Let the Whigs of Rutland County remember that on Tuesday next, the Voice of Vermont is to be proclaimed from the ballot box on questions of the HIGHEST IMPORTANCE to the FREEMEN of the Green Mountain State, and of the DEEPEST INTEREST TO NORTHERN FREEMEN.

In view of the present position of party matters and the general condition of National affairs it becomes the duty—as it doubtless will be the desire—of every intelligent and honest-minded Whig among us, to lay aside for the time being the distinctions of the war parts and the exhortations of that pipe. [illegible] Let us [illegible] for the sake of our Country, our Whig principles, our State and Country.

We are aware that our enemies are again most seriously at work to carry out a [illegible] plan that practiced upon us in 1844, to induce Whigs from their allegiance to the time honored party in the ranks of which they have so long and so fully fought and conquered. Free Soil is now the watch word to entice Whigs—as Polk was then—from their principles, and from strange bedfellows and strange political connexions this is to be a [illegible] popular cry. Men and sections all around us, who have for years been merely supported to the action of the entire whig party of the North, the [illegible] and most honest [illegible] to induce Whigs to desert their [illegible] and principles and to place [illegible] Free Soil principles and for [illegible] to the Union.

How long we would ask are the intelligent and true people of Vermont to be the [illegible] to be used by these adventurers and [illegible]? When is there [illegible] that the question of the presidency presents between Taylor and Locofoco—and that [illegible] of Mr Van Buren [illegible] exactly as the [illegible] of the [illegible] of Vermont to be decided in this contest are they to be [illegible] to the Little Magic [illegible] to be [illegible] after Polk?
