BOLD ROBBERY AT HIKO.—A bold robbery was committed at Hiko, Pahranagat district, on the night of the 21st inst., James McGuffie, a wealthy and well-known citizen of this county, being the victim. The following particulars are taken from a letter written by Mr. McGuffie to a friend in this city the day after the robbery. "On Friday evening, the 20th, about 7½ o'clock, my wife, Jas. Brown, a neighboring ranchman, and myself, went into the house from the store to get our supper. While at the table some one knocked, and I inquired what they wanted. They replied that they wanted barley. As soon as I got outside three men presented three revolvers at my head, ordering me to lie down on my belly. They then tightly tied my hands; and, after having secured me, went into the house and in the same manner tied my wife and Brown, and covered their heads. They then drew a sack over my head, lifted me up, and ordered me to hand over to them $50,000 in cash, and certain bonds which they said they knew I had, saying they heard it stated in Pioche, by men who were at my bed-side when I made my will, that I possessed that much money and securities. They then took every dollar there was in the store, being something over $300, and went into the house to compel my wife to tell them where the money was. While they were gone I managed to untie myself and started off for assistance. When they found I had escaped, they left; and then my wife got her hands loose, and released Brown. Brown came down to Wilson's, where I was, and requested Wilson to have the robbers pursued. He said 'there was not horses enough in the valley to catch them,' and refused to do anything. The next day he did not come near me. He is the Justice of the Peace here. One of the robbers struck me a terrible blow on the head with his revolver, and I now suffer great pain from the blow."

NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISES.—Pioche will soon be well supplied with daily papers. A party in this city is now negotiating with the proprietors of the RECORD for the material on which the Review was formerly printed, and propose to issue their prospectus at an early day. And in addition to this enterprise, we see an item going the rounds of our exchanges stating that Myrom Angel, of San Francisco, will soon start a first-class daily here. The former journal will be an evening issue; we do not know whether Mr. Angel's journal will be an evening or morning paper. "The largest pole knocks the persimmons," gentlemen—our best wishes are with you both. The RECORD will issue a weekly edition during the coming summer, which will be as large as the Weekly Virginia Enterprise.

THE PIOCHE WELL PROJECT.—A strong company is being organized, composed of prominent citizens, to put machinery over the well of Messrs. Takart & Netzel, and sink to water. If water is found in sufficient quantity a steam-pump will be procured to force it up into the city. Citizens, generally, express willingness to give aid to the enterprise. A gentleman who has had long experience boring in the Pennsylvania oil regions says the cost of the necessary machinery would be light, as the bulk of it is already lying idle in the city; and he also thinks the undertaking would prove successful.

A SQUAW FIGHT.—Two squaws yesterday had a rough-and-tumble fight on the flat north of the Court house, which resulted in one being more fashionably attired than she was before the combat—having been stripped of nearly all her clothing. They both looked as if they had been crawling through a briar-patch when hostilities ceased. Their lords appeared and led them off in opposite directions.

APPLES ARRIVED.—Two wagon loads of apples arrived yesterday afternoon, and sold readily at three cents a pound.

Full Particulars of the Recent Homicide in Muddy Valley.

ST. THOMAS, March 15.

EDITOR RECORD: I regret to inform you that notwithstanding the population of the Muddy is quite small and scattering, the worst passions of our nature have found an illustration in an unfortunate and fatal affray which occurred near the settlement of West Point, in this valley, on the forenoon of the 11th inst. The circumstances of the affair, as detailed by the witnesses thereof, are as follow:

A Mr. Moon and his family, consisting of his wife, son and daughter, recently came hither from Nye county, and located a ranch somewhere near the old town of West Point. The elder Moon is a gentleman about 55 years of age; the son 28 or 30. It seems that in laying out their boundaries they encroached, to some extent, on a piece of land claimed by two brothers named Pheasant, recently from San Bernardino county, California. The parties finally agreed to leave the matter to referees, who appointed to meet at Mr. Rector's, near West Point, on Tuesday last. Accordingly, on that morning quite a number of settlers gathered at the appointed place. There does not seem to have been any method adopted to organize the meeting. Mr. Moon and the deceased got into a dispute about the position of a stake or boundary mark. The deceased asked Robert Moon if he had not pointed out a certain stake as his boundary. Moon replied he had not. Deceased said he had, which assertion Moon again contradicted; whereupon the deceased called Moon a liar, and jumped to his feet (he had been sitting down prior to this). Quick as a flash both struck at each other. Some bystanders jumped between them, and at the same moment Moon stepped back a little and to the right, drawing his revolver, and crying out, "keep back!" "stand off!" The parties who were between the deceased and Moon got out of the way, and Moon fired four shots in rapid succession. The deceased was not over four feet from the muzzle of the pistol, and was shot through and through. At the fourth shot he fell dead, not the quivering of a muscle being visible. The deceased, Harrison Pheasant, was a native of Pennsylvania. The perpetrator is named Robert Q. Moon, a native of North Carolina, and is about 28 years old.

An inquest was held by Justice Logan and a verdict rendered in accordance with the foregoing facts. Subsequently Moon was arrested, had an examination, and was held to await the action of the Grand Jury, on a charge of murder.

