King Cotton's Balance-Sheet.
The commercial editor of the N. O. Crescent gives the following as the amount of cotton received at all the ports:

At New Orleans to date proper... 1,651,922
At Mobile to July 8... 681,118
At Savannah to July 7-Uplands 445,081
Sea Islands... 16,850

At Charleston to July 7-Upland 435,870
Sea Islands... 26,052
At Texas ports to July 8... 182,352
At Florida ports to latest dates... 156,978
At North Carolina ports... 24,566
At Virginia ports... 27,897

Total bales received at Southern ports 3,637,566
Received at Northern ports over New York railroads, the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the Ohio and Baltimore railroad to the 1st of June... 53,783

Total bales at seaports... 3,711,348
To be accounted for out of the quantity shipped from river town up the Mississippi and Ohio rivers... 67,332

Burned on boats after being shipped from inland towns... 7,839
Stock at inland towns as follows:
At Augusta and Hamburg on 1st July... 25,854
At Macon, Ga., on 1st July... 8,525
At Memphis, on 1st July... 3,478
At Houston, Texas, on 1st July... 2,995
At Columbus, Ga., on 1st July... 12,900

At other inland towns, including Montgomery, Columbia, (S. C.) Selma... 127,123
Grand total of bales at light... 3,838,471

There have been many remarks regarding the shipments from the river towns up the river. In our view the entire 111,115 bales ought to be taken into the yearly returns; however, in our tables and figures we have only included 53,783 bales, the quantity received at the Northern seaports being part of the 111,115 bales, which will be taken into account the same as last year. These inland shipments and receipts were included in the general statement of the 31st August last in the New York Price Current as follows for the years 1867-68:

Received at New York from Memphis and Nashville... 3,363
Received at Philadelphia from Memphis and Nashville... 3,275
Received at Baltimore from Memphis and Nashville... 2,980

Total bales... 9,624
Against these receipts of 1868 at the Northern ports we have 53,783 bales for 1859.

There are estimated to be in the interior, say in planters' hands (gun-houses) fully 35,000 bales. In upper Red River there are 13,000 bales, which cannot reach market this season from interruption of navigation. In Texas there are several thousand bales, which have been detained by low water, but now held back by the decline in price, say fully 20,000 bales.

The following were the weekly receipts last year after the 12th of July at all the ports:

July... 13,321
... 10,362
... 9,013
August... 7,704
... 8,775
... 7,373
... 4,274
... 8,088

MARTIN VAN BEREN.—The sage of Lindenwald is said to be still in excellent health, and is blessed with his usual cheerful spirits. He is one of the few Presidents whose constitution and temper are unaffected by the cares of State. He never distressed himself in any degree about the welfare of the country, or the condition of his conscience, and having no soul, and a good digestion, he is enjoying a serene old age. [Richmond Dispatch.]

THE SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY.—The New Orleans correspondent of the Charleston Courier says that Bishop Polk has succeeded in getting ten gentlemen of his diocese of the Episcopal Church to subscribe three hundred thousand dollars towards the establishment of the great Southern University. One old gentleman, formerly a United States Senator, and subsequently Governor of Louisiana, (Hon. Mr. Johnson,) has subscribed forty thousand dollars.

"What Church do you attend, Mrs. Parlington?"
"Oh! any paradox church where the gospel is dispensed with."

EUROPEAN NEWS.

Our latest foreign news is by the steamer Hungarian which brought Liverpool dates of the 29th June.

The following is the order of the day, published by the Emperor Napoleon after the battle of Salferino:

"CARRIANA, June 25.—Soldiers! The enemy who believed themselves able to repulse us from the Chiese, have recrossed the Mincio. You have worthily defended the power of France.

"Salferino surpassed the recollections of Lanato and Castiglione. In twelve hours you have repulsed the efforts of one hundred and fifty thousand men. Your enthusiasm did not rest there. The numerous artillery of the enemy occupied formidable positions for over three leagues, which you carried. Your country thanks you for your courage and perseverance, and laments the fallen. We have taken 3 flags, 30 cannon, and 6000 prisoners.

"The Sardinian army fought with the same valor against superior forces, and worthy is that army to march beside you. Blood has not been shed in vain, for the glory of France and the happiness of the people."

