The mean temperature of November for the eight years preceding 1846, was 35.5°, by which it appears that the temperature of November this year was about 6° higher than usual. The first half of the month was remarkably calm and pleasant, with the Barometer uniformly high. During the last half, the Barometer and weather have both been more changeable, with some cases of exceeding high wind, particularly on the 20th and 26th days. The fall of water this month differs but little from the average for November for the last eight years.

the 19th inst. bringing papers from Vera Cruz to the 30th, being eight days later than our last advices received via Havana.

The 31 towns, according to the Indicador 24 inst. are now free from any negotiations for peace that are not base upon satisfaction to the Republic for injuries done by the United States.

A letter of 28th October, from San Luis Potosi, says there were 18,000 troops there, and that in fifteen days more there would probably be 30,000.

The squadron under Com. Perry, says the N. O. Delta of the 26th, arrived off Tampico on the 14th inst. A messenger with a flag of truce was immediately sent on board the Commodore's ship offering, in the name of the authorities the surrender of the city.

About 400 men—sailors and marines—were then sent ashore from the squadron, which took and held possession of the place without firing a gun. Some five or six gun-boats were seized and, as far as found available, incorporated with the squadron.

After making such arrangements as the case rendered necessary, Com. Perry, on board the U. S. steamship Mississippi, sailed for New Orleans, touching at the Brazos, where Lieut. Anderson was invited to inform the U. S. authorities there of what had transpired.

The Commodore reached N. O. on the 26th. Health of the squadron good.

A further reinforcement of 200 men from the fleet had been ordered to garrison Tampico, and the object of the Commodore's visit to N. O. was to obtain men and munitions for the garrison at Tampico, and the N. Orleans papers state that some 4 or 500 troops would have for this destination in a day or two; and it is further stated that Governor Johnson of Louisiana had tendered for the use of the U. States, six 6-pound and three 12-pound brass pieces, together with 100 rounds of shot, shell, grape, and 500 rounds of grape shot.

Tampico contains about 4,000 inhabitants; but there are two forts, a large and almost connected with it called Pueblo Viejo and Almolonga, which formidably increase the population in the eyes of the Court of Mexico.

EXTENSIVE WAR MOVEMENTS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29, 8 P. M.—Advices from Havana to the 13th instant, received at New Orleans, state that nothing has yet been done under the letters of marque and reprisal, which Mexico has issued there for sale. The U. S. steamer Mississippi, Commodore Perry, left New Orleans on the 21st with a detachment of 50 men and the officers and marines of war belonging to the State of Louisiana, tendered for the use of the United States by Governor Johnson. About 600 men will soon have been sent from New Orleans to guard the captured city.

PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 29, 8 P. M.—From Harrisburgh I learn that fourteen companies have tendered their services to march to the seat of war.

CALL FOR TROOPS.

Baltimore, Nov. 29, 8 P. M.—The Washington Union contains a requisition from Commodore Conner asking for troops to garrison Tampico. Some Arms also wanted at Saltillo. Pot-metals for large residences for our posts. Preparations are making for a decisive battle.

The Montpelier Patriot concludes from the returns from 50 out of the three or four hundred towns in Massachusetts, that we were mistaken in saying that the third party votes "rather fell off" in that state, at the late election. We have not immediate access to the entire Third Party vote in Massachusetts, but we will venture to say that our friend in Montpelier will find, when he sees it, that we were not very wide of the mark. The "falling off" in New York, we take it, is not in controversy between us!

Our "small potato" neighbor of the Gazette, whose logic compels him to maintain that when a black man is arrested on suspicion of being a slave, he must prove that he is not a slave, must find some other paper to dispute with. We are not going knowingly into a controversy where we are to be compelled to prove the negative. The odds are too heavy against us!

Burlington Agricultural Ware-House and Seed Store.

