[illegible]

7 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Cambria.

[illegible]

IRELAND

[illegible]

Mr [illegible] appeared at the Corn Exchange Hall on Monday, and moved an address to the Queen of Ireland, [illegible] Lord John Russell's [illegible] Government. Certain it is that the [illegible] of the Repeal Associations have [illegible] attractions in the more exciting language and conduct of the younger [illegible] The parties who have been [illegible] and self-[illegible] [illegible] Mr W S O'Brien and his party have [illegible] for the purpose of agitation.

[illegible]

FRANCE.

[illegible]

GERMANY.

[illegible]

LOMBARDY

In Lombardy the state of War has not materially changed during the week. The [illegible] of Charles Albert, after having been [illegible] to Peschiera, [illegible] has not been taken place [illegible] on the banks of the Mincio. The King's Head quarters are at Vera, and from all the accounts [illegible] main body of the troops [illegible] on the right bank of the river.—There is evidently a great [illegible] of Carlo Alberto.

NAPLES.

[illegible]

The King was [illegible] at Naples.

Lord Minto is said has left Rome on his return back to England.

GERMANY.

From Baden we have the most [illegible] [illegible] The insurgents had [illegible] the New [illegible] to capitulate to the [illegible] [illegible] Gagern [illegible] Frankfort [illegible] Germany [illegible] Gagern [illegible] Germany [illegible] Gagern [illegible] Germany [illegible] Gagern