Important to Consumptives.

ALL old who are afflicted with Bronchitis, or weakness of the lungs. Dr. McClintock's Pectoral Syrup is recommended as one of the best and cheapest medicines ever used for Bronchitis, Consumption, and all diseases of the Lungs and Air passages. For any of these forms of disease, showing themselves in Coughs, Tickling of the Throat, Sense of Tightness in the Throat or Chest, Spitting of Blood, Difficulty of Breathing, Hoarseness or Loss of Voice, Hectic Fever, Night Sweats, &c., this SYRUP has been used with astonished success for many years (it contains no opium, morphine or antimony), which injurious drugs form the basis of almost all the quack remedies for lung complaints.

The Great Peculiarity of Dr. McClintock's Pectoral Syrup, is that in all Chronic Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, it may be taken by the most delicate patient with perfect safety. It contains no injurious drugs, has the common remedies used for personal complaints—it is pleasant to the palate, produces no nausea or debility, but may be taken freely and constantly, with the certain result of positively checking the disease, strengthening the stomach, and invigorating the entire system, while healing and soothing the irritated organs, and producing gradually a perfect cure.

Price in pints $1; six bottles for $5. Full directions accompany each bottle.

SERIES FOR 1855.

THE HOME JOURNAL.

MORRIS & WILLIS, EDITORS.

The first number of the new series will be issued on the first of January next. New subscribers can be supplied from that date; but immediate application will be necessary to such as desire to begin with the beginning. A home is hardly complete, we think we may safely venture to say, without the Home Journal; which, but for being a chronicle of the times, abounds in intelligence designed to enliven an American Home. The Editors (Mrs. Morris and N. P. Willis) devote their entire time, skill and experience, to the task of giving, each week, every thing worth knowing. They particularly keep an eye on all the whims and novelties of the day. The utmost pains are taken to present the latest and freshest of all news. In the literary department we aim at sketches and readable criticism, and in our condensations of the vast newspaper world of Europe, we endeavor to avoid the tiresome and the local, and transfer to our columns the pick of English information and brilliancy, while we endeavor to select with a true sense of pure morals, true wit and genuine humor. In addition to the above, we have made new arrangements for a feature that is always attractive to a family circle. From several sources we are to be supplied with the news and gossip of New York society. In a metropolis like ours, center the more sparkling elements of the life of our country, and of large, and colonying and retiring part much which would else be dormant. Albeit, in society gossip, is a small world, of which the ordinary newspapers make no report, and of this we think we can pass amusing paragraphs. In announcing a new series of articles by Mr. Willis, in addition to his usual editorial labors, we claim the privilege of leaving them to designate their own style and title as they appear. They are to be quite different from any thing which has ever been published in this journal from his pen, and we are very sure that they will be no less attractive, to say the least. The graphic and highly-finished sketches, by "The Lady of Shiloh," "Trudging Quaker" and others, will be continued. We have also new correspondents in London and Paris, who will send us much that could never reach us through foreign journals.

Terms—For one copy, $2; for three copies $5; or for one copy for three years $5—always in advance. Subscribe without delay. Address
