Religious Intelligence.

The Baptist Church in Brattleboro, is enjoying a season of revival—religious meetings have been held for some time, every evening, and many hopeful conversions made.

The American and Foreign Bible Society issued over seventeen hundred copies of the Scriptures the last month, besides those of the society's publications in foreign lands. Ten thousand copies of the New Testament were recently voted for distribution among the slaves of the South. Eleven thousand dollars have been expended during the last month.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, located in New York, have, as we learn from the Commercial, recently made an appropriation of $78,500 for the foreign missions of the church, which missions are thus enumerated; Africa, China, India, Turkey, Germany, France, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, South America, Central America, and Sandwich Islands. The following appropriations were also made:

Missions to the German population of the United States.	$48,000
Missions to the foreign population, other than Germans, and to the Jews,	12,025
Missions to the Indians,	13,250
Domestic missions, including seamen,	101,500
Contingencies and for administration,	6,725
	$181,500
Add appropriations for foreign missions.	78,500
	$260,000

The Churches of New York State, according to the Census lately taken, number in all 4,941. The Sects having the greatest number of Churches are, first, the 'Methodist Episcopal,' 1,355; second, the 'Close Communion Baptist,' 721; third, the 'Presbyterian, old and new school,' 603; fourth, 'Protestant Episcopal,' 340; 'Congregational,' 301; sixth, 'Roman Catholic,' 200; and seventh, 'Reformed Dutch,' 213.

A new Universalist Church, with cushioned seats and carpeted aisles, at Hartland, Vt., was dedicated by appropriate religious services on Thursday of last week. Rev. O. G. Woodbury is the pastor.

A private letter from Alton, Ill., to the N. Y. Commercial, says:—"We have been engaged this afternoon in a most extraordinary work, the fruit of a strange, unexpected religious influence in the penitentiary or state prison in this city, (Alton). It contains 135 convicts. Dr. McMasters has been for some time chaplain, and by his efforts 80 were presented to Bishop Whitehouse for confirmation. This afternoon 22 were baptized. The Bishop invited the communion to attend in a body. You cannot conceive the extraordinary scene." Another eye-witness describes this remarkable scene, as follows:

The candidates for confirmation, forty-five in number, were then desired to kneel around the benches upon which they sat at their meals; when the Bishop proceeded to lay his hands, with the customary invocation, upon each of them successively.

After the close of this affecting ceremony, the Bishop addressed the recipients for the space of perhaps fifteen or twenty minutes, in one of the most powerful and eloquent exhortations which, we are persuaded, can never be forgotten by any one who heard it, but of which we feel unable to give even a slight sketch.

Suffice it to observe, that the strong walls and barred windows of the hall in which the rite was performed—the kneeling prisoners, nearly of whom were bathed in tears—the deep and sympathetic emotion visible in the countenances of the members of the convention and other spectators—the solemn and earnest language of the Bishop, and the deep tones of his voice, as he briefly alluded to the past lives, the present condition, and the future destiny of the persons to whom he was speaking, altogether formed a scene such as probably never before has been witnessed in the United States, or perhaps any other country, and which, we think, cannot fail to make a most salutary impression, not only upon those most interested in it but also upon every beholder.

Pope Pius Ninth, has recently turned his attention to Ireland, and is about to introduce a stricter system of discipline into the Church in that country. To accomplish this purpose the Propaganda has given the necessary powers to Dr. Cullen, Archbishop of Dublin, and that prelate has been appointed Apostolic Legate in Ireland. A letter from Rome in the London Times states that the reformation "immediately comprises the episcopacy, the parochial clergy, and the seminaries." The vacant sees are to be filled by men "whose docility to Rome, not merely in morals and essential discipline, but also in every behest of Propaganda, is beyond exception or doubt."

At the late meeting of the Benevolent societies in N. Y. city, the agent of the Seamen's Friend society related the following incident.

During a severe storm which raged along our coast a year ago last December, a vessel was wrecked off Falmouth in this state, and all on board petished. A sailor's chest was driven on shore, which contained a bible and daguerreotype. On the fly leaf of the bible were the following lines —

"A parent's blessing on her son
Goes with this holy thing
The love that would retain the one
Must to the other cling—
Remember, 'tis no common toy,
A mother's gift—Remember boy."