Messrs PEIRCE and SWEET, as will be seen from their advertisement, have opened an establishment in our village for the special accommodation and benefit of our farming community. It is an experiment in the "division of employments" which we hope to see entirely successful. They will be at all times prepared to supply the community with the latest and most valuable improvements in the implements of husbandry, and of household convenience and comfort, from a mouse-trap to a fanning-mill,—and from a portable furnace to a tip-top A. No. 1, Cooking Stove. We trust our FARMERS, at any rate, will perceive the advantages they will be likely to reap by sustaining this attempt to establish an Agricultural Ware House among us.

The votes of Salem and Westmore, which gave Chandler a plurality in Sept. are not returned.—Next, and last, trial Jany. 5th. If they should drive it through Franklin Co. they may catch John Smith in the drove.

COMPLIMENTARY. The last Patriot, in speaking of the great reliance which the democracy of this district have placed upon M. Peck's personal popularity, says "we must no longer rely upon this broken reed. We are almost tempted to come to the rescue, and save Mr. Peck from his friends.—Montpelier J. M. Freeman.

By the way, it might be used as a store-room for the "broken-reed" of Peck's "personal popularity."

Court Calender.

November 19th

FREDERICK FULLER vs WM. P. BURNS. This was an action of assumpsit to recover a balance due the plaintiff for his services as deputy collector and inspector under the defendant while collector of the customs for the District of Vermont. The defence was that the defendant was not liable for these services, but that the plaintiff's claim for his salary was upon the government. It was shown for the plaintiff that the deputy collectors are recommended for appointment by the collectors to the department; that no accounts are kept at the department with the deputy collectors, but that all moneys are disbursed, and settlements and payments made with the deputies by the collectors, and that the defendant had admitted the balance due the plaintiff and repeatedly promised to pay it, but had finally settled his accounts with the government without reserving the money due the plaintiff. The Court charged that if the services rendered by the plaintiff were performed upon an expectation and understanding by the parties that the defendant should be responsible for the salary, and that the plaintiff was to look to him for payment, the plaintiff was entitled to recover; and that evidence of the ordinary course of business at the department was proper as tending to show what the intention of the parties was. Verdict for the plaintiff $700.

A. PECK and PIERCE, for plaintiff.

BARRON & UNDERWOOD, for defendant.

LYMAN & COLLINS vs DAVID SHERWOOD, et al. This was an action to recover the balance due upon a promissory note for $1000. It appeared that the note had been deposited with the Burlington Mill Co., as security for the payment by Sherwood for certain cloths contracted for by him. The note was executed before the cloths were delivered, and the amount of cloths received by Sherwood, did not exceed the amount that was subsequently paid on the note. The note was returned to Sherwood after the cloths were delivered to the plaintiffs. The Court held that the payment of the note and its return constituted a release, and that the defendant was not connected with the original transaction so as to be valid against the releasers. Verdict for defendant.

SHAW, for plaintiffs.

A. PECK & PEARL, for defendant.

November 20th.

WM. P. BURNS vs HARRY BRADLEY and SAMUEL A. BROWNELL. This was an action of trover for certain lumber, alleged to have been taken by the defendants from the plaintiff. The defence was on the part of Brownell that he did not have any part of the lumber in question, and on the part of Bradley that the lumber was taken by him under an agreement of sale. Verdict for plaintiff, $70.22.

BURNS & UNDERWOOD, for plaintiff.

A. PECK, for Bradley.

SCARLETT & PEARL, for Brownell.

STATE vs MICHAEL TURNS. This was an indictment for stealing money from a trunk. For the defence it was shown that the respondent was but 14 years of age, of very weak intellect, and grossly ignorant. And though the larceny was clearly shown the jury found him not guilty.

STATE'S ATT'Y and HILL, for prosecution.

LYMAN & CHITTENDEN, for respondent.

