Call Campaign

death of Hon. B. Galveston, the New Delta pays a tribute to memory of the deceased, and says Judge Franklin was well known in New Orleans, where he had numerous friends.

The New York hide market continues moderately active, and the prices are firm. There are 76,650 hides in stock, against 66,300 this time last year. Dry Texas 23@24c.; wet salted, pulled, 13½c.; cows, 13c; kip 15c.; packers', 12½c.; knife, 11½@12½c.

Business has been somewhat depressed at Calvert, during the past week, but is rapidly picking up. There were 3614 bales of cotton shipped from this station in the month of December. The Central road was cleared of the wreck at half past four this evening, and trains all go straight again.

Last night, Dec. 30th, H. S. Rock, Deputy Inspector of Hides and Animals, at Brownsville, accompanied by J. O'Shaughnessy and Fernando Glavecke, captured two thieves, well armed, and twenty-one head of cattle. The intention was to cross the animals at Romirero, near the upper edge of Brownsville. The thieves are in jail.

On the night of the 31st an extra train bound south ran off the track one mile below Welborn Station, throwing eight cars off the track. One brakesman of this place was killed and badly mutilated. The wreck will probably not be clear before evening. The down passenger trains from this morning and this evening are both detained.

Col. Flournoy, of Galveston, made an eloquent speech in the Rodriguez case on the 31st. Judge Sabin and Jack Hamilton also made speeches. There has been no decision as yet in the case.

Maj. J. W. Nichols, of Ohio, now on his way to Fort Worth, Texas, accompanied by his family, passed through Galveston, yesterday.

That Odd Fellow, Street, is again in Galveston.

Rodriguez, the Mexican before spoken of, is boarding at the Raymond House. How is it that a prisoner is thus feasted? It is not common that men charged with crime are feasted at the finest hotels. Wonder who pays his bills? Don't suppose the State does!

From the Clarksville Times we regret to learn of the death of ex-Governor A. R. Runnells, of Bowie county. He died of paralysis, at his residence, on the 28th of December.

Ed Brown and Cy. Taylor, negroes were arrested and bound over in $100 yesterday for swindling somebody else at three card monte.—Houston Age.

We are pleased to notice that the initatory steps have been taken by our merchants to organize a Board of Trade in Dallas.—Dallas Herald.

We understand that ere long, a convent, for the education of girls, will be established in Dallas on a large scale.—Ibid.

Within three or four years every plow, wagon, cart, etc., used in this country, ought to be made at home. They can be, if our people act in concert and liberally encourage such enterprises.—Ibid.

Just so, Mr. Herald, and so ought our toothpicks. The material is plenty.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—The Commissioners appointed to remove the Kickapoos from Texas to the Indian Territory, owing to the interruption of communication incidental to the McKenzie raid, were unable to draw upon their appropriations for the expense of the removal before the end of the fiscal year. The Commission, consequently, were compelled to give their personal obligations for a considerable portion of the cost of removal.

A bill will be introduced in Congress to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to pay these Commissioners from the unexpended balance of their appropriation for the personal obligations which they incurred, and also to use the remainder of the unexpended balance for the support of the Kickapoos in the Indian Territory.

A rumor was current in Boston, on the 31st, that the United States steamer Franklin had been lost. It is alluded to by the morning papers, but it can not be traced to a foundation.

They are making Omaha a remarkably warm locality for the gentlemen of the green cloth, just at present.
