THE LYRE.

He touched his harp, and nations heard entranced.

CHILDHOOD AND HIS VISITORS.

Once on a time, when sunny May
Was kissing at the April showers,
I saw fair childhood hard at play
Upon a bank 'mid blushing flowers:
Happy—he knew not why nor how;
And smiling—who could but choose to love him?
For no more glad than Childhood's brow,
Was the blue heaven that breathed above him.

Old Time, in most appalling wrath,
The valley's green repose invaded;
The brooks grew dry upon his path,
The birds grew mute, the lilies faded,
But Time so swiftly winged his flight,
In haste a Grecian tomb to learn,
That! Childhood watched his paper kite
And knew just nothing of the matter.

With curling lip and glancing eye,
Guilt gazed upon the scene a minute,
But childhood's glance of purity,
Had such a holy spell within it,
That the dark demon fled to the air
Spread forth again his baffled pinion,
And hid his envy and despite,
Self-tortured, in his own dominion.

Then stepped a gloomy phantom up,
Pale, express-stricken, sorrowful,
And proffered him a fearful cup,
Full to the brim of bitter water;
Poor Childhood held her toll her name,
And when the hoodlum muttered "Sorrow,"
He said—"I don't interrupt my game,
"I'll taste it, if I must, to-morrow."

The muse of Pindus hit her cause,
And word has with the softest numbers
That ever scattered wealth and fame
Upon a youthful poet's slumbers;
Though sweet the muse of the lay,
To Childhood it was all a riddle,
And "Oh!" he cried, "do send away
That noisy woman with the fiddle"

Then wisdom stole his bat and ball,
And taught him with most sure endeavor,
Why bubbles rise and storms fall,
And why no toy may last forever;
She talked of all the wondrous laws
Which nature's open book discloses,
And Childhood, ere he said a pause,
Was fast asleep among the roses.

Sleep on! sleep on!—Oh! Manhood's dreams
Are all of earthly pain or pleasure—
Of Glory's toils, Ambition's schemes,
Of cherished love and hoarded treasure;
But to the couch where Childhood lies
A more delicious trance is given,
Lit up by rays from heaven's skies,
And glimpses of remembered heaven.

LIFE'S LESSON SHOULD BE.

BY E. GOULDCK.

Forget not—regret not!
The joys that have fled,
Through sweeter and better
Than fresh odors shed
From the jessamine's cup,
Or the bright dewy leaf
From the gaze of the sun,
'Neath the violet's lid.

Forget not—regret not:
Hope ever should burn
In her funeral urn,
Shedding glory and light
O'er the gems of the past,
By time on the altar
Of memory cast.

Forget not—regret not,
Why should we regret
While one star remains,
That another has set?
And though all may have faded,
Others brighter by far,
Through the gloom may arise,
Than our once worship'd star.

Forget not—regret not:
Life's lesson should be
Like the stars that are hung
O'er the limitless sea,
A guide to our path,
Bright links of the chain
To lead us and bind us
To virtue again.

THE PATENT LACE,

INVENTED BY
E. P. BUNNING, M. D.
OF PITTSBURGH, PENNSYLVANIA.

WILL be kept constantly on hand by Dr. John W. Frame, of Essex, he having purchased of the original Patentee the exclusive right to make and vend the same, within and for the Counties of Chittenden, Franklin and Lamoille, and Grand Isle.

The PATENT LACE has now been before the public for a trial of several months,—its merits have been applied in different parts of the country, and with a success never before equalled by any medical agents. Numerous well authenticated Certificates of its benefits will soon be in the removal of diseases of long standing, might be furnished from this immediate vicinity—in addition to the statement of cases and certificates of cures furnished by Dr. Bunning and others. But this is not deemed necessary at the present time, reference can be given to individuals wearing the Lace, in nearly every town in the County.

This Lace has long felt the necessity of a Supported differently constructed and more perfect in its adaption to the human form, than any that had been presented to the public. The application of Bunning's improved shoulder brace, in addition, as it is designed to relieve curvatures, and remedy a class of physical maladies which cannot be reached by medicine alone.

The descent or displacement of the viscera to an relaxation of the abdominal muscles, or other causes, tends to weaken and derange the function of every organ in the human system, and, in many cases, this deviation from the natural healthy position of parts, is the sole cause of general debility—as Males and Females, of Dyspepsia, A version of the Stomach and Liver, Palpitation of the Heart, Spinal Irritation, Hysteria, Hypocondria, Piles, Prolapsus Uteris, Suppression of Urine, the Bronchitis of Public Speakers, and Incipient Consumption—all of which will be much relieved, if not entirely removed, by the use of the Patent Lace, when their existence is caused by physical derangement and a mechanical displacement of parts, which can be easily ascertained by observing the form and symptoms of the person a secret.

