A Whig Call for Quarters.

We do not often print verses in this part o' The Tribune; but if the following lines do not wrench tears not born of sorrow from many a stern eye we have greatly overrated their force and pathos. There are allusions in the third stanza that do not accord with our sentiments; but we shall not undertake to prune or mutilate this soul-stirring lyric:

THE FLAG.

"Haul down the flag!—all's over;
We have done what men could do,
Unbroken through adversity,
A tried and gallant crew:
So it has been with Truth and Right
In every age and clime,
Beaten,—borne down by numbers,—
And conquered - - - - - - for a time!

Such—when the fight was ending,
And our boldest men turned pale;
For the stoutest hearts had learned to fear
Under that driving gale;
When our ships were drifting helplessly
Upon the howling tide,
And the guns of Kentucky liner
Poured in her last broadside—

Such, were our thoughts when beaten;
But how she should it be?
False flags and foreign bottoms
Gathered from every sea,
Freebooters of all nations
That sail the salt sea brine;
Think God! there was n't one of them
Fought in the old Whig Line!

In the rough and bitter weather,
And the angry tempest's frown,
Few Whig ships were left together,
When the dismal sun went down,
Repairing the disasters
Of the storm and battle's wreck;
But we still hear distant cheering—
When we listen from the deck.

None know—so thick the night is,
What ships yet live, or drown;
And the Constitution's colors
Are at half-mast, union down;
But the old ship heaves a rocket
Through the darkness for a sign,
And from the whole scattered squadron
See the dancing signals shine!

For the years are rolling over,
And the time has come again;
We have another fight to fight,
Another field to win,
The last field—for the country;
If but once more we fail;
Hoist your last rags of canvass
And trust the favoring gale!

We were not always beaten;
Think of the times of yore!
Shake out the ancient roster
We conquered with before!
The Flag of the Revolution
Flying as first it flew,
Up to the highest topmast!
Send up the Buff and Blue!

With a shore—for our old Commander;
Roll on the turbaned gun,
Signal the best to quarters,
There are fields yet to be won;
And whether again he lead us,
Or with other men we strive,
Nine cheers for Admiral HARRY,
The heaviest man alive! [Tribune.

The Power of Love.

he said, 'and it does not seem to be right to put any constraint on their affection. Camillo is a goodly youth; and I think the dreadful scenes he has lately witnessed have exercised his mind powerfully on the subject of war. I have observed that he is thoughtful and candid; and if he does but act up to his own light, it is all I ask for him. He promises never to interfere with the freedom of Alice; and as she has adopted most of our principles from her own conviction, I do not fear that she will ever depart from them.'

'Don't comfort thyself with any such idea,' replied Rachel. 'She will have pictures of the Virgin Mary in her house, and priests will come there to say over their mummery; and small beginnings will make great endings. At all events, one thing is certain, Alice will lose her membership in our Society, and that it is which mainly grieves me. She is such a serious, sensible girl, that I always hoped to see her an esteemed minister among us.'

'It is a disappointment to me also,' replied Joseph; 'but we must bear it cheerfully. It is certainly better to have our child go out of the Society and keep her principles, than it would be to have her stay in Society and depart from her principles, as many do.'

Mary Campbell was more disturbed than Rachel Goodmen. In the first paroxysm of her distress, she said she wished she had been killed in the war, rather than live to see her son married to a black Protestant.

'Not a black Protestant, dear mother, only a dove-colored one,' rejoiced Camillo, playfully. Then he kissed her, and reminded her of the story of the crucifix, and told her how noble and gentle, and good and sensible, his Alice was.—As he talked, a vision rose before her of the little bede-roll in the Quaker's farm-house; she saw Rachel and Alice supporting the drooping heads of poor homeless Catholics, while they offered drinks to their feverish lips; and memory recited bigotry. She threw herself weeping into Camillo's arms, and said, 'Truly they did treat us like disciples of Christ. I once said to Alice May the Madonna bless thee; and I now say, from my heart, May the Madonna bless you both, my son.'

