LETTER FROM THE EDITOR.

BOSTON, June 17, 1845.

This is a holiday—the anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill. The banks are closed, State st. is comparatively empty, and little business in the way of rail-road stock can be done to day. However, the skies are bright, literally and rail roadically, and to morrow will doubtless see the business go on with renewed ardor. Scattered as books and men are to-day, I cannot say how much has been subscribed; but the whole sum now in here, must approach hard on to one million of dollars.

To-day the "Native Americans" are having a—failure. An orator was procured from Philadelphia and a grand programme had been prepared of the procession and services of the day. There were one hundred persons in the procession—some say 102; rather "small potatoes" out of a population of 200,000 souls within a circuit of five miles. The military companies far outstrip these "Native" politicians in patriotism—and the little girls of Charlestown have beaten them both. I saw a regiment or so of the little misses this morning at the foot of Bunker Hill.

Intelligence came this morning of the death of Gen. Jackson; I have noticed no demonstrations of popular feeling as yet at this. It would be strange if the man who has filled the Presidential chair and wielded more power than any other American citizen—if the popular, once most popular, leader of the loco party, who has been all but deified in the flesh,—should pass away without one public expression of regret. It can hardly be so.

COMMON SCHOOLS.

We are glad to see an excellent spirit at work among the people of Vermont, in favor of common school education. Mr. Palmer, a gentleman eminently qualified for the purpose, is delivering lectures upon this subject, in all the principal towns in the State. He will be at this place on Saturday next (21st inst.,) and deliver a lecture at the Brick Church at 5 o'clock, P. M. There will be music, vocal and instrumental. It is hoped the people, en masse, will be there. All are interested. Ladies and gentlemen, parents and children, teachers and scholars, one and all, please come out and listen to the lecture.

☞ The amount of stock already taken in the Central Rail road, in Montpelier, up to Wednesday evening, amounted to $175,400. There will probably be enough more taken to go over $200,000.

Death of Gen. Jackson. The term of his eventful life closed on Sunday evening, 8th inst., at 6 o'clock. On Saturday morning the report reached Nashville that he had expired, owing to his having fainted away, in an attempt to remove him from his chair to his bed. He, however, recovered for a few hours.

A short time before his death, he took an affectionate leave of his friends and domestics, retaining, to the last, his senses and intellect unclouded. He expired with the utmost calmness, expressing the strongest confidence in a happy immortality through a Redeemer.

General Houston landed at Nashville, at half past six, on Sunday evening, and set off in haste to the Hermitage, but was met by the physician, who informed him that Jackson was no more.

We received this intelligence from Col. J. C. Eldredge, who accompanied Gen. Houston from Texas, and who is now on his way to Washington city.

The simple announcement of this melancholy, though long expected event, will excite the deepest emotion in the hearts of the American people. The memory of Jackson belongs to his country.—Her history will contain the record of his valuable services—his sterling patriotism will be his monument.

The funeral, we understand, was to have taken place yesterday morning.—Louisville Democrat.

Mr. Clay's Health. The Louisville Courier, noticing the appearance of Mr. Clay in that city, says—"His general health was never better, we learn, than it has been for several months past, and he now looks and walks as firm, erect, and vigorous, as he did fourteen years ago, when we first saw him."

There is a society in Prince Edward county, Va. which calls itself "The order of Self Inclined Bachelors." The girls are very much opposed to it, and we see by the last papers, that one of the girls had succeeded in getting a member to resign. His recantation was taken before a clergyman, which makes it good for life.

Resources of Mexico. The natural resources of Mexico are vastly superior to those of any other nation. Her mines of gold and silver are inexhaustable, and the soil yields valuable productions in rich profusion. The Mint of Mexico, from the discovery of the mines up to the first of January last produced about [$3,128,000,000!] three thousand one hundred and twenty-eight millions of dollars! In Taos, New Mexico, they have a gold mountain, which they work occasionally. This mountain was more extensively worked last season than heretofore. The search for gold has been extended to the south side of the mountain with great success. A person recently arrived in the United States from Taos with $13,000 in gold dust, & some lumps valued at $270, found within thirty miles of Santa Fe. The gold region lies entirely on the eastern side of the Rio Del Norte, and it is supposed that if worked with energy, it would yield millions annually.