The Austrian Official Account.—VERONA, June 25.—"The day before yesterday our right wing occupied Pazzolunga, Salferino and Carriana, and the left wing pressed forward as far as Guidizzolo and Cas-Cioffredo, but were driven back by the enemy. A collision took place between the two entire armies at 10 A. M. yesterday, our left, under General Wurper, advanced as far as Chiese.

"In the afternoon there was a concentrated assault on the heroically defended town of Salferino. Our right wing repulsed the Piedmontese, but on the other hand the order of our center could not be restored, and our losses are extraordinarily heavy. The development of powerful masses of the enemy against our left, and the advance of his main body against Volta, caused our retreat, which began late in the evening."

The London Times says that the Austrians have most candidly admitted their defeat, and that history scarcely records a bulletin in which such a disaster is more explicitly avowed.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times says it was expected that another battle would have to be fought before the siege operations commenced.

A dispatch from Paris states that patriotic demonstrations by the working classes in Paris were universal. A dispatch from Vienna states that the attack of the French on Venice and Tagliamento, about forty-five miles northwest of Venice, was expected to take place on the 28th of June.

Accounts from Vienna state that the Austrians reserves, numbering 170,000 men, were on their way to Italy. They are considered the flower of the Austrian army, not a man of them having served less than eight years.

Texas, June 28.—An official bulletin today contains some details of the battle of the 24th. The Piedmontese who were principally engaged at San Martino, performed prodigies of valor, and took formidable positions, but could not hold them, owing to the fearful tempest. They drove the Austrians from San Martino, retaining five of their cannon. Serious loss is admitted.

An English fleet of twenty sail is said to be cruising off Venice.

The Gazette de France says that preparations are being made to get together within two months a force of 450,000 men.

The Sardinian Ambassador at Paris is reported to have complained to the English Government against the British Embassy at Paris for anti-Sardinian manifestations.

Great naval preparations are said to be going on at Cherbourg.

New York, June 15.—The Liverpool, Boston and New York steamship Etna, Capt. Millar, has arrived, bringing dates from Liverpool of the 2nd inst.

Her dates have been anticipated.

Paris, June 23.—The official accounts of the battle of Salferino put down the French loss at from 16,000 to 18,000, divided as follows: Gen. Niell's corps, from 6000 to 7000.

Marshal Baraguay d'Hilliers' corps nearly 5,000.

Marshal McMahon's 2,500, and Gen. Canrobert's about 1,000.

Gen. Dese is reported among the killed at the battle of Salferino.

The Austrians had seven or eight Generals and many other superior officers wounded.

Gen. Grascbke is among the killed.

At the battle of Salferino some of the regiments of French infantry were nearly cut to pieces.

The Piedmontese suffered so greatly as to be incapable of forming a line of battle.

The Italian regiments in the Austrian army have been found very difficult to manage, and the men are deserting by fifties.

A whole battalion, near Trieste, have openly raised the cry in favor of Victor Emanuel.

A vessel on the coast, under the command of an American, has been detected receiving deserters after dark.

The French people are very much dissatisfied with the reports of the war given in the Mondeur and Patrie.

From the Nashville Union. The Sympathy for Foreigners.

Referring to the files of this paper of four years ago, we find that it was engaged in a very excited contest with what was called Know Nothingism. The platform on which this society stood was partially stated in the following oath and obligation, pertaining to the first degree of the Know Nothing order, which oath and obligation we are very confident that some of our editorial neighbors took and subscribed. We need not remind the reader that this paper very strongly opposed both the oath and the principles of that order:

OUTSIDE OBLIGATION. You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will never reveal anything said or done in this room, the names of any persons present, nor the existence of this society, whether found worthy to proceed or not, and that all your declarations shall be true, so help you God.

Ans. I do. Marshal. Where were you born? Marshal. Where is your permanent residence? [If born out of the jurisdiction of the United States the answer shall be written, the candidate dismissed with an admonition of secrecy, and the brother vouching for him suspended from all the privileges of the order, unless upon satisfactory proof that he has been misinformed.]

Ans. I am. Marshal. In religious belief are you a Roman Catholic? Ans. No.

Ans. Yes. Were you born of Protestant parents, or were you reared under Protestant influence? Ans. Yes.

Ans. Yes. If married, is your wife a Roman Catholic? [No, or "Yes," the answer to be valued as the constitution of the State council shall provide.]