And so, Catholic and Quaker were married according to the forms of both their churches.

The Society of Friends mostly withdrew from companionship with Alice, though they greeted her kindly at their meetings. The Catholics shook their heads, and complained that Camille Campbell was already half a Quaker. Both prognosticated evil consequences from such a union. But the worst that happened was, Alice learned that there might be superstition in the cut of a garment, as well as in veneration for an image; and Camillo became convinced that hatred and violence were much greater sins than eating meat on Fridays.

NOTE.—The course here described, as generally pursued by Quakers during the Irish Rebellion, and the effect stated to be produced on the minders of both parties, are strictly true.

IT IS THE GLORY OF MAIDS, WIDOWS, and the crowning ornament of matrons.

☞ It is to the scalp as grass is to the earth, in nothing it fosters.

☞ It is so certain in its effect as death to-morrow or next year.

Now, reader, these respectable citizens certify that Jayne's Coral Hair Restorative will have the following effect without fail:

It will force the human hair to grow, on the head, face or body—it will stop its falling, cure Scurf or Dandruff, and make Red, Gray and Light hair grow Dark.

Mr. W. Tompins, 92 Kingst., New York.
Mrs. Matilda Reeves, Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn.
Mr. James Power, grocer, Fulton st., Brooklyn.
Mr. Thomas Jackson, 80 Liberty st., Pittsburgh.
Henry E. Cullen, (late) barber on board the South America.

☞ But the beautiful, the glorious effect it has in dressing and beautifying the hair—making it soft, dark, silky, and keeping it so thrice as long as any other hair-oil made.

IT IS SO ECONOMICAL AND CHEAP!

It costs but 3 shillings for a trial bottle, and the public are conscientiously and honestly assured that the above are its real and true qualities.

Be careful and get the genuine. Ask for Jayne's Coral Hair Restorative, and take no other.

THE THOROUGH BRED HORSE, SIR HENRY, will stand this season commencing on Sept. at the stable of S. Wood, Milton Falls N. Y. His pedigree, endorsing as it does within the limits of one sire such horses as Henry, Sir Archy, Imp. Messenger, and Eng. Eclipse, his acknowledged superiority of form and remarkable power of transmitting its prominent points, his high reputation in New York, where many of his colts are now kept as stock horses, and where he three times received the first premium of the New York State Agricultural Society, first when a colt, at Albany, in 1843, again at Poughkeepsie, in 1844, and again, over a three competitor, after eleven years of service in the stud of Lawrence Lewis, Esq., of Cambridge, N. Y., and after his stock had become thoroughly known throughout the State, at Auburn, in 1846, and finally his stock, some of which we have made arrangements to have in our pasture for the inspection of those who may wish to decide from their own observation, warrant us in saying that he is one of the best horses ever introduced into the State. If the assurances of a competent judge may be relied on he is the best horse, as a getter of fast, enduring and bold going roadsters, now offered to the breeders of Vermont. Such we believe him to be. He received the first premium at the Chittenden County Agricultural Society, held at Burlington, last September, where his colts were exhibited for the first time in the State, to one of which the first premium was awarded. The Committee remark in their report, "the improvement in sucking colts is worthy of notice."

SIR HENRY will stand at $10 the season. Insurance agreed on. Insurance will be claimed on mares disposed of before the time of foaling. Good pasturage will be provided for mares from a distance, but the proprietors will not be responsible for accidents or escapes.

PECTORAL SYRUP

For the speedy cure of coughs & all diseases

OF THE LUNGS.

The question is now settled with regard to the real value and practical efficacy of the PECTORAL SYRUP, in removing COUGHS and all other diseases and obstructions of the PULMONARY ORGANS.—Its superiority over every other medicine, for this class of complaints, can be attested by hundreds in this town who have used it with the happiest results: some of whose names have already appeared in this paper, and more of them will be seen very soon.—There is no longer any doubt about it—the fact is certain, that is the greatest remedy of the age; it is just the thing that has long been hoped for, and sought for, but never found till now! viz; a medicine that should be pleasant to take—quickly efficacious when taken; safe in its operation, and that it should require nothing afterwards in the shape of physic, or other medicine to carry it out of the system.