The instrument has been examined by Drs. Mott, Rogers, Francis and Greenough of New York—the Faculty of Philadelphia, Hartford and New Haven, and has received their favorable testimony.

Application for the Lace may be made to the subscriber, at Essex, or Hagar & Arthur, Burlington. Patients at a distance will be visited at their residence, if required.

CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COMPLAINT!!

DR. TAYLOR'S,

BALSAM OF LIVERWORT.

From 375 Bowery, New York.

FOR the cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, whooping Cough, Catarrhs, pain in the side and breast, Breakings, liver complaints, and all those affections of the throat and lungs, which are a source of so much suffering and so often terminate in Consumption, this remedy is justly and highly distinguished. It is purely vegetable, mild and gentle in its effects upon the system, and can be taken in the most delicate cases with safety as well as well as safety. So extensively has it been used and so often proved successful even in extreme and apparently almost hopeless cases, not only as a palliative but as a remedy; that the proprietor feels no hesitancy in introducing it and recommending it to all who are conscious they have diseases on account to secure of recovery. Physicians, families and all who are aware of the healing properties of this vegetable preparation, not unfrequently prescribed it in their practice, and with the Medical Faculty generally, it has met with more than ordinary approbation.

CONSUMPTION.

The following remarks were taken from a late number of the Medical Magazine:—

"The surprising effect produced by the genuine Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, made at 375 Bowery, in Consumption cases, cannot fail exciting a deep and thrilling interest throughout the world.—We have seen hundreds cured thereby (it assumption) who must have died, if it had not been for the blessing, we see persons evidently consumptive, restored to health. Yet it is a fact of daily occurrence!!

Certificates from the highest and most respectable sources of persons who have either been greatly relieved by it, or entirely recovered from affections of the lungs and liver, could be furnished in abundance but we insert only the following:—

CERTIFICATE.—"Being conscientiously predisposed to Consumption, a member of my family having suffered severely from irritation of the Lungs, accompanied with cough and raising matter and blood, together with severe pain in my side and breast, till I was supposed to be beyond recovery, I was induced by advice of Dr. Perkins, as a last resort to try "Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort." I have taken five bottles in all. I began to improve with the first bottle, and while taking the third, was so far recovered as to be able to get about. Since which time, by continuance of it I am quite restored and able to attend to my usual business. To persons suffering from coughs and affections of the Lungs, I do earnestly recommend it.

(Signed) JAS. C. SCOTT.
Elizabeth City, N. C. Dec. 16, 1842.

WRIGHT'S

INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS; OR INDIAN PURGATIVE.

THOUGH many medicines have been before the public for a much longer period than WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS, yet none stands more in higher merit, or has more rapidly attained a firm hold upon popular estimation. The PROPRIETORS then have every claim they can show the health and wealth of the Republic, all fear exercise necessary to their thorough efficacy and mild operation when employed in the most distressing disorders "which flesh is heir to."

The theory of disease on which WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS are founded, is this, viz: that three, lassly one primary cause of all the disorders that afflict the human family, and that occurs in humors, or in other word—impurity of Blood. The correctness of this is now generally admitted, but it may be asked by some, how is it possible to cure so extensive and opposite a disease? This question is very easy for be answered. It is evidence that all diseases are produced by one cause, and that cause is impurity of Blood. Therefore it is useless here to discuss the minutiae of the theory on this place and connexion.

THE GREAT DISEASE PURGATIVE, being adapted, the mode of action, proceeds by all governments to cause the same—namely, purgation. But many of the so called specifics now before the public, produce only one form of Purgation; they are either Saline, Cathartic, Drastic or Expectorant. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, combine all these properties, and are thereby so adapted to attack the elements of disease in all points, and by a harmonious and constant operation to expel it totally from the system. That such is the fact, is proved by the testimony of hundreds of cures, which are ordinary. Pills cures, and all cures may truly claim, according to the directions, within it cure, for while they are certain to cure all diseases that are remedial, they never inflict an injury upon the system.

The period validity of the medicine is another all important quality, and one which has contributed to give them any claim to public estimation and popularity.

It's worth has recommended itself strongly to the patronage of the public, and to our hills fair to become before long universal.