JOSEPH SMITH vs VT. CENTRAL RAIL ROAD CO. This was an appeal from the decision of Commissioners appointed to appraise land damages for land taken by the defendants for the use of the Road. The appeal had been taken by lodging a written statement of the appeal in the County Clerks office, together with a copy of the appraisal certified by the town clerk, and serving a copy of the same upon the defendants, together with an order of notice and summons signed by the Clerk, and the appellant, all within 90 days from the making of the appraisal appealed from. The defendants moved to dismiss the appeal upon the ground that it was not granted or certified by the commissioners; that no recognizance for costs was entered into, and that the Clerk had no authority to issue the notice and summons. The Court held that the Commissioners not being a Court of record, showing no such authority given them by statute, could not grant or certify an appeal; and that no provision being made by statute, as to the manner in which appeals should be taken, that the mode adopted in this case was sufficient; that a recognizance for costs was not required by the Statute and was not necessary, and that actual notice to the defendants, was all that was required, especially where the defendants had appeared in contempt to it. Motion to dismiss overruled. A number of similar cases depending upon the same questions were ruled according ly.

A CARD.

The Ladies interested in the Charity School acknowledge with grateful satisfaction the considerate benevolence which filled the house, in spite of the inclemency of the weather, on the occasion of the recent Concert.

Their thanks are especially due to Mr. Edward W. Nichols, and the many other musical friends, who, at the cost of much personal inconvenience, prepared themselves for the delightful entertainment of Thanksgiving evening.

They take this opportunity to inform those who may feel an interest in the matter, that the receipts of the Concert amounted to Eighty-four Dollars, which, with a slight increase from other sources, will maintain the school for the coming year.

Died,

In this town, on the 1st inst. MATILDA R. SMITH, aged 18 years. Her sickness, which was long and severe, being pulmonary consumption, she endured with christian fortitude and resignation. When about fourteen she sought the pearl of great price and connected herself with the church of Christ. She gave her friends the assurance of a christian life—of divine support in sickness—and a heavenly peace and triumph in death, that she was prepared for her departure. Let me die the death of the Righteous. S.

At the Pearl street House, on Monday 23rd ult. NORRIS E. Patterson, formerly of Castleton, Vt., aged 21 years.

In this town, November 28th, CHARLOTTE LOCKITS, only daughter of Chandler H. and Sarah A. Parsons, aged 1 year and 11 months. "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

In Carlisle, at the residence of S. L. Normoyle, on the 13th ult., Mrs. Mary R. wife of Joan B. Crossman of Crownpoint, N. Y., aged 21 years.

She sought and found acceptance with God in January last. In March she was severely attacked by disease, which soon assumed a pulmonary form—her sufferings, from illness and other causes, were severe and protracted. These she bore with exemplary patience and equanimity of spirit. About two days before her death she obtained a very clear witness of God's favor and her preparedness for her dissolution.—Com.

THE SKIN AND COMPLEXION, at this (and, indeed, every other) season, is often repulsive in appearance, caused, in eight cases out of ten, by the atmosphere; and what persons suppose disease of the blood, is simply a disease of the skin. It some of the thousands who take purgative medicine, pills, and useless Sarsaparilla, were to use on their skin a soothing and clearing balm, that opens the pores, whitens the skin, and causes a healthy perspiration to flow, the skin never so disfigured, unhealthy, or diseased with pimples or freckles, sunburn, tan and morphew, the true and genuine JONES'S ITALIAN CHEMICAL SOAP never fails to cure and dispel them, and to make the skin clear and lovely. It acts so mildly and soothingly on the skin, that physicians use it on ladies and infants, in old cases of scurvy, erysipelas, salt rheum, sore head, ringworm, and it (mind, the genuine Jones' soap) has often effected a cure when every other remedy failed. It is indeed a blessed remedy. Sold, Price 50 cts. by

To the Lovers of Good Music.