DR. FORD'S PECTORAL SYRUP,

It should be particularly observed by the reader, that this SYRUP is not a remedy for diseases of all parts of the body, but only for the CHEST and LUNGS, and for

NOTHING ELSE!

But for all PULMONARY DIFFICULTIES except the most advanced stages of CONSUMPTION, it is an INFALLIBLE REMEDY. Even in the early stages of this malady, it has rescued many in their downward progress, and restored them to health, and to the active business and enjoyments of life. Try it, then, if you have a COUGH, and you will not be disappointed.

Certifiicates.

ROME, March 15, 1845.

DR. FOORD.—Dear Sir:—I very cheerfully give my certificate for your Pectoral Syrup, through your Agents in Rome, Messrs. Dudley & Peck. My wife has been troubled with a severe cough for some years, and in the meantime has tried various medicines of repute. Last fall her cough increased and I felt very much alarmed about her. I was induced to try your Syrup, and am happy to say, that two bottles entirely cured her cough, and improved her general health. I would recommend it to all as a medicine of great worth.

HORACE N. BILL,
Pub. and Print. of Roman Citizen.

From Rev. Zechariah Paddock, D. D.

Dear Sir:—Having used, personally, and in my family, two or three bottles of your Pectoral Syrup, I feel myself authorized, indeed, bound in duty, to speak in high terms of the article. For hoarseness, which with me, as a public speaker, has been a most formidable difficulty, I have never found anything like it.—In diseases of the Lungs, and other parts of the vocal organs, its effects are most grateful and salutary. Its remarkable palatableness—being very little more offensive than pure honey, I consider one of its smallest recommendations. In a word, I am persuaded that were its virtues and its conveniences known to the public, it would have an extensive sale.

Very respectfully, Z. PADDOCK.

UNITED STATES MARSHALS OFFICE,
New York, December 6, 1847.

Messrs. Wyatt & Ketcham:—Gentlemen—Understanding that you are the general agents for the sale of "Dr. Upham's Vegetable Electuary," for the cure of Piles, I have deemed it my duty to volunteer a recommendation in behalf of that invaluable medicine. I have been afflicted for many years with Piles, and have tried various remedies, but with no beneficial effects. Indeed, I began to consider my case utterly hopeless. But about the first of September last, I was prevailed upon by a friend to make a trial of the above named medicine. I took his advice, and rejoice to say that I am not only relieved, but, as I believe, perfectly cured. I most earnestly recommend it to all who may have the misfortune to be afflicted with that annoying and dangerous disease.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
ELY MOORE.

REMARKABLE CURE OF PILES!

THIRTY YEARS STANDING!!

MOUNT WASHINGTON, BERKSHIRE CO., MASS.,
November 29, 1841.

Messrs. Wyatt & Ketcham:—Gents—For thirty years I have been afflicted with Piles, general Debility, and Inflammation, causing tumors and prolapsis of the bowels, and which had resisted all the medical treatment Dr. Chapman and others could give. The last three years, of that time my sufferings defy description. I was confined to my bed, unable to help myself, and at last given up by my physicians and friends in despair of ever gaining my health; in fact, for three days before I commenced using Dr. Upham's Electuary, I was entirely speechless, and my burial clothes were made. But under the beneficent mercies of Providence, and the use of Dr. Upham's Electuary, though and OLD MAN, I have the pleasure of stating the FACT to the public that my health is now good, and hope to live many years, if it is God's will, to make known the virtues of Doctor Upham's Electuary, and to recommend it to my afflicted fellow creatures. It helped me beyond the expectations of all that knew my case, and I can only say to others that it is in my opinion the best medicine in the world for Piles, or any other disease of the bowels; and if they will use it according to the directions, will myself warrant a cure in every case.

