Summary of News.

The mail from New Orleans came into Baltimore yesterday morning. Dates from Tampa Bay to the 16th state, that General Childs was there, and also Capt. Graham, commander of the engineering party, who are surveying the route for a ship-canal.—Gen. Blake left Tampa for Fort Myers on the 7th. Nothing had been heard from the Indians.

The inauguration of Gov. Hebbard of Louisiana took place on the 20th, at his plantation, he being too ill to leave his house.

Advices from Key West to Jan. 22, have been received. Mr. King's health is better since he left Norfolk. He will remain several days at Key West if the climate is agreeable; the ladies of his family are at the residence of Senator Mallory. Mr K. was to disembark on Sunday.

The mail train on the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad ran off the track near Brighton, on Wednesday afternoon, in consequence of the breaking of an axle. The middle car was precipitated down an embankment full fifty feet, the others passing on. Several passengers were injured, some seriously, but none were killed.

That part of the Message of the Governor of Maine which relates to the Maine Temperance Law, has been assigned to a Committee. The leanings of this Committee are entirely in favor of the law as it now stands.

Hon. John Pettit was elected U. S. Senator, 11th inst., by the Indiana Legislature, to fill the vacancy in the unexpired term of Hon. James Whitcomb. Judge Pettit was formerly a Representative in Congress, and made himself somewhat notorious by annually moving a resolution to dispense with a chaplain in the House.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs have fixed upon the first of February for the consideration of their resolutions respecting the Tehuantepec controversy between the United States and Mexico.—Unless advices from Mexico should be in the mean time received, showing that any legislative proceeding is unnecessary, the Senate will probably adopt the resolutions.

Norfolk, Jan. 19.

The United States steamer, Powhattan, will sail most positively about the first of February. An extra shaft has been provided, and further contingencies for necessity have been put on board.

The old frigate, Constitution, 33 guns, is now in dock at Gosport Navy Yard, being razed and made a corvette of.

Washington, Jan. 22.

Dr. Gardiner, of Mexico claim notoriety, has arrived in this city, and Mr Henry May, who went out as commissioner to look after the mines, has arrived in Baltimore.

The latter contradicts the report published in the Providence Journal, that the commissioner was attacked by robbers in Mexico; and he also asserts that it is untrue about their having said the Gardiner mines were not found.

The members of the commission are all under injunctions of secrecy, and the result of their labors will not be known to the public until officially promulgated.

The Union of this morning says that Dr. Gardiner's party are willing to swear to the existence of the alleged mines. They also assert that they offered to show the commissioners the mines, but the latter refused to follow their directions.

Charleston, Jan. 22.

The editors of the Savannah Courier state that they have seen a letter from Florida reporting that Bowlegs and his followers have formally declared war against the United States.

The same letter mentions a painful rumor that General Hopkins and a small force under his command had been massacred by the Indians.

Hon. W. H. Seward, of New York, closed his remarks in the United States Senate, Tuesday last, on Gen. Cass' resolutions, with the following words:

"And for what does France or Great Britain want Cuba? It is a slave colony. They have abolished slavery in all their possessions. Should either of them obtain that island, the first act of the government there must be the abolition of slavery. The abolition of slavery, too, must be made with compensation, and the compensation must be drawn from the home treasury. Will either of them take Cuba at such a cost? And what would Cuba, without slavery, be worth to either of those powers? Let their experience in the West Indies answer. Cuba without slavery would be worthless to any power but the United States; and John Quincy Adams was right. Cuba either with or without slavery gravitates and will ultimately fall into the American Union.

☞ The projectors of the Pacific Telegraph say that they are ready to pledge themselves to put a message through to San Francisco in less than 18 months from the date of the grant.

The number of sea-going vessels in the world is about eighty-five thousand, of which two thirds belong to England and the United States.

☞ Wm. B. Sasser, a clerk in the Treasury Department, has been indicted by the grand jury for the murder of a young woman, by administering strychnine. Bail was refused.

Atlantic Railroad.—The cars of the Atlantic Road crossed the Connecticut into Vermont about a week since, and are expected to run to Island Pond in the spring.

In answer to a circular issued in 1837, by Levi Woodbury, Secretary of the Treasury, requesting information in regard to the propriety of establishing a system of telegraph in the United States, Prof. Morse stated, among other things, that he presumed five words could be transmitted in a minute; and now, only sixteen years subsequent to that date, the average performance of Morse's instrument is 8000 or 9000 letters in an hour, which is about thirty times the estimated amount.

