CONGRESS

The following report of Monday's proceedings has been received by the Boston Daily Bee by Magnetic Telegraph:

In the House of Representatives, the usual resolution was adopted for the speaker.

The following was announced as follows:—

Whole number of votes, 228
Necessary for a choice, 114
Robert C. Winthrop, of Mass. had 102
[illegible] 64
Robert M. C. Mitchell, 23
James McCrackan, 11
Andrew [illegible] 17

A message was then received by the Senate.

On the third ballot Hon. R. Char. C. Winthrop of Massachusetts was elected by one majority. The whole number of votes cast was 218.

Mr. Winthrop was conducted to the Speaker's Chair by Mr. Vinton of Ohio and Mr. Taylor of New York, and was sworn in by Mr. Adams of Massachusetts.

After the usual formalities in notifying Mr. Winthrop of his election, Mr. Richard Parsons was nominated McLane for the chaplain to the House of the Clerk of the House of Representatives, when the House adjourned by a vote of 113 to 110.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The train of cars from Philadelphia was thrown off the track near Bordentown, on Monday night, by a broken rail. Three persons were killed.

THE LAST FUNDS.—Mr. Wetherbee of Augusta, Me., who was tried and acquitted and re-tried, found guilty and sentenced to hang for stealing the funds, has written a letter, saying that he had been to New York to see a friend.—Always the August is Banner.

An association has been formed in Boston for the purpose of promoting the interests of poor young women.

It is stated that the debts of Prime, Ward & Co. of New York amount to $800,000 that their assets are little more than $100,000, and that they will probably pay about one cent on the dollar to their American creditors.

A monster shell lately was recently sent to Queen Victoria from the Navigator Islands, and was presented by her Majesty to the British Museum.

A fatal case of small pox in sheep is raging off great numbers of these animals in Great Britain.

The Rutland Young Men's Association have made arrangements for the delivery of a course of Popular Lectures in the village during the ensuing winter, upon such literary and scientific subjects as will be interesting and instructive to the public generally. A correspondence has been had with several Lecturers of distinction from different sections of the country, and the subjects and time of the different Lectures will be announced as the arrangements and the Lectures shall progress. The course will commence with three Lectures by the Rev. James B. Bode, to be delivered on the evenings of the 17th, 18th and 19th inst. The subjects of the first two will be announced on the evening of the first Lecture.

Presuming that the public generally will see and feel the benefit of the lectures, the Association have determined to reduce the price of their tickets as will enable all to attend.

Terms—Single Tickets 12 1-2 cents. Tickets for course of Lectures 25 cents, to be had of J. B. Foster, Page, Treasurer, or the Committee.

Lectures to commence at 7 o'clock.

GEO. W. STRONG, R. BARRETT, T. J. PAGE } Ex Committee.

THE subscriber [illegible] Rutland, Nov. 30, 1847.

STATE OF VERMONT, Rutland County, ss. TO the Honorable Supreme Court of Judicature, to be held at Rutland within and for the County of Rutland on the sixth Tuesday next following the fourth Tuesday in December, A. D. 1847.

The Libel of Silas Holbrook of Manchester in the County of Rutland, showeth that on Sabbath in the County of Washington and State of New York, on the [illegible] February A. D. 1840, he was lawfully married to Susan Snow by the Rev. Mr. Lawrence, a minister of the Gospel, and from that time until the month of June, 1841, he lived with her said Susan, in Manchester in the County of Bennington, in the usual observance of the duties required by the marriage covenant, when the said Susan, without any just cause, wilfully deserted this libellant, and however since continued such desertion and living in open violation of the duties required by the marriage covenant. Wherefore Libellant therefore prays this Honorable Court that the bonds of Matrimony between him and the said Susan may be dissolved, and a bill of divorce granted him. And this libellant will ever pray.

Dated at Rutland this 25th day of November, A. D. 1847. SILAS HOLBROOK.

WHEREAS a Libel has been made to this court by Silas Holbrook, a resident of this State, it is therefore ordered that the said Susan be summoned to appear before the Supreme Court to be held at Rutland in and for the County of Rutland, on the sixth Tuesday next following the fourth Tuesday in December, A. D. 1847, to answer the foregoing libel of Silas Holbrook, by publishing the substance of said libel with this order, in the Rutland Herald, a paper printed at Rutland aforesaid, three weeks successively, the last of which to be at least three weeks previous to the session of the court aforesaid.

Given under my hand at Rutland, in the County of Rutland, this 27th day of November, A. D. 1847.