Yours, with the utmost expression of thankfulness,
CORNELIUS SPUR.

FOREMONT, Berk Co., Mass., Nov. 29, 1847.

The above certificate tells a simple and truthful story of suffering and relief, of which as physician and witness in the case, I cheerfully endorse.

DR. CHAPMAN.
New York, Nov. 2, 1847.

Messrs. Wyatt & Ketcham:—Gents:—I am constrained to give you a statement of the benefit I have derived from using Dr. Upham's Electuary, in a case of piles, believing by so doing, I shall render a benefit to those who are suffering from that troublesome disease. I was reduced for several years by the Piles, so much that it was with great difficulty for me to walk or attend to my business. I also suffered from other diseases which were extremely troublesome, and which I am pleased to say, two boxes of the Electuary entirely removed and that my health is better now than it has been for many years. It has done me and my family since more good, and with less expense, than all the physicians to whom I have applied, or medicine that I have used.

I remain still in perfect health,
Your obedient servant,
NELSON NEWTON,

280 Spring st., cor. Renwick,
New York, Nov. 15, 1847.

Messrs. Wyatt & Ketcham:—Gentlemen—I consider it a duty which I not only owe to you, but to my fellow-beings, to speak in praise of Dr. Upham's Electuary, a medicine which I think has saved my life, and restored me to full health. For several years, I was afflicted with Piles, together with Dyspepsia, and a general disarrangement of the system. I employed different physicians, with no good result, and they at last told me they could do no more for me, and said that I must die. I then had given up all hopes of ever having my health restored, until I called to mind the benefits that a nephew of mine in Philadelphia (Benjamin Percival) had derived in a severe case of chronic dysentery, by your medicine, that I purchased a box, which, to my surprise, after taken a few doses, I received great relief, and think, God, by continuing its use, that I am now restored to perfect health.

MRS. SARAH T. AMES,
142 Mercer street,

DR. J. RICHARDS'

Dyspepsin and Jaundice

BITTERS.

IF THERE IS ANY ONE DISEASE that I have greater confidence in curing than another, it is the distressing malady DYSPEPSIA, so general, yet so seldom cured. My medicine is at once pleasant to the taste and certain in its effects. It consists of a combination of bitter herbs in the form of a powder. The receipt for this bitter has descended to me under a bond of secrecy from my great grandfather. Its good effects have been tested by thousands, and very many are the orders I am constantly receiving by post. It is also an excellent remedy for the Jaundice.

Manufactured only by me, at Burlington, Vermont.

DIRECTIONS—Three Tumers a day before eating, half a wine glass—or less if that quantity operate too much upon the bowels. 40

DALLEY'S

MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

WILL, within five minutes from its application, remove the pain from the severest Burns, Scalds, Blisters, Hurts, Bruises or Cuts, and will certainly cure Gout, Piles, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Sores or Swellings, or anything that is inflamed, such as Fellons, Runrounds, &c. In cases of BURNS, if applied immediately, it will preserve life, no matter how severe may be the injury, unless a vital be burned. It will heal Burns or Wounds, Ulcers of any kind, without scar. It neutralizes and destroys poison from plants, reptiles, insects or rabid animals. It will wherever applied, prevent Mortification, and in old wounds, when mortification has commenced, it will arrest the disease and cure the wounds, even when flesh has already dropped away, and will restore the part to its natural state. When the bowels are painful, it will, if well rubbed on, afford instant relief and cause a movement; even when Castor Oil, Jalap and all other medicines have failed. Its use is perfectly safe in all cases. It never can do harm. It will not conflict with any medicine taken internally. We have not room in this publication to enumerate all the diseases cured by DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR; but it will certainly cure Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Piles, Inflammatory Rheumatism, Inflamed and Sore Eyes, Fellons, Chilblains, Corns, Bites, Sores and Ulcers, and instantly alleviate pains of any kind. The Extractor has gained an unprecedented reputation and is esteemed the best medicine now offered to the public.

