ments were debated by Messrs. Allen, Niles, and Hamlin, when the subject was postponed to Monday next. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—A resolution was offered by Mr. Dixon, for the Committee on Commerce to report measures to prevent the taking of California gold to other countries for coinage. Agreed to unanimously.

An unsuccessful effort was made by Mr. Goggin, to take up the Postage bill.

The Pacheco slave indemnity bill came up, and was warmly advocated by Mr. Toombs, who said that the claim demanded was perfectly just and right, and urged the House to act favorably upon it. The subject had been under consideration long enough, and had already cost the sum of $10,000—therefore he desired that the bill might be agreed to.

The bill was passed by a vote of 106 to 94.

The House, in Committee, considered the bill for the establishment of a Board to settle private claims against government. Mr. Rockwell, of Connecticut, made a speech in favor of it, when the Committee rose, and the House adjourned.

Saturday, Jan. 20.

The Senate was not in session.

In the House, the business transacted was unimportant. In a Committee of the Whole, the bill for the settlement of private claims was brought up, and various amendments were offered, some of which were agreed to, and others rejected. The Committee rose without decision. Adjourned.

Resolved, That inasmuch as New Mexico and California are in fact and in law, Free Territories, it is the duty of Congress to prevent the introduction of Slavery within their limits.

Arrest of the supposed Murderer of Mr. Parker.—The Boston Journal states that Mr. Sheriff Bayles, of New-Bedford, arrested in that city on Wednesday afternoon a man just returned from a whaling voyage, on suspicion of being the murderer of Mr. Parker, of Manchester, N.H. in the early part of the year 1846. The sheriff committed the man to prison, and has gone to Manchester to get information relating to the matter. It is said that the person arrested made a partial confession of his guilt.

H. Sevier, who was nominated to the Senate, and has since died.

The Cholera among the troops in Texas subsiding. Galveston papers of the 2d inst. say that the accounts of the cholera among the troops at Fort Lavacca were subsiding. There had been no new cases nor any deaths for several days, and the general opinion was that the disease was at an end. None of the citizens of Lavacca had been attacked with the disease, and both that place and Indian Point were, excepting the sickness among the troops, quite healthy.

Decision of the Dorr Case.—Advices from Washington state that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, on Wednesday delivered a report upon the Rhode Island Dorr case, affirming the judgment of the Circuit Court of Rhode Island, in condemnation of the Dorr revolt; on every point raised, the counsel for the plaintiff has been overruled by the Court.

☞Messrs. Seaver and Son, Editors of the Batavia Times sent to the office of Dr. G. C. Vaughn, 297, Main street, Buffalo, the following certificate. "Three gentlemen published in their own paper at the date at which the certificate was given, a duplicate of the same, as it is a case which attracted considerable attention in that place, and this cure was attempted before, by the use of all well known remedies, and through the agency of the Faculty, and nothing done.

BATAVIA, N.Y. Sep 1st, 1849.

I hereby certify that I was taken with Tisipy in the month of October last, and was under the Doctors care for three months. About Jan. 1st, 1849, I was so swelled that I could not move hand or foot. I was perfectly helpless—gave up—was given up by my physicians and friends—and was told that all had been done which could be done to save me. About this time one of Dr. Vaugn's pamphlets fell into the hands of one of the neighbors, he purchased and sent me a bottle of the medicine; before I had taken half of it the blosting had very much gone down. I got three more, but before I had taken them up the swelling had entirely gone down, and I am now able to work, and my health is good.

The following article we copy with pleasure from the Boston Morning Post of the 19th inst. Much as we hope it may of our numerous readers are sufferers from any of the complaints which it is said to cure, they will speedily avail themselves of it.

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

It was known many years ago that the Wild Cherry tree of the Female possessed valuable medicinal properties. Indeed this fact was known to the Aborigines, and a Decoction of the leaves or bark of this tree, has ever been regarded by their physicians as one of the most efficacious remedies in all lung diseases. This fact, several years since, attracted the attention of Dunc Winter, a highly respectable practitioner of Virginia. He investigated with care the healing power of the Wild cherry, combined its effects when administered alone, and when in combination with other medical agents. He found that its natural virtues might be greatly improved, and by combining it with ingredients, whose properties were well proved and generally recognized, a medicine was produced which can rival or at least claim a sturdy co equal value in pulmonary affections, and diseases of the chest and lungs—diseases which are proverbially prevalent in our cities and large towns, and often prove fatal, swelling the bills of mortality to a much greater extent than is the case with most other, we had almost said, all other chronic diseases.

Some genuine, unless stamped I. BUTTS on the wrapper.

New York Wool Market, Jan. 19.

More buyers having made their appearance, this market has become animated. About 70 to 80,000 pounds was sold during the last week to manufacturers, and holders are now demanding an advance of one cent per pound on all grades. They urge that the stock is small, and the demand will be for more than they have on hand or can bring forward. We do not see how manufacturers can afford to pay even present prices for the raw material, and hope that wool holders will recollect that no advance on woolen fabrics has been realized as yet; it is true some may have ordered their goods held high, but it remains to be seen whether the consumer will consent to the rise.

Dry Goods Reporter.

Foreign woolens imported, $84,779.

We can readily see how a class of manufacturers can "afford to pay even present prices," and better prices still for wool—we mean those who work from 30 to 50 per cent of cotton into flannels, shawls, pantaloon stuffs, and even broadcloths. This is done, and accounts for a vast deal of "Cheap Clothing," which is really profitable, cheap as it is. Can the Reporter classify and distinguish "Union Cloths" in its reports? If our information is correct, the bona fide woolen manufacturers, the trade and the public are deeply interested in understanding this branch of business.

New York, February 13, 1847.
Sir: I have been cured of the Salt Rheum by a few applications of Hunt's Liniment. I was affected with the complaint for eight months. I tried every thing that was recommended, but all to no purpose; the disease grew worse. In September last, a gentleman (Mr. L. B. Titus,) with whom I was travelling, recommended Hunt's Liniment. I used it but six times when the disease left me. I have delayed making this communication, until I was certain that the cure was effectual and permanent. I am now certain it is so, and can therefore conscientiously recommend Hunt's Liniment, as a certain and speedy cure for the Salt Rheum.
Yours, respectfully,
J. F. CLEMENT.
Extraordinary Cure of Sciatica, of six years Standing.
Templeton, Worcester Co. Mass., Feb. 8, 1847.
Geo. E. Stanton: Dear Sir—I have been sorely afflicted with the Sciatica in both my hips for six years, and for the last two years to such a degree that since I happened to be in the store of Messrs. Lee, Harding and Jones, Mr Jones recommended me to try your external remedy, Hunt's Liniment, which I did, and after using one bottle I was enabled to walk without my crutches. Up to the present time I have used but five bottles, and am now attending to my business, which is that of a blacksmith. And I would further say it is the greatest remedy in the world. Should any one doubt this, I refer them to any of my neighbors for the truth of my statement. ELISHA P. COOK.
Lewis, Sussex Co., Delaware, Feb. 8, 1847.
Mr. Stanton: Send me Six bottles of Hunt's Liniment immediately. I am entirely out. I have heard of three cases of Cures being cured by twice bathing with the Liniment; several cases of Rheumatism; one case of croup and several of weak limbs. I have had to furnish the Liniment on the Sabbath, so sanguine was the applicant of its beneficial effect. I. WEST & SON.
Remember this Liniment is sold at the extraordinary low price of 25 cents a bottle. Who would hesitate, when certain relief is to be had for so small a sum?
Sold by every respectable Druggist and Merchant throughout the country. GEORGE E. STANTON, Proprietor.
