Progress of civilization in Russia—Emancipation of the Serfs.—The Emperor Nicholas has commenced the process of emancipating the serfs of Russia. These serfs, as most of our readers are doubtless aware, constitute the great mass of the laboring population of that country. They belong to the land, as part of the estate of every great landed proprietor, and descend with it, from the proprietor to his heir, just like his acres and the buildings upon them. The Boston Atlas, noticing this subject, says;

"One of the boldest acts—an act of the greatest magnitude in this era—is that contemplated by the emperor, of enfranchising the vast portion of Russians born in a state of servitude. The nobles of the land, who are, however, whenever their rights are invaded, the emperors of the land, have given the autocrat to understand that they will not submit to it; and he well knows that poison, the dagger, or the cord, have removed many of his ancestors who have opposed their sovereign will and pleasure. The emperor has made a sort of compromise, by publishing an ukase for the bettering the condition of the serfs; yet in a manner, it is said, calculated to stay the apprehension, of the opposition. Their apprehension, it we know any thing of the Russian nobility, will not be easily satisfied. An attempt has been made, which they term revolutionary, and say endangers their lives and property. Their acquiescence in any measure leading to such an end as the curtailment of their power, is but the calm that precedes a storm. We should not be at all surprised to hear shortly, that the emperor is among the missing. If he stirs further in the business, we would not give a copy of the Atlas for the value of his life. If the emperor can introduce a system of education among the serfs, and reclaim them from their semi-barbarous state, they will enfranchise themselves. This will be a work of time. Given under our hands, 'Respect this.—mind ye.'"

A Reminiscence.—In the year 1809, (June 7th,) the House of Representatives, by a decided and almost rigidly Democratic vote, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to prepare and report to this House, at their next session, a plan for the application of such means as are within the power of Congress, for the purpose of protecting and fostering the manufactures of the United States, together with a statement of the several manufacturing establishments which have been commenced, the progress which have been made in them, and the success with which they have been attended, and such other information as, in the opinion of the Secretary, may be material in exhibiting a general view of the manufactures of the United States."

On the adoption of this resolution, which contemplated a 'plan' for 'protecting and fostering the manufactures of the United States,' the four Southern Atlantic States voted as follows:

Virginia	Yeas 12	Nays 9
North Carolina	" 8	" 3
South Carolina	" 6	" 1
Georgia	" 1	" 3

Here we find the almost entire vote of South Carolina given in favor of a 'plan,' the object of which was to foster and protect the manufactures of the United States. Now the same State repudiates the protective policy—declares it unconstitutional, and advocates the wildest of all wild schemes, 'Free Trade.'—[Wayne Co. Ind. Rec.

Fresh importation of Paupers.—The English, it is said, are taking measures to send and immense number of paupers and vagabonds from their poor houses to the U. States. Most of them will be shipped for New York; and unless the public authorities interfere in season, it is to be feared that a great many of these broken down, destitute, sickly, and helpless beings, will be thrown upon New England for subsistance. What national iniquity and outrageous cruelty it is, for Great Britain to tear these aged, unfortunate creatures—her own citizens—from their native soil, transport them like felons over the ocean, and then leave them to the cold charities of strangers, or to die in a foreign land!—Boston Traveller.

John Newton.—"I see in this world," said John Newton, "two heaps of human happiness and misery; now if I can take but the smallest bit from the heap, and add to the other, I carry a point. If, as I go home, a child has dropped a half-penny, and if by giving it another I can wipe away its tears, I feel that I have done something. I should be glad indeed to do greater things; but I will not neglect this."

Amos Kendall complains that he does not receive enough from the Expositor to pay his printers, and declares that unless better supported, he shall be compelled to abandon the business.

Edward A. Smith, Esq. of Long Island has raised on his farm the largest Ox ever seen in the United States. The animal is also as white as snow, a few colored spots on his body. He is six years old, 19 hands high, 12 feet four inches in length, 9 feet 11 inches in smallest girt, and weighs over 4000 pounds; and what is more surprising, he is not six years old.

March of Intellect in England.—At the Worcestershire assizes in one case the jury returned the following verdict:—"Guilty, with some little doubt as to whether he is the man!" The judge could not stand this, but sent them packing.

Death of Professor Eaton.—Amos Eaton, the venerable and learned Principal of the Rensselaer Institute in Troy, N. Y., died last week at the age of sixty six years, after an illness of a few days. During his residence in Troy, he has educated hundreds of young men from every section of the United States; many of whom are now in the front rank of their respective professions. He was one of the fathers of American Geology, and not a few of the Geologists of the present day in this country, derived the rudiments of the science while under his instruction. Troy Whig.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION.

The Legislature of Maine is proceeding rapidly and judiciously in measures for the amicable adjustment of the boundary dispute; or rather in measures that will enable the general Government to effect an arrangement with Lord Ashburton. The joint select committee of both houses reported on Friday last a series of resolutions, authorizing the choice of four persons, in convention of the two houses, who shall be commissioners on the part of Maine, to repair to the seat of Government of the United States, and confer with the authorities of that Government touching a conventional line, or line by agreement, between the state of Maine and the British provinces, and to give the assent of Maine to any such line, with such terms, conditions, considerations and equivalents as they shall deem consistent with the honor and interest of the state; with the understanding that no such line be agreed upon without the assent of such commissioners.