Ans. Yes. Are you willing to use your influence and vote only for native-born American citizens for all officers of honor, trust, or profit, in the gift of the people, to the exclusion of all foreigners and aliens, and Roman Catholics in particular, and without regard to party predilections? Ans. I am.

FIRST DEGREE OBLIGATION. In the presence of Almighty God and these witnesses you do solemnly promise and swear that you will never betray any of the secrets of this society, nor communicate them to proper candidates, except within a lawful council of the order; and you will never permit any one of the secrets of this society to be written, or in any other manner to be made legible, except for the purpose of official instruction; that you will not give your influence for any man for any office in the gift of the people, unless he be an American-born citizen, in favor of Americans ruling America, nor if he be a Roman Catholic; that you will in all political matters, so far as this order is concerned, comply with the will of the majority, though it may conflict with your personal preference, so long as it does not conflict with the Constitution of the United States of America, or that of the State in which you reside; that you will not under any circumstances whatever, knowingly recommend an unworthy person for induction, nor suffer to be done in your power to prevent it; that you will not, under any circumstances, expose the existence of such an association, nor reveal the name of any member of the order, nor will you answer an imperative notice issued by the proper authority, obey the command of the State council, president, or his deputy, while assembled by such notice and respond to the claim of a sign or cry of the order unless it be physically impossible; that you will acknowledge the State council of— as the legislative head, the ruling authority, and the supreme tribunal of the order in the State of— acting under the jurisdiction of the national council of the United States of America, binding yourself in the penalty of excommunication from the order, the forfeiture of all intercourse with its members, and being denounced in all the societies of the same as a willful traitor to your God and your country.

[The president shall call to every person present by three blows of the gavel, when the candidates shall all repeat after the vice-president in concert.] All this I voluntarily promise with a full understanding of the solemn sanctions and penalties.

Several gentlemen who took this oath, and more and stronger oaths, have gone into spasms lest the foreigners whom they then swore to proscribe—swore to deny the rights of American citizens—whom they denounced as "paupers and thieves," "the off-scourings of the Old World," "jail-birds," "emissaries of the Pope"—they go into spasms now in their alarm that these men may meet with justice at the hands of the Democrats! We advise our adopted citizens to exact one penance from these recalcitrant Know Nothings before listening to them at all—make them get down on their knees and repeat their Know Nothing oaths backwards. MAKE THEM UNSAY THE OATH! Self-respect demands that our naturalized citizens exact this much of their new defenders; and the leaders who took these oaths in 1855, and fawn upon the foreigners in 1859, will do nothing! Naturalized citizens need not be afraid of exacting too much, just now!

U. WESTBROOK, G. W. PARKER.

CHEAP FOR CASH —OR— GOOD SHORT PAPER! Groceries! Groceries!!

THE subscriber on Front Street, opposite the Ferry Landing, having removed from his old stand, one door below, into O. W. Nalley's building, still keeps on hand a very general and complete assortment of Family and Plantation Groceries, such as are usually applied for in this market, consisting, among many other articles, of—

Sides Shoulders and Hams; Corned Beef, of excellent quality, Salt, Flour, Sugar and Coffee, Tea; Tobacco, Mackerel, Sardines, Cheese, Lard, Soap, Candles, Yeast Powders, Crockery ware, Brandies, Whisky, Wines and Cordials, Irish Potatoes, Onions, &c.

"Prompt customers and low percentage," is the proper motto. Goods might be sold much lower in Alexandria, if merchants were not compelled to tack on extra percentage to cover the losses from bad sales; I have determined to abandon that system, and hereafter, sell only for CASH or SHORT GOOD PAPER, by which plan I shall be able to sell LOWER and make more money than those who follow a different practice.

The agent of a Cleveland tombstone manufactory, with much trouble, hunted up a man who had "lost his wife."

In a subdued voice, he asked the man if he had lost his wife. The man said he had. The agent was very sorry for it, and sympathized with the man very deeply in his great affliction; but death, he said, was an insatiable anchor, and shot down all, of both high and low degree; informing the man that "what was his loss was her eternal gain," and would be glad to sell him a gravestone to mark the spot where the beloved one slept—marble or common stone—as he chose, at prices defying competition. The bereaved man said there was a little difficulty in the way. "Haven't you lost your wife?" inquired the agent. "Why, yes, I have," said the man, "but no grave-stone ain't necessary; for you see the cussed critter ain't dead; she scooted with another man!" The agent retired.
