VERMONT TRANSCRIPT.

ST. ALBANS.

Friday, April 15, 1864.

WANTED—At this Office, an active, intelligent Young Man, of good habits, as an apprentice to the Printing business.

—George G. Benedict, Esq., who was advertised to deliver his lecture on the "Battle of Gettysburg," on Tuesday evening, was unable to keep the appointment in consequence of the three hours delay of the Chicago express train. He will deliver it on Wednesday evening of next week, at Academy Hall.

—Miss Edmunds, of Boston, whose reading of Shakspeare and other dramatic poets was so acceptable to those persons who were present on Friday evening, April 8th, at Academy Hall, St. Albans, will read at the Academy in Swanton Falls, early next week.

—We invite the special attention of our readers to the report of the Town Superintendent of Common Schools which is given at length in our columns this week.

—The old building so long occupied by the Bank of St. Albans was sold at auction April 6th, to William N. Smith, Esq., for $137.00, and has been nearly removed.

—Such spare earth as may be excavated from the cellar of the new St. Albans Hotel, we are glad to know, will be used to grade the village green.

—The Rev. Mr. Brown, of Andover, Mass., is temporarily supplying the pulpit of the First Congregational Church in St. Albans.

—Mr. Bradley Soule has sold his farm in St. Albans, commonly known as the "Wheat Beals place," to James Brooks, Esq.

—Mr. Marshal Mason designs to erect a dwelling house on Messenger street on land purchased by him of Hon. L. Brainerd.

—The Seventeenth Vermont Regiment is ordered to Annapolis on Monday next.

—Mr. Edwin F. Perkins will erect, this summer, a dwelling house on the "Saxe lot," so called, on Bank street.

—Our thanks are due to to the Hon. Jacob Collamer, U. S. Senator, for valuable public documents.

—About one hundred and fifty cavalry horses have already passed inspection at St. Albans, and have been forwarded to Washington.

—Naylor of the 17th Regiment, who was forcibly released from St. Albans jail by Capt. Brown, and subsequently returned to custody, was brought before Judge Aldis on Habeas Corpus on the 6th inst., and was discharged from imprisonment.

—We have received from Mr. Walton, publisher, Montpelier, a well printed and bound book entitled "The 2d Brigade, or Camp Life, by a Volunteer," which contains a record of camp life and of the battle of Gettysburg. The author is reported to be an estimable and deserving man from Waitsfield, Vt., and needs all the remuneration he hopes to receive from the sale of his book. See the advertisement in another column.

—We have received from the publisher H. L. Story, Burlington, a copy of two popular songs entitled "Let Me Hold it Till I Die," and the "Song of the Canteen." These songs, with other sheet music, are for sale by Mr. C. H. S. Pierce, St. Albans

—Mr. Willard Pierce recently purchased of Mr. Hiram Pierce the "St. Albans Hotel" and took immediate possession. The purchaser "knows how to keep a good hotel" and give satisfaction to his numerous customers.

—The Plattsburgh Republican says Gen. Horace Wadsworth of South Hero, whose death was noticed in last week's TRANSCRIPT, was buried with Masonic honors on Tuesday, April 7, by Isle of Patmos Lodge, Grand Isle, Vt., of which he was W. M. at the time of his death. The funeral was attended by a large number of the brethren from the different Lodges in the State of Vermont, and a delegation from Clinton Lodge, Plattsburgh.

—Ogden B. Read, 10th Vt., Vols., son of Hon. David Read of Burlington, has been given a Captain's commission in a colored regiment. A comrade of Read has also received an appointment. Capt. Read, now at Annapolis, expects to start for the South soon.

—The annual session of the Vermont Conference which commenced at St. Johnsbury on Wednesday last, is to continue five days; Bishop Janes of New York presiding.

—Lieut. Orville E. Babcock, who is on Gen. Grant's staff, and has risen rapidly to his present position, is a son of Elias Babcock, Esq., of West Berkshire, Vt.

—Nearly all of the original members of the 8th Vermont regiment, who in number, including officers, have [illegible] for another term, and in a [illegible] of weeks will be home on a [illegible]

—John C. Rives, publisher of the Congressional Globe, died after a protracted illness, April 10th, at the age of 67 years. His disease was gout in the stomach.

—The "Rutland Marble Company" have contributed a large block of the finest Statuary Marble, worth $500, to the New York Sanitary Fair.

—Chauncy K. Williams, Esq., of Rutland, has been elected an honorary member of the State Historical Society of Iowa.