THE undersigned having made an arrangement with several of the best Piano-Forte manufactories in the city of New York, would give notice that he will receive orders for city instruments, from any part of Vermont and New York adjoining, and make personally such selections, as regard to tone, material and finish as may suit the taste of purchasers. The reputation acquired by the instruments of Stodart & Dunham, Gale & Co., Glom & Co., Nunns & Fisher, &c., is already too well established to need commendation, nor is there any reason why musicians in this vicinity should not enjoy the benefit of their improvements, instead of submitting any longer to the din of those antediluvian machines, too many of which still annoy our ears, and pervert the tastes of the rising generation. The subscriber flatters himself that the attention he has given to music, will warrant such selections on his part as shall please the most fastidious, and hopes that his attempt to introduce good instruments into this neighborhood, will be seconded by those among us, who wish for the establishment of a higher standard of musical taste. Prices low, and terms liberal. Address by mail. Pianos-fortes and Organs tuned.

A trifling deposit and a small premium note are also required, to guard against contingencies.

Thus, a person at the age of 25, may secure to his family, at his death $100, by the annual payment of $1.41, an annual deposit of nine cents, and a premium note of thirty one cents, or the sum of $0.90 by the annual payment of $13.40, an annual deposit of 88cents and a premium note of $3.10. The premium note is taken to guard against the contingency of great and unusual mortality, but the Directors have great confidence in the belief that their payment will never be called for. A large proportion of the profits of the Company is every third year, distributed among the existing policies, by being added to the sums respectively insured; thus continually increasing the amount to be paid on the death of the person insured. The policies may be made for the benefit, generally of the persons owner, or specifically for the benefit of his wife and children, in which latter case, the sum insured is beyond the reach of his creditors.

The character of the President and Directors of the company is a guaranty of the safety with which a man may make provision for his family, at his decease, however unable he may become by failure in business, or otherwise, to provide for them.

The company has a guaranty capital of $100,000 one half of which is paid in and invested in the stocks of the United States, the State of Massachusetts, the city of Boston, and in notes secured by bond and mortgage of unencumbered real estate in Massachusetts, worth three times the amount loaned thereon. The remaining half of the guaranty capital is liable to be called for, whenever the interests of the company shall require it.

Applications may be made to the subscriber, who will furnish pamphlets containing all the particulars, as also the charter and by-laws of the company.

YANKEE DOODLE,

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

THE Publishers of YANKEE DOODLE, after watching patiently the result of their efforts to establish partaking of the spirit of this country and identifying itself with the interests, sympathies, tastes and progress of the American People, have the pleasure of announcing that their success has thus far been unparalleled in the history of Literature. Having carefully laid and cemented the foundation of our enterprise, we feel now warranted in going on to erect a durable superstructure. Although riding no hobby, nor professing to be the exponent of any narrow school or sect, YANKEE DOODLE is broadly and strictly "national," and has no meaner ambition than to embody and reproduce in permanent forms that free spirit, that exuberant life, that creative energy and refining enthusiasm which so eminently characterize us and distinguish the New World from the Old.

In the Editorial and Artistical Departments of YANKEE DOODLE, the Publishers have engaged the most eminent and deserving talent that could be procured. They make no parade of names, but leave him (YANKEE DOODLE) to speak for himself.

The object of this Prospectus is to introduce YANKEE DOODLE to the great body of the American People who reside out of the large Cities, and upon whose decision must, at last, rest the fate of any national enterprize. We invite attention, therefore, to the following terms upon which we propose to extend the circulation of our paper.

Any person remitting us $22 by mail or otherwise, shall receive Ten Copies of YANKEE DOODLE for one year—directed to such addresses as he may designate.

For $12 we will send Five Copies for one year.

For $5 we will send Two Copies.

Single subscriptions $3 per annum.

Burlington, Dec. 4th 1846.

WM. WRIGHT, NOW RETURNS HIS sincere thanks to the inhabitants of Burlington and Winooski Falls, for the very liberal support that he has received, since his commencement, and hopes by strict attention to his business to merit a share of their patronage. He also begs to inform the public, that he has received the latest fashions for the Fall and Winter, which enables him to cut according to the fashion, or to order. He wishes further to inform his friends, that he considers himself far more competent, either to cut or to make any garment, much superior to any other professor in the art of Tailoring at the Falls.

N. B. All orders punctually attended to, and executed in the most approved styles.

Now located where J. Harrington formerly carried on business.