The daguerreotype was that of a female about 40 years of age, and without doubt the mother of the sailor. No one has been found to claim those relics, and it is possible that this notice may meet the eye of her who has so long waited for the coming of her poor boy.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6.—THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteen year: Vol XV, of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righteousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fettered Infidelity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave trader on this continent, though he never had anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder why its publication is tolerated in a commercial, action-loving City like New-York. The Newark Mercury once feebly remarked that it had never known a hard, grinding, screwing, avaricious employer who was not hostile to THE TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of infidelity and abuse of power, while giving no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of new and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found audience and hospitality; while it has ardently resisted and will persistently combat, every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class because of diversities of Nativity, Creed, or Color.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and cutting, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short whatever affects the social wellbeing of mankind, Polemic Theology alone excepted—finds here the freest and most searching discussion.

Actuated by profound conviction in the beneficent policy of Industrial development and Internal Intercommunication whose most conspicuous champion through the last Half-Century was HENRY CLAY—imbued, moreover, with that spirit of forbearance toward our weaker neighbors and toward the much wronged Aborigines of this Continent and of Peace with All which will hallow the name of Walt, THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its proper independence cooperated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party so long as its existence was preserved. When in 1850-2 an attempt was made to interpolate slave-hunting into its creed, we sternly resisted that imposition; when, at the close of the last Presidential canvass, it was seen that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to defeat their own party rather than allow its Anti-Slavery principles to be trampled, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events, including the rise and culmination of the Know-Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whigdom, only confirmed our unbending anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and sympathy, and words of cheer, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REACTION movement which, insured by the perfidious violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by the repeated and utter virtual sacrifice of their elections by an armed mob collected by conspiracy and hurled suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave state, is destined to sweep away the landmarks of old party leads, and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the free-souled in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the states which now only uphold it. To the success of this effort, the energies of THE TRIBUNE will be sternly devoted; while the TEMPERANCE REFORM, including the entire suppression of the Traffic in Intoxicating Beverages, will find in it, as hitherto, an earnest and unflinching advocate.

Continuing as a daily folio of moderate size, and with scarcely a shadow of retrenchment, THE TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form DAILY (three distinct editions), SEMI-WEEKLY and WEEKLY on a sheet 34 by 24 inches, eight ample pages of six broad columns each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregates:

Daily (morning and evening)	20,500 cop's.
Semi-Weekly,	14,175.
Weekly,	136,500.
California edition,	6,000.
Total	186,175 cop's.

We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half as large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers only an indirect pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled its subscription list, it would be absurdly not to perceive in this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

TERMS.

THE TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it must stop when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose rather to pay for it on credit, it is equally free to compel him. On the Weekly, we mean to stop every paper on the expiration of the advance payment, awaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If some errors, the amount is slight. We pay no local agents; with no money can to any when the payer cannot trust him to call or otherwise send it to a responsible man; its safety is at our risk, (and a serious risk it often proves) but are grateful to every one who deems it a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the DAILY TRIBUNE, $8 per annum.

SEMI-WEEKLY, $2; two copies for $3; five for $7; ten copies for $12; twenty copies to one address for $20; larger clubs, $1 each subscriber.

Additions may at all times be made to a club at the price paid by those already in it.

The Greatest Medical Discovery
OF THE AGE.
MR. KENNEDY of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common picture weeds a remedy that cures
EVERY KIND OF HUMOR,
FROM the worst Scrofula down to a common Pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, (both disorder diseases.) He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two to three bottles will clear the system of biles.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of erysipelas.
Three to five bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ringworm.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three to four bottles are warranted to cure scrofula.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.
A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken. Reader, I peddled over a dozen and bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effects of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I never sold a bottle of it but that bottle sold another. After a trial it always spoke for itself. There are hundreds of things that appear to me puzzling—But, that it grows in our pastures, in some cases quite plenty, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846; second, that it should cure so fast, of humor. I have given it to my children a year old, some of the worst humor, the hardest scrofula in Boston up to the Bills of Mortality, and in all the cures is certain. No change of diet is ever necessary. Eat the best you can get.
Over fifty thousand Bottles have been sold in Vermont the past year—and—Many Hundreds have given their testimony in the Bills. Never was a medicine sold with such unrivaled success, and never did a medicine receive such extraordinary recommendations from its patrons.

