DAILY RECORD

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1873.

LOCAL ITEMS.

DEATH OF H. A. BRUNNER.—H. A. Brunner, a well-known citizen, and agent of Marx's freight line, died yesterday evening at 9½ o'clock. He was afflicted with inflamation of the bowels, and had been ill for about ten days. He was a native of Bavaria, forty-five years of age, and had lived in Pioche about thirteen months. A brother of the deceased resides in San Francisco, and another in New York. His death will be regretted by many in this place, and especially by business men among whom were most of his acquaintances. The news will be sudden and unexpected to many, though some among his friends were aware of his dangerous illness, and carefully attended to him until he died. The funeral will take place at 3 o'clock to-day from McCannon street, in rear of Cronan's store.

A THOUGHTFUL NEPHEW'S MISHAP.—A gentleman of undoubted veracity gives us the following: On the morning of the day before yesterday, a thoughtful nephew, knowing that his uncle was coming in on the Hamilton stage, procured a buggy and a team of dashing steeds, with a view of going out to meet the coming relative and make easier the last few miles of the journey. Wishing to show his adroitness in holding the lines, he drove furiously up a back street in the direction of the uncle's house. As he turned a corner, the vehicle ran violently against a small outhouse. The frightened horses could not be brought to a stop, and they dashed on up the street, with the outhouse, which could not be disengaged. The driver was perfectly powerless, and when the family, before whom he had wished to make such a gorgeous display, came out, they saw him, with a man who had just come along, trying to disengage the unwished for burden from the buggy, and looking as disconsolate as ever youth looked, and he didn't make the impression he had intended. Moral: "Go slow."

A SPLENDID TURNOUT.—Yesterday Sheriff Travis, John E. Tyler and James Clancy obtained a six-horse team and carriage and drove out on the Hamilton road to meet Thomas S. Coleman, who was expected to arrive by yesterday's stage. Travis held the reins, and, as on all previous occasions, proved himself master of the situation. The horses were of the number brought here by Mr. Travis, and made a fine appearance. The party went out as far as the Eight-mile House, where they met Mr. Coleman. The party expressed themselves as highly pleased with their drive.

"A LA CALIFORNIA."—In our advertising columns will be seen a call for agents to sell the book entitled "A la California, or Sketches of Life in the Golden State." The book is to be an octavo. Its publishers promise that it shall be gotten up in magnificent style, as far as their province extends; and with regard to the contents of the work, the title would suggest that they are worthy the perusal, not only of every old Californian, but of all who are interested in picures of life on the frontier.

RARE BARGAINS THIS DAY.—Parlor sets, chamber cottage sets, marble top tables, tapestry brussels, and body brussels, chandeliers, draperies, lace curtains, stores and household furnishing goods to be sold this day at public auction for cash, on Pioche street, between 12 and 1 o'clock p. m. Goods are to be taken away immediately after sale. This is no humbug. Sale positive. o17-2t

PROF. O. S. FOWLER, of phrenological fame, will visit Pioche next month. Notice of his contemplated visit will be found among new advertisements to-day, and the date of his coming will be announced through our columns. No one who listens attentively to one of Pro. Fowler's lectures can hardly fail to be both amused and instructed.

ACCIDENT TO A MINER.—A miner, whose name is unknown to us, while working in the Meadow Valley No. 3, fell a distance of 60 feet down a ladder way, to the 630-foot level. Dr. Deal was called and two of the ribs of the unfortunate man were found to be broken. He will probably recover.

M. H. LICHTENSTEIN arrived from San Francisco on Wednesday evening. He brought with him part of a new stock of goods, including clothing, varieties and fancy articles. The remainder of the stock will arrive in daily installments.

THE WEATHER.—Yesterday was another cold day. It was not, however, nearly so disagreeable as the two previous ones—thanks to the absence of piercing winds—and the streets had a more lively appearance.

MARE KILLED.—Bertha, a small trotting mare, one of the team belonging to George C. Johnson's livery stable, was killed by fast driving yesterday. She was highly prized by her owner, and was valued at $400.

JOHN ANDERSON.—This gentleman, not "My Joe John" appeared yesterday morning, in Justice Van Hagen's court, charged with assault and battery. He demanded justice and received $16 worth of that article.

RAYHOND & ELY VS. KENTUCKY.—This case, about which there had been considerable talk in mining circles, is set for trial in the District Court this morning. A great deal of interest is manifested with regard to the probable result.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.—On Wednesday, C. H. Peaslee, who shot and killed Antonio Cardinos last Sunday week, was yesterday admitted to bail in the sum of $2,500. John Craig and John Wilson were the sureties.