Heat of the Earth.—The internal heat of the earth increases so rapidly with the increase of depth, that granite is in a state of fusion about twenty or thirty miles below the surface.—(Humboldt.

A man in Connecticut has just invented a potatoe-digging machine, which is drawn by horses down the rows, digs the potatoes, separates them from the dirt, and lands them up into the cart, while the farmer walks along side, whistling "Hail Columbia," with his hand in his pockets.

G. M. Fish, of Whiting, killed on the 13th inst., a pig of nine months, which weighed 372 lbs., and then think he got 40 lbs., of tried lard.—(Post.

Lanzoni, a leading German actor, died recently. By his will, he leaves all his fortune, which was considerable, to the charitable institution of Frankfort. In that document, he states that he has been tormented all his life with the idea of being buried a live, and, in order to avoid any risk of such a contingency, he ordered that as soon as his death should be declared by the competent medical authority, his skin be flayed from his body, from head to foot, and that the skin so taken off should be given to the Museum of Natural History of Frankfort. In his will, M. Lanzoni named the surgeon who should perfom the operation, and left a large sum as his compensation.—The Museum was applied to, to know whether it would accept so strange a bequest; it replied affirmatively, on condition that the skin should first undergo the treatment necessary for its preservation. The Tribunal of Premiere Instance then sanctioned the will.

A Sensible View.—What effect the Ericsson vessels, if entirely successful, will have upon the coal regions has been discussed. An intelligent writer in the Philadelphia Ledger thus answers:

The undoubted effect would be this, viz: Instead of supplying a hundred steamers, as now, with say 1000 tons of coal a day, we should be called upon to furnish 5,000 marine vessels, everything that floats, in fact, with 5,000 tons a day. Besides, the land would be covered with caloric engines. The cheapened power would banish hand-toil, and horse-drudgery, and negro slave labor. The grease that keeps one negro, would propel a caloric plough of 100 negro power, and other things in proportion. It is clear that Providence has destined the steamer or caloric plough to be the emancipator of the slave, whom, for purposes not otherwise possible of attainment, the same Providence sent hither and bound to servitude insure cotton clothing for mankind.—As a general principle, colliers may rely that the greater efficient service can be required, or in other words, the cheaper a thing is made, the more it will be used, as exemplified in pins, and matches and penny papers.

The American Colonization Society celebrated its thirty-sixth anniversary, at Washington, on the 18th inst. The meeting was attended by delegates from more than forty auxiliary societies, by the President of the United States, several Heads of Departments, Judges of the Supreme Court, members of Congress, and a great concourse of ladies and gentlemen. From the annual report which was presented, it appears that the Society has sent six vessels to Liberia during the past year, carrying 600 colored persons, 263 of whom were emancipated slaves or persons whose liberty was purchased for the purpose of having them emigrate to Africa. Several gentlemen addressed the meeing.

Pacific Railroad and Branches.—Senator Gwinn's project embraces a main trunk from Miles.

San Francisco, via Fulton, in Arkansas to Memphis,	2,000
St. Louis branch from a point on the main trunk 35 miles south of Santa Fe, to St. Louis,	915
Dubuque branch from a point on St. Louis branch, where it intersects Arkansas river, to Dubuque,	610
Texas branch from source of Red River, on southern bend of main trunk, to source of Colorado river, thence to Matagorda bay, on the Gulf,	535
New Orleans route, from Fulton to N. Orleans,	405
Oregon branch, from San Francisco to Fort Nisqually, in Oregon,	650
Total length of railroad to be built,	5,125

The scheme is really magnificent, but we fear its very magnificence will be the death of it. The people ask for a Pacific railroad, and they would be satisfied if Congress would provide for its construction, and leave the branches for further consideration.

The Albany Tunnel.—The correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer, writing from Albany, in regard to the projected tunnel between Albany City and Greenbush, says:—The meeting of railway gentlemen recently convened at Albany, to look into the subject of the construction of a tunnel under the Hudson at Albany, has adjourned. The impression is constantly becoming stronger, that this work will be built, and so speedily commenced, as to be ready for use in two years. An examination of the bed of the river shows a large deposit of gravel, beneath which is a solid foundation of blue clay, presenting material easy to work and reliable.