The resolution for the appointment of commissioners, with full powers to settle the boundary question, so far as the state of Maine is concerned, according to the recommendation of Governor Fairfield, passed the House of Representatives on Tuesday, by a vote of 177 yeas to 11 nays; and we learn that the Legislature of Maine has made choice of Edward Kent, William P. Preble, John Otis and Edward Kavanagh, as commissioners on the part of Maine.—Com. Adv.

Death of the venerable Henry Southard.—The fathers have nearly all left us. One only here and there remains to tell the story of our birth; and we are called to-day to record the departure of one of the few who have been preserved to illustrate the virtues of the heroic age of our country to the present generation. The venerable Henry Southard—the father of the present distinguished President of the U. S. Senate—died at his residence in Baskenridge, Somerset co., in this state, on Sunday morning, the 21 inst., at the advanced age of 95 years. He had enjoyed good health and the full possession of his mental faculties up to within a few days of his death, which occurred after only four or five days illness, induced by fatigue from walking.—N. J. Adv.

Another Expedition for Santa Fe.—The Western Missourian of the 23d ult. says: A large company of Americans and Spaniards is expected near that town, and will leave for Santa Fe about the 1st proximo. The Americans are under the [illegible] of Messrs Alvarez, (U. S. Consul,) Wetherell, Kelly and Hoffman; the Spaniards under that of Segnora Armigo, Ortiero and Peres. They take with them in all, over $150,000 worth of English and Eastern coast goods. They have 62 wagons, and about 300 mules.

ASSASINATION OF GOV. BOGGS.

By the Western Mail, we have the appalling intelligence of the murder of ex-Governor Lilburn W. Boggs of Missouri, at his residence at Independence, on the 6th instant. He was sitting alone in his room, engaged in writing, when he was shot through the window by some villain, who lodged three buckshot in his head, one of them in his brain. The St. Louis New Era of the 11th says:

Gov. Boggs was shot by some villain on Friday, 6th, in the evening, while sitting in a room in his own house in Independence. His son, a boy, hearing a report, ran into the room and found the Governor sitting in his chair with his jaw fallen down, and his head leaning back. On discovering the injury done his father, he gave the alarm. Foot tracks were found in the garden below the window, and a pistol picked up supposed to have been overloaded and thrown from the hand of the scoundrel who fired it. Three buckshot, of a heavy load, took effect, on going thro' his mouth, one into the brain, and another probably in or near the brain—all going in at the back part of the neck and head. The Governor was still alive on the morning of the 7th, but no hopes of his recovery were entertained by his friends, and but slight hopes from his physicians. A man was suspected, and the Sheriff most probably has possession of him by this time. The pistol was one of a pair stolen some days previous from a baker in Independence, and the legal authorities have the description of the other.

From Texas.—By the arrival of the steamship N. York, we have received late Texas papers. They are barren of any interesting intelligence of interest. The Houstonian of the 12th, publishes an interesting statement of Mr. Lubbock's (one of the Santa Fe expedition) sufferings and adventures.

The Hon. C. Van Ness was recently killed at Galveston, by the accidental discharge of a gun.

We find nothing more of interest in the papers.
N. Orleans Bee.

Our Navy Yard.—We hear that orders have been received at this yard similar to those received at New York and Philadelphia, and that many hands will be discharged in consequence.

The work on the Cumberland has been suspended, and 53 carpenters, engaged on her, have been discharged.

More hands will no doubt be discharged to-day, and a still larger number at the end of the half month, on Tuesday next.

This state of things is much to be regretted. Many persons will be thus suddenly thrown out of employment, and the work which ought to be done, will be neglected.—Bunker Hill Aurora.

From Florida.—A letter from Nennansville, East Florida, dated May 16, informs us that at Santa Fe, which is about twelve or thirteen miles west of Nennansville, the Indians had in the morning of the 16th most cruelly murdered Mrs Casey and her two children, and also wounded Mr Casey so severely as to leave little hopes of his recovery. On the scene of death did not end here; for on the following morning whilst the neighbors, who had gathered for the purpose, were engaged in paying the last tribute of respect, by seeing Mrs Casey and children decently interred, they were fired on while at the grave, it is supposed by about twenty Indians—one man was mortally wounded, and several others were wounded—three horses were killed at the time.—Balt. Rep.

And each church will be called on for its statistical report for the past year.

CONCERT.

Vocal and Instrumental Music,

On Monday evening, June 6, at the Court House.

☞ Mr. H. has selected some of Mr. Russell's best and most popular Songs for the occasion; including the Gambler or Brenkard's Wife which he founded on fact; the Maniac, Old Arm Chair, &c. &c.

As late as at 8 o'clock this evening the run at HOWARD'S continued with unabated vigor. How long it will last must depend upon his ability to take up the bills upon presentation, or to satisfy that there will not be any partiality to presentors; many, to be sure, from the rush are delayed, but fortunately there is so much of curiosity about the Grand Bazaar that one does not tire in an half hour's detention, knowing that equal and quick justice will be meted out to every one having the whole or any parts of Dollars to dispose of, and it is even rumored that from his ability to buy up even the small lots of money as well as the large ones that there may be a still further rise upon the price of money of the kind of coin and of safety fund and other good bank bills; but be that as it may Goods were never so low and Cash so high as it is now at the old Money Market Store kept by the people's agent.