ASSESSMENT.—As will be seen in another column, an assessment of $1 per share has been levied on the stock of the Washington & Creole mine.

K. J. HANLEY'S TRIAL.—Yesterday evening in the District Court, the case of K. J. Hanley was given to the jury. The jury was locked up at 5 o'clock.

DISTRICT COURT.—The Court will meet this morning at 10 o'clock. All term-jurors are required to be present.

JUDGE BERRY and wife left Pioche yesterday morning for California. The Judge will be absent about three weeks.

NO PASSENGERS.—No passengers left Hamilton yesterday, says the telegraph, for Pioche.

For a first-rate dinner, the Parlor Restaurant is the place.

A NEW circulating library, imported cigars, tobacco, stationery and confectionery at J. Levin & Co.'s, opposite Hamilton's saloon, Main street.

For an elegant breakfast, go to the Parlor Restaurant.

NEVADA STATE ITEMS.

VIRGINIA.

The Chronicle of Monday affords us the following items:

There are residing in this city several persons who are heirs, in part, to 196¾ acres of land in the heart of New York City, which land is valued at something over two hundred millions of dollars. One lady residing here will undoubtedly come in for more than five millions. The property is the celebrated "Mahattan Island farm," leased to Trinity Church by Aneke Jans for ninety years, which lease has expired and the church has signified its willingness to transfer the property to the heirs of Aneke Jans as soon as it can be settled who those heirs are. The Bogardus family of Michigan are one branch of the house of Jans, and they have been fighting the Brower family to prevent the latter coming in for a portion of the property. The lady to whom we allude as residing in this city has had in her possession for nearly three-quarters of a century a true copy of the last will of her deceased relative, Aneke Jans, and the document is an exact copy of the original will recently published for the first time. She has children and grandchildren residing here, and one daughter (formerly a resident of this city) living in San Francisco. Each of these will perhaps come in for a million or more. The old lady, though upward of eighty years of age, retains all her faculties unimpaired, and can tell every branch of the family, to whom each was married, and under what name the offspring of each was known, for the last seventy-five years. She has always felt confident that she would some day get her rights, and it now seems probable that she will do so at an early day, as the litigation in which the property has been involved since Aaron Burr fought the duel with Alexander Hamilton is about drawing to a close.

A sharper of unknown name, about forty years of age, five feet six or seven inches in hight, stout build, sandy whiskers, recently trimmed or just turned out, sandy mustache with white tip curved over the month, round, low-crowned hat with narrow brim, brown coat with rounded skirts, and general shabby appearance, did a land-office business in this city Saturday evening and last night by getting advances on bogus checks drawn on Wells, Fargo & Co. and the Bank of California in favor of James M. Cormick and signed S. P. (or T.) Jones, which he represented to be the signature of Samuel Jones, Superintendent of the Crown Point mine. After victimizing a number of people and dishonestly obtaining several hundred dollars, the check man returned voluntarily, redeemed all the checks, and says he won them in a poker game in Silver City from a stranger from Gold Hill, and did not know that they were bogus.

The main header of the Sutro Tunnel is now in a distance of 4,481 feet, 34 feet having been added thereto during the past week. The rock works favorably and there is no water coming in at present. In the east drift from shaft No. 1 an advance of 35 feet was made during the past week, and in the west drift 20 feet, making the total length of tunnel excavated at this point 523 feet. This added to the main header, gives the entire distance drifted as 5,004 feet. But 149 feet of rock separates the east branch from Shaft No. 1 and the main header. It is expected the connection will be made in about three weeks. Shaft No. 4 was sunk nine feet during the week making its total depth 519 feet. The miners have commmenced sinking at No. 2.

Len Wentworth has made a race between his horse Kent and the California horse Jordan, two best in three, half a mile, for $500 a side, to come off over the Carson Course on the 15th of November. He has also made a similar race between Kent and the celebrated Norfolk colt Bois d'Arc, for the same amount, to be run at Carson November 19. A similar race has also been made between Jordan and Bois d'Arc, to come off on the same course on the 22d of November.

James W. Orndorff, than whom there is no more liberal or enterprising turfman in the State, has leased the Virginia Race Course for two years, and is now actively engaged in raising money for liberal purses for three days racing. Under the new lessee turfmen will have an abundance of sport at the Virginia track.

The largest casting ever brought to this State in one piece arrived this morning. It is a spur-wheel, cast at the Risdon Iron Works for the Consolidated Virginia hoisting works, and weighs 24,750 lbs.

GOLD HILL.

All the mills in Gold Canyon are kept busily occupied in crushing the rock extracted from the Crown Point, Belcher, Consolidated Virginia, Hale & Norcross, and other mines in this vicinity. A grand procession of quartz teams can be seen at every hour in the day, hurrying to the mills with immense loads of fine looking ore.

