Yesterday's Fire.

Owing to the early hour in which the EXAMINER goes to press, on account of its outside circulation, the amount of loss by yesterday's fire could not be computed. J. V. Smith, loss on two buildings, $3,000; insured in Northern assurance, of London, $800, and Hartford Fire insurance company, $800, Fort and Morrow agency.

Dr Wm. Lencker, loss on library, instruments, household furniture, etc. $4,000; insured in the Niagara, $1,000, Jno. T. Walton's agency; Trans-Atlantic $2,200 and National $600, Rodgers & Sturgis agency.

S. Heineman, insured in the New Orleans association for $1,000, Rodgers & Sturgis agency.

Dr. Lencker was not away from home as some of the papers have stated, but was sleeping in the house at the time. He and his son Willie, narrowly escaped with their lives. Dr. Lencker thinks the fire originated from the explosion of a lamp which burned all night in the room where the fire appeared to have started.

Picnic of the W. C. C.

Yesterday fifteen members of the Worshipful Company of Cooks and their chaperons spent a most delightful day on the Bosque. That there were no men cooks present did not prevent the cooks from having a jolly time. They adjourned to the woods to be free from the twaddle of the cuff and collar brigade. The Worshipful Company of Cooks is one of the institutions of Waco, and no other similar organization in the state can show so many charming and beautiful young ladies. The young men of Waco have been, during the past year, indebted to the cooking club for many a delightful evening's entertainment.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 850,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and in one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist to try it. Sample bottles to try, sold at ten cents. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all druggists and dealers in the United States and Canada.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA.

THE LIVER

Secretes the bile and acts like a filter to cleanse impurities of the blood. By its regularity in its action or suspensions of its functions, the bile poisons the blood, causing jaundice, sallow complexion, weak eyes, bilious diarrhœa, a languid, weary feeling, and many other distressing symptoms generally termed liver troubles. These are relieved at once by the use of BULL'S SARSAPARILLA the great blood resolvent.

DR. JOHN BULL.—I have been for a number of years severely afflicted with a mercurial headache and a dull, heavy pain in my liver. Three bottles of BULL'S SARSAPARILLA gave me more relief than all the others combined.

T. H. OWENS, Louisville, Ky.

DR. JOHN BULL.—I have examined the prescription for the preparation of DR. JOHN BULL'S SARSAPARILLA, and believe the combination is the an excellent one, and well calculated to produce an alterative impression on the system. I have used it both in public and private practice, and think it the best article of Sarsaparilla in use.

M. PYLES, M. D., Louisville, Ky.
Late Phys. St. Louis Marine Hosp.

DYSPEPSIA

Variable appetite, faint, gnawing feeling at pit of the stomach, heartburn, wind in the stomach, bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, low spirits, general prostration. There is no form of disease more prevalent than Dyspepsia, and it can in all cases be traced to an enfeebled or poisoned condition of the blood. BULL'S SARSAPARILLA by cleansing and purifying the blood, tones up the digestive organs, and relief is obtained at once.

DR. JOHN BULL.—I have no hesitation in saying that I believe your SARSAPARILLA to be the best medicine now manufactured for the cure of Scrofula, Syphilis, and many other cutaneous and glandular affections, having used it with entire success in numerous of the above cases.

JAMES MOORE, Louisville, Ky.

DR. JOHN BULL.—I procured one bottle of BULL'S SARSAPARILLA for my father-in-law. Among the remedies and various prescriptions that he has taken for weak kidneys and rheumatism, this one bottle has been of more benefit to him than all. It has cured him of Dyspepsia as well.

JULIUS S. MOORE, Rosevilla, Ky.

THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE.

KIDNEYS

Are the great secretory organs of the body. Into and through the Kidneys flow the waste fluids containing poisonous matter taken from the system. If the Kidneys do not act properly this matter is retained and poisons the blood, causing headache, weakness, pain in the small of back and loins, flushes of heat, chills, with disordered stomach and bowels. BULL'S SARSAPARILLA acts as a diuretic on the Kidneys and bowels, and directly on the blood as well, causing the great organs of the body to resume their natural functions, and health is at once restored.

DR. JOHN BULL.—I have used BULL'S SARSAPARILLA for rheumatism and kidney trouble, and say it has been of great benefit to me.

YOUR, ETC.

THOS. H. BENTLEY, Rosville, Ill.

SCROFULA

Is a peculiar morbid condition of the system, caused directly by impurities in the blood or by the lack of sufficient nourishment furnished to the system through the blood, usually affecting the glands, often resulting in swellings, enlarged joints, abscesses, sore eyes, blotchy eruptions on the face or neck. Erysipelas is akin to it and is often mistaken for Scrofula as it comes from the same cause, impure blood. BULL'S SARSAPARILLA by purifying the blood and toning up the system forces the impurities from the blood and cleanses the system through the regular channels.

DR. JOHN BULL.—It is my opinion that your preparation of SARSAPARILLA is decidedly superior to any other article of the kind, and I will take great pleasure in recommending it for the cure of Scrofula and its kindred diseases.

An Unsuccessful Corner in Prunes.

From the New York Sun.

A syndicate of speculators in Turkish prunes thought to get up a corner in January last, and they issued a circular to the fruit traders, which, in the light of the present price of Turkish prunes, is interesting reading. The speculators are said by the trade to be members of the firms of Winthrop, Cunningham & Sons, wholesale drug dealers in Philadelphia; Robert Shoemaker, wholesale dealer in drugs in Philadelphia, and A. H. Reitlinger & Co., leather dealers, 40 Spruce street, New York. The speculators managed their business through brokers. Their circular announced that the crop of Turkish prunes in 1886 was less than half of an average crop; that the supply for the United States and Canada would be this year 22,000 casks to meet an average annual consumption of 37,000 or 38,000 casks; that the gentlemen who had interested themselves in this country in Turkish prunes would announce that the price of Turkish prunes would be advanced from month to month 1-16c. on a pound, while only a limited number of casks would be sold. When the price should reach 10c. a pound, the circular added, further "dating" from month to month would not be necessary, as the consumers would have to go without prunes or pay fancy prices.

Mr. Cunningham, it is said, raked in a neat pot of money on Turkish prunes several years ago. The syndicate had bought up all the Turkish prunes in the market, and they contracted to take what was afloat from foreign ports. For a month the Turkish prune trade was lively. From three and a half the trade went up to six and five-eighths cents a pound, at which price the speculators bought largely. They were able to make up one sixteenth of a cent at six cents a pound in February, but when they attempted to make the price six and a half cents in March, the market weakened. No one wanted to see the speculators' stock for several reasons. The syndicate thought they were well informed when they learned from Tribate and other foreign ports that the dealers had no more Turkish prunes, but when the when the price went up in New York the prune farmers began to roll out casks, and they sent to America nearly 12,000 casks to break the market. Furthermore, the Bohemian prune crop was excellent and abundant last year, and dealers brought Bohemian prunes and French prunes to take the place of the cornered fruit. The price of Turkish prunes has gone downward, yet the speculators have not unloaded. The price yesterday was three and one-fourth cents and three and one-half cents, while Bohemian prunes were three cents and three and one-half cents.

It is said among Turkish prune merchants that the pool has tried to unload on its friends, but has failed to do so.