—The new time arrangements of the Vermont Central, Sullivan & Vermont & Canada Railroads will not, probably, be made until the first of May.

—The line steamers of the Champlain Transportation Company have emerged from Shelburn Harbor for daily trips through Lake Champlain. This has always been a popular route for pleasure and business travel.

—The maple sugar crop in central Vermont will hardly be as good as the average, the dryness of the Spring interfering.

—The Rutland quarry-men are on a strike.

—Work has been resumed on the new Roman Catholic cathedral at Burlington.

—The Union State Committee of Vermont have memorialized the National Committee in favor of a postponement of the National Convention. That Committee is composed of the following gentlemen: John W. Stewart of Middlebury, S. B. Colby of Montpelier, B. W. Bartholomew of Washington, G. N. Dale of Island Pond, D. C. Denison of Royalton, George W. Wilkins of Stowe, and Jonathan Ross of St. Johnsbury.

—Rev. Charles C. Torrey, of Westford, and late of Georgia, has accepted a call to the Congregational Church in Chester, Vermont.

—Hon. George P. Marsh, the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to Italy has sent a very valuable collection of autographs to the New York Sanitary Fair.

—Capt. W. B. Reynolds, of Milton, has been appointed Major of the 17th Vermont Regiment. Buel J. Derby, of Huntington, has received the appointment of Quartermaster of the 17th Vermont Regiment. These appointments are said to be excellent and acceptable.

—It is stated that when the Seventeenth Vermont Regiment is filled, it will be sent to Annapolis, to join the Ninth corps under Gen. Burnside.

—Hon. Paul Dillingham is the member for Vermont of the Trustees of the "Soldiers' National Cemetery," at Gettysburg.

FRANKLIN COUNTY COURT—APRIL TERM, 1864.—Hon. Asa Owen Aldis, Chief Judge; Hon. Romeo H. Hoyt, Hon. Royal T. Bingham, Assistant Judges.

The Court was opened on Tuesday, April 12th, in usual form, and prayer was offered by the Rev. J. Isham Bliss.

The following gentlemen were summoned as petit jurors, and are in attendance:

Fairfield.—Moses Elwood, Jay Foster, Alonzo A. Farrand.

Franklin.—Philo Horskin, Leonard Ford, Adolphus Colton.

Georgia.—Alonzo Kimpton, Douglas K. Holmes, Elijah Curtis, Isaac T. Davis.

Highgate.—Zephaniah K. Drury, Homer C. Jennison, Harley Sanderson, (excused), Cyrus Thompson (excused).

WAR NEWS.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Gen. Grant came here this morning, and is in consultation with Gen. Halleck and the Secretary of War. He will go this afternoon to the camp near Annapolis, where the ninth army corps and other troops are encamped.

Gen. Sedgwick and many other officers went to the front this morning.

Gen. Hinks, who has succeeded Gen. Marston as the commandant at the depot for prisoners at Point Lookout, Md., is perfecting the organization of a regiment of "reconstructed" rebels.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations had the House resolutions in regard to European interference in Mexico under discussion this morning. Their adoption by both Houses might endanger our relations with France.

An army correspondent writes from the Rappahannock that whatever may result from the present uncertainty in regard to the immediate command of the army of the Potomac, General Grant is said to have declared his intention to move with it himself. The important part which it is intended to take in the approaching campaign is thus decided beyond doubt.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says there is no doubt entertained of the passage, by the House of Representatives in Congress, of the bill to amend the Constitution so as to prohibit slavery. A number of democrats have signified their intention of voting for it.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—The Inquirer has the following dispatch dated at Nashville yesterday:

It is certain at least that East Tennessee has been abandoned by the rebel troops and that they have destroyed all the bridges in their hasty evacuation.

Seven of Longstreet's Generals have been court-martialled in consequence of the failure of the campaign in East Tennessee.

Gov. Johnson has gone to Knoxville to oppose the separation of East Tennessee.

Johnson's army is receiving heavy reinforcements. Parts of Beauregard's army and raw troops have arrived at Dalton, Georgia.

Bishop Polk's army is on its way to Dalton.

Johnson's cavalry are active. The bulk of his army are at Tunnel Hill.

CAIRO, Ill., April 12.—Forrest with a large force was reported advancing on Paducah again last night from the direction of Mayfield. Reinforcements have been sent out from here to meet him.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Gen. Grant visits the camps about Annapolis today.

The Times dispatch says: Stringent orders have been issued in regard to citizens allowed to remain with the army of the Potomac. Correspondents are required to register their names before the 16th inst. After that date when absent from their post more than 24 hours they are to report to the Provost Marshal on their return.