J. R. M.

THEATER.—To-night, by special request of many old-timers, Mr Frank Hussey will appear in a minstrel entertainment. A splendid first part is arranged, and Mr. Hussey will appear in some of the specialities which have gained for him a very high reputation in Europe, Australia and America. Miss Blanche Clifton will sing the "Songs of All Nation." "The Merton Sisters," "Box and Cox" will also be performed by the company, and, altogether, a most varied and attractive bill is offered. Lorraine will appear in his Dutch specialties, so that to-night we have drama, minstrelsy, comedy and farce, and no person visiting the theater will have cause to go away dissatisfied. To-morrow night Mr. Hussey takes a benefit, and we bespeak for him a crowded house.

RECKLESS SHOOTING.—Night before last officers McKee and Boyd arrested a man calling himself Walter McGuire, from Dry Valley, who had been flourishing a revolver in a threatening manner in the Union saloon, lower Main street, during which bellicose performances the weapon was discharged, the ball passing through the foot of one of the by-standers. It is claimed by some that the shooting was not accidental, but the man injured is not the one shot at. McGuire is now in jail, and will to-morrow have an examination before Justice Stoutenburgh.

A NUISANCE.—An old gray-haired woman was yesterday walking the streets, in a state of semi-intoxication, importuning passers-by for "the loan of two bits." Of course, to get rid of her, gentlemen thus stopped usually gave her a piece of coin. It is said she is a confirmed inebriate. She ought to be arrested for vagrancy, or provided for in some way. Society and herself would thereby be benefitted.

ACTING SHERIFF HEREFORD tells us that all officers are sworn in this State who take charge of jurors for that special service. The rule is different in other places—it being held that the oath of office on being invested with it covers the necessity, with Deputies as well as Principals.

THE Deseret Telegraph Company keep an instrument in the District Clerk's office, and proceedings in the Raymond-Hermes suit are transmitted to the San Francisco press as they transpire. The Western Union will have an instrument in place in the same room to-day.

FOUND.—A promissory note was found day before yesterday by J. D. Randolph, of Meadow Valley street, executed by Jesus Weola in favor of Peter Hayes, for $75. The owner can have it by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

BRUTAL AMUSEMENT.—A fine looking dog ran up lower Main and Meadow Valley streets, yesterday about noon, trying to get out of reach of a tin-can which was securely tied to his tail, five hundred loafer voices uniting to increase the poor animal's fright.

REAPPOINTED.—Horace D. Beene has been reappointed Notary Public by Governor Bradley. Mr. Beene is a young man of fine business capacity, prompt, correct and reliable. He will be found in the law office of Messrs. Bishop & Sabin.

THE COMING FIREMEN'S BALL.—The ball of the Pioche Hose Company, to be given on the 7th of next month, at Armory Hall, promises to be a brilliant affair. The magnificent new banner will be presented on the occasion.

WORK has been temporarily suspended in the Amador tunnel.

District Court Proceedings..

PIOCHE, March 26.

Raymond & Ely Mining Co. vs. Hermes Mining Co.—Joseph E. Patten was recalled for plaintiffs.

W. H. Raymond, A. Barber, C. W. Lightner, J. P. Kelley and H. I. Thornton were sworn for the plaintiffs.

Plaintiffs offer in evidence copies of notices of location of the Panaca and Mammoth ledges. Objected to by defendants' counsel, on the ground that there is not sufficient proof of originals; and further, that no sufficient foundation has been laid for the introduction of any copy or the admission of secondary evidence of the contents of any original record—which grounds are more particularly specified in the testimony.

After argument of counsel, the Court ordered that F. P. Bailey, Mrs. —— Patten and Miss Mary Henderson should be summoned to testify respecting the Meadow Valley Mining Records.

By consent of counsel it is ordered that all orders heretofore made in reference to having the testimony taken down by the Clerk or by the short hand reporter be and the same are hereby revoked.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock a. m. to-morrow.

CAPT. MALLETT will be the proprietor of the new butcher shop to be opened on Main street, opposite Lacour. Mr. Withington, the stock-raiser, is not connected with him, as erroneously stated by us in our last.

A MEADOW Valley bar-tender fell in a fit on Main street, near the corner of Meadow Valley, about six o'clock last evening. He was immediately taken charge of by his friends, and is, we understand, doing well.

DANGEROUS.—The Chinese had a large fire burning yesterday afternoon in their quarters, there being quite a wind blowing at the time. A necessary but dangerous purification.

FROM STAR.—Reports from Star District continue encouraging. Lots are rising in value in the town of Shenandoah, and a great deal of building is in progress.

RECORDER HENDERSON started for Hiko yesterday, on business connected with his mining interests there. He will be absent three or four days.

"CAPTAIN ANDY," the Shoshone who was arrested the other day by officer McKee, was yesterday released, there being no complaint entered against him.

THERE was a fight on Lacour street, near Main, yesterday afternoon, which gathered quite a crowd, but no great damage was done on either side.

LENGTHY speeches were made in Court yesterday by Judges Lake, Garber, Hardy and Mesick. They were upon the admission of documentary evidence.

A CHINAMAN or Chinawoman died yesterday evening, we could not learn which, and will be buried this afternoon.

MR. HUSSEY is preparing to give his old friends and new ones a rich treat at his benefit to-morrow night.

YESTERDAY, as the day previous, the Court-room was crowded with spectators and listeners.

TO ARRIVE.—Sophie Glennon and C. McFarland are due on to-day's stage.

LATE news from Wallapai is not very encouraging.

JUDGE HALL has returned from Bristol District.