Most Important to the Ladies.
DR. GREENE'S celebrated Menstrual Pills have been long and widely known as invariably certain in remaining any complaint, regularity, or suppression of the menses.
In the Female Hospitals in Vienna, Paris, and Berlin, they have entirely superseded the use of all other remedies; having within some years supplanted by unofficial experience, a preparation of ergot, which was introduced with great eclat, but which has almost proved useless in consequence of producing retention of the monthly period after all the pains and symptoms of an easy delivery had been eliminated.
In every case, from whatever cause the obstruction may arise, as also for nervous complaints, where the health and spirits are broken down, they are always effectual and never injurious to health, and be used during pregnancy, though always with necessary care and caution in delicate cases.
Married ladies can use the pills in accordance with the directions, in which case they exceed the various nostrums by which the market is so plentifully supplied.
Price, One Dollar per box, containing eighty pills, directions.

AYER'S PILLS
Are curing the Sick to an extent never before known of any Medicine.
INVALIDS, READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES.
JULES HAUEL, Esq., the well known perfumer, of Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, whose choice perfumes are found at almost every toilet, says:
"I am happy in my own Cathartic Pills, that I have found them a better family medicine, for common use, than any other within my knowledge. Many of my friends have partaken of their benefits from time, and concur with me in believing that they possess extraordinary virtues for driving out diseases and curing the sick. They are not only effectual, but safe and pleasant to be taken—qualities which must make them valued by the public, when they are known."
The following testimony is TRANSLATED FROM THE RIO NOVO, 19th April, 1854:
"Dr. J. C. Ayer:—Sir: I have taken your Pills with great benefit for the bothersome, lingering loss of appetite, and Dyspepsia brother, who for the last years overtasked me to the extent. A few doses of your Pills cured me. I have used your Cherry Pectoral many years in my family for coughs and colds, and it is doing marvellous cures. You make medicines which cure; and I feel it a pleasure to commend you for the good you have done and are doing."
JOHN F. BEATTY, Esq., Sec. of the Penn. Railroad Co., says:
"Pa. R. R. office, Philadelphia, Dec. 18, 1853.
"Sir: I take pleasure in adding my testimony to the efficacy of your medicines, having derived very material benefit from the use of both your Pectoral and Cathartic Pills. I am never without them in my family, nor shall I ever consent to be, while they remain in the market."
The widely renowned S. S. STEVENS, M. D., of Westmoreland, N. H., writes:
"Having used your CATHARTIC PILLS in my practice, I certify from experience that they are an invaluable purgative. In cases of disordered functions of the liver, causing lethargic, indigestion, costiveness, and the great variety of diseases that follow, they are a salutary and speedy remedy. In all cases where a purgative remedy is required, I confidently recommend these Pills to the public, as superior to any other I have ever found. They are sure in their operation, and perfectly safe—qualities which make them an invaluable article for public use. I have for many years known your Cherry Pectoral as the best Cough medicine in the world; and these Pills are in no wise inferior to that admirable preparation for the treatment of diseases."
"Aston, Me., Nov. 25, 1853.
"Dr. J. C. Ayer:—Dear Sir: I have been afflicted from my birth with scrofula in its worst form, and now, after twenty years' trial, and an untold of amount of suffering, have been completely cured in a few weeks by your Pills. With what feelings of rejoicing I write can only be imagined when you realize what I have suffered, and how long."
"Never until now have I seen free from this loathsome disease in some shape. At times it attacked my eyes, and made me almost blind, besides the unendurable pain; at others it settled in the scalp of my head, and destroyed my hair, and has kept me partly bald all my days; sometimes it came out in my face, and kept it for months a raw sore. About one weeks ago I commenced taking your Cathartic Pills, and now am free from the loathsome complaint. My eyes are well, no skin is fair, and my hair has commenced a healthy growth; all of which makes me feel already a new person.
"Hoping this statement may be the means of conveying information that shall be good to others, I am, with every sentiment of gratitude, Yours, &c.,
MARIA RICK