The Tribune's Washington dispatch says: It is reported on good authority that Lee has ordered all his officers to send their baggage to Richmond before the 19th inst. After that date the road is to be used in bringing up reinforcements.

Nine of Mosby's men were captured by a detachment of the 2d Mass. cavalry on Sunday night, near Middleburg.

DUTIES ON FOREIGN WOOL.—The House Committee on Manufactures recommend an increase of the duty on wool, as follows:—

On that costing 18 cents or less per pound a specific duty of 3 cents per pound, and an ad valorem duty of 20 per cent; on that costing over 18 and not over 24 cents, a specific duty of 6 cents and an ad valorem duty of 20 per cent.; and on that costing over 24 cents a specific duty of 9 cents, and an ad valorem duty of 20 per cent. The duty shall be levied on the valuation at the port or custom house where the duty is paid.

PROSPECTUS OF THE VERMONT TRANSCRIPT,

A NEW WEEKLY UNION PAPER,

ESTABLISHED AT ST. ALBANS, VT.

For the free discussion of current topics in every department of American Life.

THE VERMONT TRANSCRIPT is designed to be a thoroughly Union Vermont newspaper. Its motto will be "Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable." In its columns will be found the fullest and latest intelligence of the day. Early reports of the markets and reliable items of financial intelligence, will be regularly given. Practical articles upon agricultural and commercial subjects will find a place in its columns. In the department of literary miscellany it will strive to be surpassed by no other weekly journal. In variety and fullness of information on current topics, and in the extent of its correspondence, it will endeavor to give satisfaction to all.

Its typographical appearance will be such as to commend it to all classes of readers. With the advantage of new type, and diligent attention to its mechanical neatness and accuracy, THE TRANSCRIPT will aim to merit, and hope to secure, a reasonable measure of popular favor.

Endeavoring to offer at once an instructive and entertaining Family Paper, and a carefully digested summary of current events, the Publisher will spare no pains to render THE VERMONT TRANSCRIPT a welcome visitor, such as good citizens will be glad to encourage and welcome to their firesides.

H. A. CUTLER, Publisher.

The Markets.

BOSTON MARKETS.

[Prepared expressly for the TRANSCRIPT.]

BOSTON, April 13, 1864.

Coffee—The market is very firm for Coffee, and prices still tend upward, but very little has been done. Java is not offered under 48 cents, cash; and sales of 300 bags common St. Domingo at 38½ cents, cash, now held at 40 cents, cash.

Flour—The receipts have been light and stocks of all kinds are quite reduced. Western superfine is very scarce and prices are nominally $7 25 @ 7 50; common extras have been sold at $7 75 @ 8; medium do at $8 25 @ 8 75; and good and choice, including Genesee, Canada, Ohio and Michigan, at $9 @ 9 75 ⅌ bbl. Ohio and Illinois, good and very choice extras have been sold at $9 @ $10 50 ⅌ bbl. St. Louis Flour is very firm and has been in demand. The sales of good and choice extras have been at $9 50 @ $12 50 ⅌ bbl, a few favorite brands selling at $11 25 @ $11 50, and scarce.

Grain—The sales of Southern yellow Corn have been at $1 40 @ $1 45, and the article is now held firm at $1 45; and for Western mixed $1 45 ⅌ bush is asked. Oats are firm and have been in fair demand, with sales of Northern and Canada at 84 @ 87 cents, and choice lots would sell for an advance on the latter rate. Rye is firmer and higher, with sales at $1 40 @ $1 45 ⅌ bush. White Beans continue in moderate demand, with sales at $2 30 @ $3 for common and good narrow and extra do, and $2 25 @ $2 75 for fine pod, as to quality. In Canada Peas there have been sales at $1 28 @ $1 30 ⅌ bush.