But remember, you must be careful when purchasing, or you will be imposed upon. The genuine Extractor is so deservedly popular that wicked men counterfeit it. There are, perhaps, twenty different kinds of counterfeit. Some have Henry Dalley printed on the wrapper, to imitate writing. But the genuine has on it written with a pen and ink, H. DALLEY; and the writing is always in a different colored ink from what the wrapper is printed with. For sale by H. DALLEY & CO., No. 208 Broadway, New York.

MONTGOMERY, June 8, 1847.

MR. BENNETT—Dear Sir—In this age of patent medicine excitement, it affords me great pleasure to see, among the innumerable sarsaparilla preparations, one compound that is likely to stand the test of time.—Your Syrup, combining as it does the two best roots now known, will meet hence fly meet with universal approbation. For the last fifteen years I have been in the habit of using, more or less, yellow dock root in syrup and ointment preparations in my practice, and have no hesitancy in saying that it is the most valuable root now known.

I have been prescribing your extract since I first saw it, and it is equal to my expectations.

Very respectfully, yours,
H. T. R. SMITH, M. D.

The Most Remarkable Female Medicine Known.

Dr. Guysot's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, containing other vegetable productions that act upon the system in conjunction with the action of the female, with all the mildness of an alterative, and still showing very plainly its valuable properties, in such cases as are incident to consumption, barrenness, leucorrhœa, or whites, obstructed or difficult menstruation, incontinence of urine, or involuntary discharge therefrom, and for the general prostration of the system, no matter whether the result of ulceration or cases produced by irregularity, illness or accident. It is astonishing to see the invigoration effects it has upon the human frame. Persons, all weakness and prostrate before taking it, at once become strong, robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the weariness of the female which is the great cause of barrenness. It will not be asked of me to exhibit certificates of cures performed in cases of so delicate a nature, but I can assure the afflicted that we have in our city many living witnesses of wonderful cures, much beyond our own expectations. Several cases where females have been without children, and after using a bottle or two of this invaluable medicine, have been blessed with healthy offspring.

More testimony in favor of the superiority of Dr. Guysot's Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla over all other similar remedies. Extracts of letters received! Read! Read!

Consumption Cured.

VICTOR, Ontario Co., N. Y., July 15, 1847.

MR. BENNETT, Little Falls—Dear Sir—On the receipt of this send me at least four dozen bottles Extract Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. It is giving entire satisfaction here. One case, that of a young man from Michigan, nearly gone with consumption. He commenced taking the medicine when unable to sit up, and before using the whole of the first bottle was so much better as to be able to walk to the neighbors, and it is now certain that he will get well speedily. He was also very deaf, and that also is nearly cured.—There are other cases where it has been used with good success.

Yours, truly,
A. F. DICKINSON.

Sept. 6th. Just received a letter from Herkimer, Herkimer Co. which states that the Syrup cured a gentleman of consumption that was supposed to be beyond hope—now enjoying good health.

VICTOR, July 28, 1847. MR. BENNETT—Dear Sir—The medicine sent has not come to hand yet. I am entirely out, with calls of from 6 to 10 bottles per day. Send some by express immediately.

In haste, yours, A. F. DICKINSON.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

SENECCA Falls, July 10, 1847. MR. BENNETT—Dear Sir—I am entirely out of your Extract of Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and will be much obliged if you will send me some four dozen or more bottles as soon as possible. I do not like to be out of the medicine. So far it has sold well and given entire satisfaction. One bottle of the Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and one bottle of Rheumatic Liniment, sold on the 10th day of June, has performed a radical cure of inflammatory Rheumatism, of long standing, upon a gentleman who was only able to move about the house on crutches.—He was in our village to-day, some six or seven miles from home, without crutches or cane. He wished me to tender to you his unbeguiled thanks for being restored to health, and relieved from pain and suffering by the sale use of your invaluable medicine.

J. R. BROWN.