Singular Death.—Mr Stephen Shoals, of the town of Virgil, came to his death from a singular cause, on the 11th inst. A number of days before his death he had been bitten by a hog, just below the calf of his leg, severing a small artery, from which he lost much blood. After being confined a few days he became much better, and ventured out of the house, but he had been out but a short time before he became faint, and calling for help, was carried into the house. He continued to grow worse, until his sufferings were terminated by death. He had been subject to palpitation of the heart, and it is probable that the loss of blood, and over-exertion, brought on the fatal result.—(Cortland Dem.

Another Trial of American Steamers.—A gentleman who came over from Liverpool in the Baltic, tells us that when he left everybody in that city was rejoicing over the new Cunard steamship Arabia, which had been built expressly to beat the Collins steamers, and was considered the most superb as well as the fastest vessel afloat. Loud were the exultations over the anticipated triumph and lowering of the American flag in this contest of speed.

The Baltic, which sailed December 28th, arrived safe and sung at her wharf in New York, Jan. 11th, making the trip in less than thirteen days, in spite of stormy weather. The Arabia, which sailed January 1st, after running nearly thirteen days, and exhausting her fuel in efforts to make a rapid trip, has to put into a way port for coals and repairs, and was nearly fifteen days in making the run to New York.—(Philadelphia Bulletin.

A change has taken place in the fashion of men's garments in London. Overcoats and frock coats are made to reach the knees, and the pantaloons are full and long. The bobtails now sported by "young America," reaching down nowhere, and the tight trowsers, (such a saving in cloth to the tailors,) must yield to common sense, and ordinary decorum.

The veteran corps of war of 1812-15 will soon visit Albany, to petition in person the Legislature in behalf of their suffering brother soldiers, and the widows of the deceased, who have served their country well.

☞ Rufus Choate has been appointed U. S. District Attorney, in place of Gov. Clifford.

Commercial and Financial.

Reported for the Herald by Messrs. Barrett & Son,

Rutland, Jan. 20, 1853.

There is an active demand for money at legal rates, caused by the movement of funds to the south in payment for cotton purchases, and to the active operations in securities and real estate. The operations at the New York and Boston broker's boards show a very large increase over last week.

At no time has there been so great a demand for dwellings in this village, as at present. More than one hundred dwellings and shops were started the past season, and although a larger number are in progress than at the same period of last year, the prospective supply is altogether inadequate to the demand. Building lots, which have in favorable situations, doubled in value in one year, are for below prices in towns less growing. Rents are mounting and we think better investments can not be made, by our citizens, than in building up our town. The population of Rutland augmented, on the 1st December last, to about 5,000, an increase over the census of 1850, of 1,300, or forty-six per cent, in two and a half years.

A Telegraph Company is being organized in London for the purpose of constructing a line of telegraph from England, via Shetland Islands, Iceland, Greenland, Labrador and Quebec, to the United States.

Massachusetts Savings Banks.

Population	No. of	Am't of	Average
of State.	depositors.	deposits.	deposits.
1840 [illegible]	[illegible]	$6,[illegible]	$150

1852 [illegible]	97255	16,464,307	169

In 1840 the number of depositors was 1 in 20 of the whole population, at $150 average each. In 1850 the depositors were 1 in 12, at $173 each; or the savings were, in 1840, $6.50 average for the whole population, and in 1850, $15 average. Out of 90 citizens of Massachusetts in 1840, only one was a depositor in the Savings Banks. Now, out of 90, there are nine depositors.—(Economist.

The Boston Courier says, "Twenty car loads of the West Cattleton State, amounting to 300 tons, were brought to this market last week, over the Rutland, Cheshire and Fitchburg Railroads. The State Company are now manufacturing enough to load five cars a day."

CONSUMPTION.

Consumption every body knows, is a flattering disease. It commences and progresses so insidiously, that before one is aware of it, the lungs are a mass of ulcers, then a sudden expostire or change from heat to cold, produces an inflammation, and in a few days or weeks, it is said, he or she died of hasty Consumption. For all troubled with cough or lung complaint, we would refer to the advertisement on the outside of this paper of Judson's Chemical Extract of "Cherry and Lungwort," which is said to be a certain cure for this awful disease.
