LOCAL AFFAIRS.

See the dissolution notice in this issue.

Cow boys, go to Joe S. Clark's for cartridges, saddle oil, hat bands, etc.

Old papers for sale at this office at 50 cents per hundred.

Buy your stoves, hardware, tin ware and casting of Gray & Taliaferro, north side public square. f3 tf

Pay your taxes—the time is nearly expired for you to do so.

All knit goods, consisting of shawls, sacques, hoods, etc., at cost, at T. W. WARD & Co's. 16

We are especially under obligations to many of our friends for favors this week.

Joe S. Clark will sell you carriage harness as cheap as they can be bought in Austin—keeps all styles on hand.

Things live too much in the past, the young too much in the future; none of us enough in the present.

New goods are being constantly received at M. I. Bostick's, which will be sold at "live and let live" prices. Satisfaction guaranteed to all.

Our tax assessor, Mr. John Riley, tells us that prosperity shows itself in everything except, "our put in," assessing taxes.

Ladies, don't forget that Joe S. Clark has just received a fine lot of side saddles of all kinds. 24

"Attend to your business in the hours of business; then go about your business, that somebody else may attend to their business."

Freighters will do well to call at Cameron & Co.'s yard for dry lumber for all points west. 13-3m.

We learn that Judge Jno. I. Guion is very sick from the effects of a severe cold. The Judge is at his home (Paint Rock), but we hope soon to see him in our city again.

Gardening seems to be the order of the day in our city, and our seed dealers have up large placards at their windows. All seed are the best—don't make any difference by whom they were raised.

If you need any thing in the way of a horse collar, don't forget to examine Joe S. Clark's immense stock. Prices to suit any one. 24

We hear that the young ladies have decided to have parties of their own. The boys say they will call these parties "ben-parties," and propose to congregate near by and crow for them to go home.

Letter heads, bill heads, cards, monthly statements, lawyer briefs, and all kinds of job work done at the News office. Prices low, and satisfaction guaranteed. All we ask is a trial, satisfied that we can please any reasonable man.

From a dry goods clerk of our city we learn that one day this week he weighed on his scales six young ladies, who live in this place, who each tipped the beam at 126 pounds. Now, this speaks that either San Saba is extremely healthy, or that she invites immigration of the sterner sex.

Now is the time to buy saddles, harness, leggins, &c., cheap. Joe S. Clark has just received a mammoth stock of everything in his line—has the largest stock this side of Austin. Call and see for yourself. 24

We have had several days of spring-like weather this week.

Judge W. M. Allison will in the future be found in the south-east room up stairs of the court house.

Our city, this week, has shown an unusual air of prosperity. Considerable property changed hands.

No peach trees was seen in bloom in February this year, but we will see more peaches this summer on that account.

"The ways of men are dark and mysterious," but we hear of one that secured a license yesterday to marry a fair damsel.

The regulation of road matters was as troublesome to our commissioners as it is to our legislators. A thankless job all through.

Freighters.

Will do well to call at Cameron & Co's, Lampasas for lumber to all points west. 329 tf

We learn that the Western Hotel has been badly crowded this week—so much so that the landlord took a bed with two gentlemen from Brady.

Messrs. Ballard & East, northwest corner of the square have lengthened their store room to hold their immense stock that they are now receiving.

Hall for Rent.

Mr. J. D. Estep offers his hall for rent. Call on E. Estep at store, east side public square.

Several of our merchants are absent from the city. They have gone to select their spring stock—some to New York and some to Galveston.

"In the last day there will be a reckoning." Maybe so, it will only be a renewal. Reckonings have been quite common in these parts of late.

Notice

To those wanting Buckeye Reapers, Miller's New Model Threshers, and extras for same, binding material, etc., will let us know soon. By so doing we can furnish them at car load rates.
Low & Low,
feb 17 San Saba, Texas.

We are almost afraid to say how fine the weather is, for fear it might change yet before we go to press. The last few days have been spring like indeed.

On account of the length of the annual report of the condition of San Saba county financially, considerable amount of local matter has been excluded from our columns.

John Deere Plows

Are superior to all others on account of height and length of beam, and finish of the plow itself. Call at Low & Low, San Saba, for anything in the plow line.

Already we hear of planters speaking of planting corn. We think it would be well to plant only part of the crop at the present time, and, say, two weeks hence make another planting.

We are sorry to learn of the death of the mother of our townsman, Mr. W. A. Wilson, who died in New Orleans yesterday morning, of paralysis of the brain. Mr. Wilson has the sympathy of his many friends in this community.

We took a look this week at the stock that Mr. Joe S. Clark is receiving, and we must say that it is equal to stocks carried in large cities. He has been a liberal advertiser with us, and we are truly glad to know that he has been benefitted thereby. Call to see his stock.

Notice.

All persons indebted to Sam Estep, deceased, either by note or account, are notified to come in settle up at once. Those failing to do so, their notes and accounts will be put out for collection, as I am compelled to wind up the business at once.
feb 10 JENNIE ESTEP.

From a private letter we learn that Mr. Tom Henry, late of this county, but now of Kyle, Texas, and who, some three months ago, received severe injuries from gin saws, is slowly improving. This will be welcome news to his many friends in the Cherokee neighborhood.

Our county surveyor, we understand, has more work than he possibly can put in shape in daylight, and took advantage of one of our beautiful moonlight nights recently and made an accurate survey in the south-west part of our city for a gentleman who was in a hurry to purchase and make his departure. We wonder who the change carriers were.

Wanted

A first-class blacksmith. Must be sober. WALKER & HAMILTON.

We learn that Mrs. Thomas, wife of our fellow-townsman, Judge J. W. Thomas, received a telegram yesterday morning announcing the serious illness of her father, who lives at Tallulah Hill, Ga. It also requested Mrs. Thomas to come at once. She is also sick herself, and we extend sympathy to her in this her double affliction, and hope that soon she may learn of her father's entire recovery.

Supper! Supper!

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church of this city propose to give a supper, in the interest of their church, at Ward's old store, on Friday night, March 9, beginning at 7 o'clock p. m. Charge, 50 cents each. The public are earnestly invited to attend. MRS. ALICE BROWN, Sec.

T. P. REEVES, with Wm. Cameron & co., east side square, Lampasas, Tex.