Wool—There has been quite an active demand for domestic Wool the past week, and the sales have been larger than we have had occasion to notice for a long time, and prices have improved from 2 @ 3 cents ⅌ lb. Manufacturers appear to have made up their minds to supply themselves freely, and it is evident that we have passed the lowest point for the present. The auction sale finally passed off at very satisfactory prices, generally speaking. About 250,000 lbs were sold, and 8,000 lbs withdrawn. The sales of the week sum up 1,000,000 lbs foreign and united at 64 @ 65 cents ⅌ lb as to quality. Include in the sales of foreign were 120,000 lbs mixed Cape at [illegible] Do Laine manufacturer, at a price we do not learn, but understood at about 75 cents; 35,000 lbs mixed Ohio at 77 cents; 3500 lbs do at 77½ cents; 50,000 lbs Michigan, a splendid lot at 80 cents; 5000 lbs fine Ohio at 81½ cents; 20,500 lbs fine Ohio and Pennsylvania at 82½ cents; 40,000 lbs fine Ohio at 82 cents; 30,000 lbs fine Ohio and Pennsylvania at 83 cents; 10,000 lbs choice Pennsylvania at 85 cents; 50,000 lbs medium and fine Ohio and Pennsylvania at 80 cents; 30,000 lbs fair New York at 76½ cents; 20,000 lbs ordinary New York at 70 cents; 100,000 lbs Michigan, New York and Ohio at 78 @ 80 cents; 15,000 lbs Illinois at 65 cents; 50,000 lbs Wisconsin and other Western at 75 cents; 17,000 lbs medium Ohio at 78½ cents; 3000 lbs heavy Illinois at 72½ cents.

Gold—Gold sold in New York, April 13th, at $1 79½, which is the highest point yet reached during the rebellion. U. S. Sixes $1 15; 7-30s $1 12 and 5-20s $1 14.

(Application to sell Real Estate.)

STATE OF VERMONT, District of Franklin, ss.

The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Franklin,

To all persons interested in the Estate of Anson Buck, late of St. Albans, deceased. GREETING:

Myron Buck, Executor of the Will of Anson Buck, late of St. Albans, deceased, makes application to this Court for license to sell Real Estate, it being one of the provisions of said Will, that said Executor should sell all the Real Estate of said deceased, as soon as he should think best for all persons concerned therein. Whereupon said Court assigns the 30th day of April, instant, for a hearing and decision on said application, and orders notice thereof to be given to all persons interested in said Estate, by a publication, three weeks successively, in the VERMONT TRANSCRIPT, a newspaper published in St. Albans, previous to the day assigned as aforesaid, when objections to the sale of the Real Estate of said deceased will be considered, if any shall be offered.

Given under my hand at St. Albans, this 11th day of April, A. D. 1864.

A GREAT CHANCE TO BUY VILLAGE LOTS. The subscriber having laid out the premises upon which he now resides, situated upon Main Street near the cemetery into village lots, takes great pleasure in informing those who may desire to purchase homes in the prosperous Village of St. Albans, that he has for sale upon reasonable terms, 22 Desirable Village Lots, 3 of which are situated upon Main Street about one fourth of a mile from the American House, and the residue upon streets leading from Main Street to the railroad, called Union and Mechanic Streets. Neat and comfortable houses can be located upon the lots at a cost not exceeding $700 each. One of the lots of three acres, with buildings and a valuable young orchard of 250 trees of choice fruit mostly in bearing. Price of the other 21 lots from 75 to $350. The road on Union Street will be opened within six months and fenced on the road side with the best fencing—the White or Hedge Willow. I am receiving orders for all kinds of Fruit Trees, and the White Willow Hedge, as Agent.

THE UNITED STATES CHRISTIAN COMMISSION would inform the patriotic, the philanthropic and Christian men and women of the country, of its work and its wants.

It cares for the body and the soul, as did Christ when on earth. By its delegates, who go without pay and from love, hospital stores, home comforts and reading matter are given directly to those who need them, together with such personal ministrations and religious instruction as each case may require—and the Gospel is preached at every opportunity.

In the hospitals, on the battle-fields, and in the camps of the strong and brave, the delegates are welcomed by surgeons, officers and men, and their labors have, in the judgment of those well-informed, saved thousands of lives, and been blessed to the conversion of thousands of souls, besides raising the morals of the army and strengthening the links that bind the soldier to his home.

It has the confidence of the Government and all the facilities from it that military exigencies will allow.

Its affairs are managed by business men who give their services. Railroads and telegrams are free to it; the Bible Society gives its publications; but religous reading matter must be purchased, and the demand is far beyond the ability of the Commission to meet it.

The wants of the Commission are men to go as delegates; stores to be distributed by them—money to purchase reading matter.

The aim is to have no large balance in the Treasury, but to do at all times what the current contributions shall allow, there being no extensive and complicated system of agencies that a change would seriously affect.

Money and Stores may be sent to GEORGE H. STUART, 11 Bank Street, Philadelphia.

In New England, money may be sent to JOSEPH STORY, 112 Tremont Street; Stores to L. P. ROWLAND, 5 Tremont Temple; Letters to CHARLES DEMOND, 4 Court Street, all in Boston.