Antoine Silva, who had his feet cut off in consequence of being run over by the cars, is getting along finely, and in all probability will recover.

THE Methodist Church (South) don't relish political parsons. At the recent conference at Colusa, Cal., the following passed, after an animated discussion:

Whereas, Brother Wood, pastor of the Methodist Church South in Chico, has become involved in politics by accepting the nomination for Superintendent of Common Schools, a violation, as we conceive, of the genius and spirit of Methodistism; therefore,

Resolved, After hearing Brother Wood's statement, that he be granted a location at his own request, and that we follow him with our prayers for his future prosperity and happiness.

GOLD HILL NEWS.—On the 12th inst. the Gold Hill news entered upon its 21st volume, having been first issued October 12, 1863. It has a healthy look, and we hope it may long continue in the field as a live, active, wide-awake paper.

MRS. JANE G. SWISSHELM, who for many years has been a member of the editorial fraternity of Pennsylvania, has sent a letter to the New York Tribune, in which she denies the truth of a statement, alleged to be made on the authority of Gov. Hartranft, to the effect that Mrs. Surratt was not manacled during her imprisonment. Mrs. Swisshelm states that she attended the trial of Mrs. Surratt, and was one day seated so near that she could have touched her dress or shaken hands with her. The prisoner wore "a heavy black dress, falling on the floor around her feet," and though through the length of the dress Mrs Swisshelm could see no chains, yet she heard their sharp clank every time the prisoner moved her feet.

Walker House.

HAVING THIS DAY PURCHASED THE Walker House, we are now in possession of the two best hotels in Salt Lake City. Of the Walker House we deem it unnecessary to say anything in its behalf, its splendid design and elegant equipment being so well known to the public.

The CLIFT HOUSE, though not so well known as the Walker House—having been open but a few weeks—is first-class in all its appointments, the building being new and the furniture of the most fashionable and elegant style. The location of this house is central and commands a splendid view of the lake and ever snow-clad mountains and surrounding scenery. Its local reputation is superior to that of any other house in the city.

With the above facilities at our command we feel assured in guaranteeing satisfaction to all.

Summons.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Lincoln.

J. N. Williams, plaintiff, vs. Thomas F. Hanly, Kennedy J. Hanley, James Shea, R. McKee, A. Bocqueraz, G. W. Chesley, J. S. Jones and F. A. Buck, defendants.

Action brought in the District Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Lincoln, and the complaint filed in said county of Lincoln, in the office of the Clerk of said District Court.

The State of Nevada sends greeting to Thomas F. Hanly, Kennedy J. Hanley, James Shea, R. McKee, A. Bocqueraz, G. W. Chesley, J. S. Jones and F. A. Buck, defendants.

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the District Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Lincoln, and answer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this summons, if served in said county; or if served out of said county, but within said District, within twenty days; and in all other cases, forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to recover judgment against you, said defendants, Thomas F. Hanly and Kennedy J. Hanley, for the sum of $3,000, gold coin, with interest thereon at the rate of 5 per cent. per month, from the 15th day of August, 1873, due on a certain promissory note, made in writing, signed, executed and delivered by you, said defendants, to said plaintiff, on the 3d day of February, 1873, also for $135.00, gold coin, with interest thereon from September 5th, 1873, at the rate of 3 per cent. per month, amount paid for insurance, and for 10 per cent. on the amount of said judgment, attorney's fees for foreclosing the mortgage; and to secure the payment of said note, insurance and attorney's fees, you, said defendants, executed and delivered a certain mortgage, bearing even date with said note, upon the following described property: That certain town lot in the town of Pioche, Lincoln County, Nevada, and more fully described in plaintiff's complaint on file herein, and to which you are referred, and for a decree of this Court for the sale of said mortgaged premises in one parcel, and that the proceeds of said sale, after paying expenses, &c., of sale, costs and attorney's fees, be applied in payment of the amount due plaintiff, and the surplus, if any, brought into Court to abide its order; and further, that you, said Thomas F. Hanly, and all persons claiming under, by, or through you, subsequent to the execution of said mortgage, be barred and foreclosed of all equity of redemption in and to said premises; and further, that said plaintiff have judgment and execution against you, said defendants, Thomas F. Hanly and K. J. Hanley, for any deficiency which may remain unpaid after applying all the proceeds of sale applicable, and for costs and such other and further relief as to the Court may seem meet and proper.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint, as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief herein demanded, and for costs of suit, in gold coin.

(Seal) Given under my hand and the Seal of the District Court of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Lincoln, this 18th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.
