a hotel company organized, to cost about $25,000—but the catalogue is too long, and we grow weary in enumerating. Concord is now one of the most progressive business towns in North Carolina.

Of all the incidents connected with the recent floods out West perhaps none was more thrilling than that related of the father who "was on the levee working with other farmers when the embankment gave way. Mounting his horse he had a mad race with the advancing waters for his home, where his three little children were sleeping. Reaching there just as the water struck the house, he placed the children in a wagon and started for the bluffs. The rapidly advancing flood floated the wagon box from the wheels and two of the children were drowned, Johnston saving himself and his little daughter. The child is all he has left of a happy home and a farm of 200 acres." This pathetic story from real life might furnish the theme for a companion poem to Miss Ingelow's well known "High-tide on the coast of Lincolnshire."

The information respecting the condition of Gen. Sheridan continues unfavorable.

Washington telegram of the 28th say: At 1:15 p. m., Dr. Matthews left the Sheridan residence. He reported that there has been no material change in the General's condition since the last bulletin. At any rate there was no change for the better. He frequently dozed off into a semi-wakeful sleep, but it is not of a restful character. The oxygen treatment is being continued at short intervals.

The physician bulletin, timed 8:30 but not issued until 9:30, describes Gen. Sheridan's condition as much more favorable. Oedema of the legs has entirely disappeared and Gen. Sheridan says that he feels splendidly.

Notice to Advertisers.

Parties frequently have advertisements inserted "till forbid," and allow them to remain longer than they suspect, and then object to paying for such insertions. Our space costs us money, and we must and will charge for its use. All parties may expect to pay full transient rates for all "till forbid" advertisements. We hope there will be no further misunderstandings upon this point. It is much more satisfactory all round, to fix length of time and agree to rate of charges in the beginning.

"WET AND DRY."

The following communication is submitted for the consideration of those who are to participate in the accession of the question "license" or "no licence" at the coming election; and is submitted without comment:

Editors Citizen:—The following resolutions were offered by the Board of Trade and the business men of the city of Richmond, Va., and passed by an immense meeting of the citizens of that city at Mozart Academy on the 26th of April, 1886. The resolutions speak for themselves. The prohibition movement was defeated. X.

WHEREAS, Under a recent act of the General Assembly of Virginia the people of Richmond will be required upon the 26th inst. to determine by their votes whether the sale of wines and liquors shall be absolutely prohibited in our city after the 1st of May next; and

WHEREAS, the traffic in those articles has existed in time immemorial and under the sanction of the laws of the State of Virginia large investments of property have been made and great business interests have been built up, the value of which to the individual proprietor is of imposing magnitude, and cannot be sacrificed without material injury to the commercial prosperity of this city and State; and

WHEREAS, As the adoption of this prohibition policy in this city will withdraw annually from the revenue of the State $62,000 and from the revenues of the city $15,000 of license taxes, imposing the necessity of supplementing this deficiency by additional burthens upon our already heavily taxed people; will throw out of employment a large number of citizens of all classes; will at once diminish the rental value of a great number of houses, upon the returns from which many families are dependent for support; and will, we believe, exercise a depressing influence upon all the commercial interests and enterprises among us; and

WHEREAS, While we yield to none of our fellow-citizens in deploring the evils of intemperance and in commending and encouraging all legitimate efforts to check and restrain the undue use of intoxicating liquors, we are not satisfied from the experience of other communities that prohibition does prohibit, or that it contributes to the promotion of the moral any more than it does to the advancement of the material interest of the State; therefore

Resolved, That we earnestly advise all of our fellow-citizens to vote upon the 26th inst. for adherence to the traditional policy of our fathers in the licensing of the sale of wines and liquors under the existing laws of the commonwealth;

Resolved, further, That we deprecate the proposed violent departure from the policy which has characterized the legislation of Virginia in all of her past glorious history as the first step towards the adoption of a system of sumptuary laws at war with the fundamental principles of civil and constitutional liberty.

Resolved further, That we profoundly regret and deplore the efforts made in this matter, for the first time in Virginia, to coerce public sentiment upon questions of political action by the influence of the church and the clergy.

Staple and Fancy

GROCERIES.

Our stock is larger, fresher and cheaper than ever before. Some goods have advanced while others have declined.

Trade is very good indeed, and all indications point to a very large trade for Asheville this season.

We will have more visitors here this summer than ever before, and we are prepared to feed them in first-class style.

The high quality and low prices of our goods have become known throughout Western N. C., and almost every mail brings us orders for goods in our line.

We have voluntary testimonials from close buyers saying that on comparing our prices with Knoxville and Richmond they have found our prices lower, when of goods and freights were taken into consideration.

We are giving special attention to the

of Asheville and have a large stock of goods selected especially for this trade.

Since writing our last there has been an advance in the price of coffee, hams, lard and flour. We are still selling at old prices, except Arlosa Coffee, which we have advanced to 25 cts. We buy this coffee direct and can guarantee it to be fresh roasted. We are still selling

5 Lbs. GOOD RIO For $1.

12 pounds granulated sugar for $1. Magnolia hams 11c to 11c. These hams are taken from the smoke house and shipped to us every week, and you can depend on getting nice,

We do not sell shoulders and call them hams. What is known as a California or picnic ham is nothing in the world but a shoulder cut and put up like a ham. They are dear at 9c.

We would like for anyone who doubts that is the best flour ever seen in this market to call and get a sample and try it.