Protect the Ballot Box.—Two convictions for illegal voting took place at Milledgeville, Ga. week before last, and the agressors were each sentenced to a year's hard labor in the Penitentiary. These were the first instances that ever occurred in the State.

MARRIED,

In Beverly, Mass. 31 inst., by Rev Mr. Dale, Rev. Joseph Tracy Secretary of the Mass. Colonization Society, to Miss Sarah C. Prince, of B.

BOSTON TRADE.

OPENING OF SPRING!

MAGNIFICENT, CHASTE & ORIGINAL DESIGNS FOR REMODELLING
"Oak Hall,"
FOR SPRING TRADE.

Opening of "Oak Hall" for three months!

ADVICE TO PROFESSIONAL MEN, MERCHANTS, CLERKS, with moderate salaries, FARMERS, MECHANICS, SEAMEN, FIREMEN, AND OTHERS:
VISIT OAK HALL!

ARRIVAL OF SPRING GOODS!
TO WHOLESALE DEALERS!

OPENING.

THIS MORNING FOR THREE MONTHS!

I would again most respectfully inform the citizens of Boston, and strangers visiting the city, (after a delay of six weeks, during which time I have not been idle,) I have completed my arrangements on the most

MAGNIFICEET SCALE,

greatly surpassing my former arrangements. The HALL is splendidly decorated with almost

MAGIC ELEGANCE!

The Architecture being Gothic, has given the artist an opportunity to display his taste to advantage. The PAINTINGS which adorn the walls are so perfectly chaste and appropriate, that every one will be fully compensated for the trouble of visiting it. The design and effect of the interior, especially when ILLUMINATED IN THE EVENING!
is unequalled in any Store this side the Atlantic. Much praise is due to the artist, for his share in beautifying this establishment. I flatter myself that the good taste of my fellow citizens and townsmen will fully appreciate all I have done, as my establishment was the FIRST and ONLY ONE that adopted the "Extreme LOW PRICE SYSTEM,"
Before "OAK HALL" was in existence, it was not an uncommon thing for merchants to pay from $5 to $7 for a suit of clothes. For one half of the sum or less, a perfect and entire suit can be obtained at this establishment, cut and made with that ease and grace that distinguishes my garments from others. From this first originated the Gothic style of Architecture in Boston, and Oak Panelling, &c., now so much in fashion.

EMPORIUM OF FASHION,

To those who have not visited this great

PLACE OF RESORT,

on account of the name of the street, I would most respectfully say that where my establishment is located was once the Court end of Boston, and at this time is visited and patronized by the most influential and respectable individuals.

Men, not unlike the Fields and Trees, once covered with a beautiful suit of Green, to now breaking from its Coat of Ice and Snow, and having its rusty suit of nature soon to be warmed into animation, and renew its beautiful suit of Green. So with Man—we appear on in his Overcoat, he now, on the opening of Spring, finds his outer suit rusty and shabby, and not suitable to wear. The great thing is to find a good place to fit out at a

and to be sure and have a GOOD FITTING SUIT, that will sit upon the form with ease, grace and gentility.

FIVE GOOD REASONS

Why you can purchase at "OAK HALL" less than at any other establishment in the United States:

FIRST—You do not have to pay me for your suit and the individual's that did not pay previous to you, as my business is cash on delivery.

SECOND—If any Garment made to order is not pleasing in every particular, it is no inconvenience to me to take it back, and make another, as ready made garments are directly in my line.

THIRD—I purchase my goods in large lots extremely cheap, and give my customers the benefit, by selling them at the smallest advance.

FOURTH—I go by the motto,
LARGE SALES & SMALL PROFITS,
or as some say,
"NO PROFITS AT ALL."
That I'll leave with my customers to decide.

FIFTH—My facilities are such at this time for doing a LARGE BUSINESS, that I can afford to sell at Very LOW PRICES.

BOY'S CLOTHING.

I have added to my already extensive manufactory, rooms for the manufacture of BOY'S CLOTHING, and shall keep a large supply of every kind, always on hand.

To Wholesale Dealers.

You will find the greatest variety of every style of Fresh manufactured Clothing, adapted for Spring, to your different Trades, and will be sold extremely low in large lots!
